Skilled Crafts Vote to Continue Refusing Overtime Work

In Craft Dispute

Petrol Union President John Berra said that the company's failure to correct the complaints made by the employees would force the union to refuse overtime work. The union instructed its members to continue their overtime to ensure there are no delays.

Boulware Wants You to Believe Corporations Are Really Controlled by Little Stockholders

An advertisement released by Boulware十有限公司 claims that very few people in America truly understand how corporations are run. The advertisement claims that the stockholders are in control, and only a few share a small amount of the profits.

Inspection Brings Raise for Leader

A two-year (1500-year) frozen was won for a mailing manager group at a company in New York. The result of a joint union-management inspection of the facility.

1000 Delegates at UE Sessions

The thirteenth International UE convention opened Labor Day at Madison Square, New York, with a large group of delegates. Immigration officials failed to prevent the entrance of 47 Russian UE members. The president of the event was the platform, and a large crowd of delegates was present.

Can't Find a Home

A member of the UE Executive Board has reported that he cannot find a home with affordable rent. The member was forced to live in a motel due to the unavailability of affordable housing.

GE Contests Jobless Pay Of Pensioner

GE contests the jobless pay of a pensioner in a disagreement over the rights to pension benefits. The company has refused to provide compensation to the pensioner, who has claimed that the jobless pay is a violation of their pension agreement.

Judges Man on Acts, Fitzgerald States

'No Thanks, Mr. St. Louis'

Peterson Opposes City Sales Tax

A letter to the editor by Mr. St. Louis states, "No Thanks, Mr. Sales Tax." The letter argues against the sales tax, asserting that it is unfair and will disproportionately affect the poor.

No job is too menial for the man who can do it...a laborer, a janitor..." Fitzgerald replied.

"I think you're right about that," Peterson agreed. "I believe the entire plan will have to be tailored to fit the needs of each community."
1000 Delegates at AU Sessions

(Continued from page 1)

Two important sessions were held yesterday under the chairmanship of Professor E. H. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois.

1. The session was opened with a paper by J. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Economics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

2. The session was concluded with a paper by W. H. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Statistics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

Registering to Vote

In order to vote on Nov. 8 you must register. Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Vote in November or Miss the Election

By W. H. Cantwell

In order to vote in the November election, you must register. If you fail to register by Oct. 10, you will not be able to vote in the election. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

8-Fights Pensioner

On Unemployment Pay

(Continued from page 1)

and working conditions as the cause of his going off the job. He said the improvements were "not sufficient to meet the needs of the unemployed and, without additional working period, G1G expanded the relief program." Large increases like the GE are rare. In the last 20 years, there have been no significant increases in the average weekly wage.

Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Proctor Forces Strike

Workers of the Proctor Electric Company, Philadelphia, Aug. 30, in protest against the company's refusal to grant a wage increase, went on strike yesterday. The company had previously refused to grant a wage increase to the workers. The strike was settled today with a wage increase.

Electrical Union News

1000 Delegates at AU Sessions

(Continued from page 1)

Two important sessions were held yesterday under the chairmanship of Professor E. H. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois.

1. The session was opened with a paper by J. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Economics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

2. The session was concluded with a paper by W. H. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Statistics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

Registering to Vote

In order to vote on Nov. 8 you must register. Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Vote in November or Miss the Election

By W. H. Cantwell

In order to vote in the November election, you must register. If you fail to register by Oct. 10, you will not be able to vote in the election. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

8-Fights Pensioner

On Unemployment Pay

(Continued from page 1)

and working conditions as the cause of his going off the job. He said the improvements were "not sufficient to meet the needs of the unemployed and, without additional working period, G1G expanded the relief program." Large increases like the GE are rare. In the last 20 years, there have been no significant increases in the average weekly wage.

Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Proctor Forces Strike

Workers of the Proctor Electric Company, Philadelphia, Aug. 30, in protest against the company's refusal to grant a wage increase, went on strike yesterday. The company had previously refused to grant a wage increase to the workers. The strike was settled today with a wage increase.

Electrical Union News

1000 Delegates at AU Sessions

(Continued from page 1)

Two important sessions were held yesterday under the chairmanship of Professor E. H. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois.

1. The session was opened with a paper by J. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Economics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

2. The session was concluded with a paper by W. H. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Statistics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

Registering to Vote

In order to vote on Nov. 8 you must register. Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Vote in November or Miss the Election

By W. H. Cantwell

In order to vote in the November election, you must register. If you fail to register by Oct. 10, you will not be able to vote in the election. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

8-Fights Pensioner

On Unemployment Pay

(Continued from page 1)

and working conditions as the cause of his going off the job. He said the improvements were "not sufficient to meet the needs of the unemployed and, without additional working period, G1G expanded the relief program." Large increases like the GE are rare. In the last 20 years, there have been no significant increases in the average weekly wage.

Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Proctor Forces Strike

Workers of the Proctor Electric Company, Philadelphia, Aug. 30, in protest against the company's refusal to grant a wage increase, went on strike yesterday. The company had previously refused to grant a wage increase to the workers. The strike was settled today with a wage increase.

Electrical Union News

1000 Delegates at AU Sessions

(Continued from page 1)

Two important sessions were held yesterday under the chairmanship of Professor E. H. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois.

1. The session was opened with a paper by J. B. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Economics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

2. The session was concluded with a paper by W. H. Cantwell, of the University of Illinois, on the subject of "The Principles of Agricultural Statistics." The paper was followed by a discussion in which several of the delegates participated.

Registering to Vote

In order to vote on Nov. 8 you must register. Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Vote in November or Miss the Election

By W. H. Cantwell

In order to vote in the November election, you must register. If you fail to register by Oct. 10, you will not be able to vote in the election. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

8-Fights Pensioner

On Unemployment Pay

(Continued from page 1)

and working conditions as the cause of his going off the job. He said the improvements were "not sufficient to meet the needs of the unemployed and, without additional working period, G1G expanded the relief program." Large increases like the GE are rare. In the last 20 years, there have been no significant increases in the average weekly wage.

Registration dates in cities and towns with over 1000 population are Oct. 1 to Oct. 10. In outlying places, the registration period is Oct. 1 to Oct. 30. If you have any questions, you may call your local election office.

Proctor Forces Strike

Workers of the Proctor Electric Company, Philadelphia, Aug. 30, in protest against the company's refusal to grant a wage increase, went on strike yesterday. The company had previously refused to grant a wage increase to the workers. The strike was settled today with a wage increase.

Electrical Union News