301 Members Join AFL-CIO Caravan
Local 301 was represented by 60 members in the nationwide AFL-CIO motor caravan which went to Washington, D.C., in a final effort to kill the Taft-Hartley bill.

Meanwhile, several AFL-CIO committees continued deluging the White House with opposition to the bill. The most recent meeting of the President's Advisory Council on Consumer Interests was held yesterday morning. President Truman is described as being especially interested in the subject of price fixing. A letter from AFL-CIO chairman of the meeting was read at the hearing. The letter stated that the Council should be expanded to include representation from all sections of the country. It was also urged that the Council be made permanent and that its activities be financed by the federal government.

301 Members Rain Down on Washington
The AFL-CIO motor caravan started in Los Angeles last night and will end in Washington, D.C., on May 1. The members are divided into 15 units, each headed by an AFL-CIO national official. The units are scheduled to arrive in Washington on May 13. The caravan is expected to arrive in Washington on the same day that the House of Representatives is scheduled to vote on the Taft-Hartley bill.

How Do You Like the Lines—of '47 Studebakers?

GE Foremen Given Handout on '47 Studebakers
The General Electric Co. has given to its nationwide foremen a booklet containing information about the '47 Studebakers. The booklet is called "'47 Studebakers for the Farmer." It contains data on the new models, including price, specifications, and features. It also includes a section on the company's policy of quality control. The booklet is designed to help foremen keep their employees informed about the new models and to encourage them to buy Studebakers for their farms.

\[ \text{Continued on Page 5} \]

GE Union to Meet on Company Relations
GE's refusal to continue negotiations in accordance with the contract will be discussed at a meeting of the national AFL-CIO Conference Board of the GE at the national headquarters of the union. The meeting was called to go over problems in the current negotiations between the company and the union.

\[ \text{Continued on Page 5} \]

Unions Prepare to Fight Back
The passage of the Taft-Hartley bill is expected to cause a general strike among workers across the nation. The AFL-CIO has called for a nationwide strike as a response to the bill. The union has also called for a national strike on the 4th of July.

Stewards' Council Will Meet July 8
The first meeting of the Stewards' Council will be held on July 8. The council is expected to discuss the plans for the nationwide strike and to make arrangements for the July 4th strike. The council is expected to have representatives from all sections of the country.

Record Turnout Expected; Auto To Be Awarded
All signs point to the largest field day in the history of the AFL-CIO. The union is expected to have the highest turnout ever, with more than 50,000 members attending.

Leading Queen Race

Wrestling "squad" scheduled for a trip to Canada, where it will compete against the Canadian national team. The "squad" is expected to win gold medals in all events.

Leading the Queen Race

Stewards' Council Will Meet July 8
The first meeting of the Stewards' Council will be held on July 8. The council is expected to discuss the plans for the nationwide strike and to make arrangements for the July 4th strike. The council is expected to have representatives from all sections of the country.

Record Turnout Expected; Auto To Be Awarded
All signs point to the largest field day in the history of the AFL-CIO. The union is expected to have the highest turnout ever, with more than 50,000 members attending.

Leading Queen Race

Wrestling "squad" scheduled for a trip to Canada, where it will compete against the Canadian national team. The "squad" is expected to win gold medals in all events.

Leading the Queen Race
Big Crowd Expected At 301 Field Day

How About Reading Your 301 Contract?

Local 801 has 2,000 copies of the 1947 GE-UE contract to give to union members who ask for them. The contract can be purchased at the union office. When the supply runs low, more will be ordered.

The best way for a UE worker to know his rights is to study it. It is available at the union office. Why not set aside a few minutes today?

GE Won't Arbitrate

A Union of Amalgamated Electrical Workers, Inc., has decided not to arbitrate the question of whether a member's rights are violated.

This decision makes it clear that the union will not arbitrate disputes over the interpretation of the agreement. The union explained its decision to its members.

Union Presses Grievances

For Two Retired Workers

The union has filed a grievance on behalf of two retirees who were denied their monthly pension payments. The retirees are entitled to monthly payments by the terms of their agreement. The union is seeking to have their payments reinstated.

Holiday Pay Cases

Involves 50 Workers

The union has filed a grievance on behalf of 50 workers who were denied their holiday pay. The union is seeking to have their pay reinstated.

Put In Your Bid

For Job Openings

Workers looking for advancement should remember to fill out their forms. The union is looking for workers who are interested in advancement. Workers are being hired by the company.

District Votes Aid

To Rem-Rand Strike

Papers for the Rem-Rand strike were mailed at special meetings of the UE District 8 Executive Board Monday night. The papers were mailed to UE members in the district for the membership to read and study.

Takorabata Needs Need for Political Action

Julian Elia, national UE secretary-treasurer, speaking at the recent meeting of the UE District 8 Executive Board Monday night. The papers were mailed to UE members in the district for the membership to read and study.