William Laing—

UNION REPRESENTATIVE AND CONTACT-COLLECTOR ON THE SECOND SHIFTS OF THE REFRIGERATION DIVISION.

Bill not only acts as representative, but is in the general line of business, between the headquarters and other representatives in his section.

Brother Laing has approximately 17 years service with the G. E. Company and has been employed in the Refrigeration Department since 1918.

Bill is a valuable man to the company, as he is constantly on the job, where he is needed, and is always on the lookout for new ideas and suggestions.

Charles White—

MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD AND UNION REPRESENTATIVE.

Charles White has been a member of the Executive Board for several years, and is one of the ablest representatives of the Union in the District.

Charles is a man of great ability, and is always ready to help any member of the Union with any problem they may have.

Thomas Caffield—

MEMBER OF THE LOCAL UNION MANAGEMENT.

Thomas Caffield is a member of the Local Union Management, and is always ready to help any member of the Union with any problem they may have.

LOOKING AHEAD

Social Security

Changes have taken place in the Social Security law, which are very beneficial to the workers. The Social Security Act now includes the wives and dependents of insured workers.

All of our Union representatives have been supplied with booklets to explain the law as now amended. See your representative for information.

CHARLES CAMPBELL

Union Representative in Building #8

Brother Campbell's union history started in Scotland in 1930, as a member of the National Union of Metal Workers and Draughtsmen. He served four years as a delegate to the Glasgow branch of the union and two years as President. He served on the national committee of the union for nine years, and two years on the York City executive council. He served as a member of the drafting committee for five years, and a member of the training committee for six years. Brother Campbell has been a member of the National Union of Metal Workers and Draughtsmen for 30 years.

Brother Campbell was the first member in Building #8 to become active in the union, and has paid his union dues every year since.

He has served on the executive committee of the union for 20 years.

Brother Campbell's activities on behalf of the working people are many and varied. He is an active member of the Independent Labor Union of Canada, and has been an active member of the local union for many years.

Brother Campbell is a member of the United Steelworkers of America, and has been an active member of the union for 30 years.
