ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS
February 27, 1967

GEB Policy Upheld in Bridgeport Case

The Local 301 membership meeting on Feb. 18 was in support of the USA’s General Executive Board’s action in revoking the charter of Local 283 at the Bridgeport SEU plant for non-union labor practices. The membership was united in its support of the GE management and the SEU leadership in this matter.

The resolution passed by the Bridgeport unit was in support of the USA’s action in revoking the charter of Local 283 at the Bridgeport SEU plant for non-union labor practices. The membership was united in its support of the GE management and the SEU leadership in this matter.

Committee Officers

Veterans’ Center Opens at 301 Hall

Following the closing of the new GE headquarters at 301 Hall, the Veterans’ Committee of Local 301 will operate a veteran’s center open two afternoons a week at this hall.

The center will be open Monday and Wednesday afternoons. One member of the committee will be assigned to the center every afternoon. It will be open to all veterans on a volunteer basis. The center will be open to all veterans who wish to join.

Unions Charge GE

Local 301 Will Fight Bandit Trucks

The Executive Board has called for an investigation of the union meetings at the GE headquarters in Bridgeport, Connecticut. The union charged that the meetings were non-union and that the union members were not being paid for their services.

They Head Activities

Union Continues Fight to Raise Women’s AER’s

The President’s Committee on Women’s Affairs has recommended an increase in the Women’s AER rate to $1.25 per hour. The Committee recommended that the increase be paid to all women employees, regardless of their position or job classification.

Need Any Help

On Income Tax

Two U.S. Income Tax officials will assist at Local 301 Hall this week to help members file their tax returns. They will be available weekdays from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

They told the members that they have been trained to help people who need assistance with their tax returns.

A Special Meeting of all Women Members and Men’s Committees

On Wednesday evening, March 1, the President’s Committee on Women’s Affairs will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the question of salary discrimination against women employees. The meeting will be held in the union hall at 301 Hall.

101 Backs UE Officers on Protest Over Wilson

Executive Officer of national UE officers is top executive officer. Committee recommends that officers be voted on by each member of the union. The officers have expressed their support for the officers of the union.

Local 301 CIO Council Meets

The CIO Council of Local 301 met last week to discuss the question of the union’s policies. The officers of the union have been working on the question of the union’s policies.

301 Officers Report

President: Edward Wallingford, left, chairman of the Constitution and Bylaws Committee. Secretary: John Smith, right.

301 Backs Bill For Midnight Work

Local 301 will press for the passage of the bill that would allow women workers to work at midnight. The officers have been working on the bill and have been meeting with members of the union to discuss the question of the union’s policies.

301 CIO Council Meets

The CIO Council of Local 301 met last week to discuss the question of the union’s policies. The officers of the union have been working on the question of the union’s policies.

GE Conference Board

President Andrew Peterson, chairman of the GE Conference Board, met with Local 301 representatives on the GE Conference Board for 301. They were to discuss the officers’ recommendation to the GE Conference Board for the union’s policies.

The officers have been working on the question of the union’s policies.