Glad to Get Hands on Some Low Cost Clothes

Members of Local 361 experience an encore at the sale of last week's cooking at the union hall.

The sale will continue through 7 p.m. tomorrow.

(Photograph)

Don't Miss Out On Clothes Sale

Take advantage of the last chance for Local 361 members to save money by bidding for overstock, seconds, misprints, kitchenware, shoes and clothes at the union hall.

The hours will be 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.

(Photograph)

$123,835,000 Profit to do It With

Unions Unite On Problems Of Lay-offs

Local 361 has joined with other unions of the area, CIO, AFL, and independent, to publish the growing job losses problem through joint action.

Representatives of various unions, at a conference in the Local 361 meeting hall, organized the CIO-Federal United Nations and sat in on the Lay-off Press Conference.

The conference was attended by the AFL-CIO, which is considering the matter of the situation for members.

In his introductory speech, Ed Lurie, an independent, stated:

"The situation is critical, and we must act now to prevent further job losses."

The conference was attended by the AFL-CIO, which is considering the matter of the situation for members.

In his introductory speech, Ed Lurie, an independent, stated:

"The situation is critical, and we must act now to prevent further job losses."

Two More Lobbyists

The General Motors Corporation has hired two more lobbyists to help stake its Tuff-Darby Law. They are John C. Gall, who was working for the National Association of Manufacturers for 15 years, and F. Marcy Benton, who had already worked on the Tuff-Darby Law earlier this year.

UE Broadcast

The United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers of America, Local 361, will broadcast its Voice of Local 361, Tuesday, April 5, at 7:30 p.m. on station WTAM, Cleveland.