Was The General or McCarthy "A Disgrace to the Uniform?"

What about McCarthy's war record? Most newspaper publisher of the Los Angeles Times has turned much needed light on this question, which the McCarty issue of General Zwick's has made painstakingly presented in a signed article, Feb. 18, 1954. Governor called the war a "disgrace to the uniform!"

Fifty years old, Zwick was in the D-Day invasion of France and commanded troops in Northern France, Normandy, Belgium, France, and the Rhine. He has been with the U.S. Army for 30 years and was appointed to Camp Admiral last July.

His decorations include the Silver Star, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, British Distinguished Service Order, French Legion of Honour and Cross de Guerre with palm.

Here is the Army record of McCarthy, as the man McCarthy says is "a disgrace to the uniform."

McCarthy is considered to be a "triumph" of the Army's policy of "independence" in the conduct of its affairs. Fifty years old, Zwick was in the D-Day invasion of France and commanded troops in Northern France, Normandy, Belgium, France, and the Rhine. He has been with the U.S. Army for 30 years and was appointed to Camp Admiral last July.

As a rear admiral, he received the Distinguished Service Medal for his work during the invasion of France and the liberation of the Netherlands. He also received the Legion of Merit for his service in the invasion of France and the liberation of the Netherlands.

Zwick's record in the Army is impressive. He has received numerous awards and honors for his service, including the Silver Star, Bronze Star, and the Distinguished Service Medal.

Resolution

"Anti-Union Petitions Scored By Stewards"

Almost in a man, the stewards of U.E. Local 301 rose to their feet in Union Hall last Monday to denounce recent moves designed to split their union's workers before the opening of critical contract talks with their employers.

With only three votes against, the stewards passed a resolution on Thursday which is aimed at stopping any attempts to split the union and giving all workers control over the conditions and actions of their employers.

Business Agent Leo Jankowski who presided at the meeting said that the resolution showed the stewards had been uniting their forces to defend the constitution and give all workers control over the conditions under which they work.

The regular monthly meeting of the union will take place March 15. After the meeting of the stewards, Jankowski said that the resolution had been passed.

Defeated the resolution and by-laws which were conceived in a protest against some acts of the officers.

Agreed with the resolution and by-laws which were defeated by a vote of 3 to 2.

Seniority and The Groups

Wherever there are groups there is a monopoly in the hands of the members of the group to think of themselves as a "closed group" and to retain workers "hanging in" on the franchise of seniority.

The US position, of course, is that seniority must be strictly observed and that is the reason we are forced to open the door to the system of seniority.

It is also the interest of the group members to know that their seniority will help them get into another group in case of layoffs.

It sometimes happens that we are able to upgrade a long service worker through our contract at present does not call for anything but 'horizontal bumping.'

LUE is common with many other unions like we see seniority being given to workers and workers being upgraded. Companies like this or that, this is what it means, in all honesty, makes it more difficult to play favorites and make decisions.

Draft of Hand Quit

In McCarthy's 1st instance, McCarthy, Russell P., 1956, resigned from the National Labor Relations Board, on the ground that he had been ruled by the New York Times. The paper's role in helping to bring about the same thing is also being played.

Mrs. Roosevelt Hits

Spread of Fear

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in a statement on Feb. 27, 1945, predicted that the war would be disastrous to the outlook of the American people. While the statement was made, the Labor Department's announcement that the country's economic expansion would continue for several years was the subject of some discussion.

Jobless Aid Bill Beaten in Albany

A last-minute attempt to pass a bill to give unemployment benefits to the unemployed was rejected by the New York State Legislature. The bill, which had been sponsored by the state's governor, was defeated by a vote of 92 to 33. The defeat was considered a setback for the unemployed and those who have not been able to find work in recent weeks.

In view of growing unemployment, the state legislature had called a special session to discuss the matter. The bill, which would have provided unemployment benefits, was rejected by a narrow margin.

The defeat of the bill was a setback for those who have been unemployed and have not been able to find work in recent weeks. The state government has been struggling to find ways to help those who have been affected by the economic downturn.

Despite claims by the company that it is expanding communities, the new contract provides for a reduction in the number of workers employed in the communities.

Evidence that a recent unemployment survey of the Schenectady area missed many jobless since the Labor Department, to announce that it will take a re-count.

The new survey may officially take the Schenectady region out of its present "satisfactory" employment category.

Blodgett Defends "Fifth" Against McCarthyism

The issues and problems that all Americans in McCarthy-style hearings were discussed last Wednesday by the noted Schenectady attorney, Harold E. Blodgett.

Mr. Blodgett represented IEEE Local 360 at the one-man McCarthy hearing in Albany and was introduced to the television audience by Business Agent Leo Jandrenus.

Telling the history behind the Fifth Amendment, Mr. Blodgett warned that if the Bill of Rights is struck down "our present institutions vanish.

Mr. Blodgett then went on to explain why the witnesses had invoked the Fifth Amendment and why, in his view, they should have been given an opportunity to testify and the Court is required to charge the Jury to the effect that failure to testify shall not be considered in any way evidence of guilt. Once again, to keep a witness in contempt is to commit perjury.

The testimony of Arrasmith was not admissible and the court was warned to that effect. The testimony of Arrasmith was not admissible and the court was warned to that effect.

Think Back - Think Ahead!

The UE contract with GE is in full force and effect until April 1, 1955.

UE will take all steps necessary to protect the wages, conditions and benefits of all who come under the UE contract.

For the third time in four years, General Electric is trying to force the IUE-CIO down the throats of Schenectady workers. The company filled petitions with the NLRA in 1950, asking that Curry's union be certified as the bargaining agent. But Schenectady workers crushed the IUE in elections in '50 and '51. New GE is trying it again.

WHAT HAPPENED TO JANDRENU?

Only a week ago Monday, and in the union newspaper but Friday, Jandrenus urged the strikers and the members not to sign petitions aimed at UE. He said they were against the welfare of GE workers. What happened to Jandrenus over the weekend?

Jandrenus has many times declared that the UE contract is the best in the GE chain and in the industry.

Why suddenly does he have a movement to defeat the satisfactory work protection and job security of the UE contract? Why is he now trying to sell Curry and the inferior IUE contract to GE Schenectady workers?

Anti-Union Petitions Scoured by Stewards

Every man wants to know: WHAT'S THE DEAL, JANDRENU?

UE is confident that it will defeat this new attempt to split GE workers.

Do No Deal

No deal with IUE-CIO and GE can solve the problems of layoffs and company attacks on seniority and piece rates. Our conditions can only be defended and improved by standing up to the company — not by crawling to the repudiated and discarded IUE.

UE — the union that organized and represented GE Schenectady workers for the 17 best collective bargaining years of their lives — will protect the workers' interests against all companies, against the company's IUE raiders, anti-union politicians and the "captive," Jandrenus.

DO NOT SIGN ANYTHING IN THESE NEXT DAYS. YOU MAY BE SIGNING AWAY YOUR JOB AND PRICE PROTECTION.

THE MEMBERS WANT TO KNOW . . . .

Everywhere you hear GE workers asking questions:

What's the deal?
Why the secrecy?
Why the hurry?

The first news GE Schenectady workers had that there was a move to destroy UE Local 301, after 17 years, were the front page stories in last Monday's newspapers and the pictures of guards around Union Hall.

What happened to Leo Jandreau to make him lead a secession movement which would wreck UE Local 301—the local of which he was Business Agent for 17 years?

Why suddenly does he embrace Carey and IUE-CIO?

JANDREAU VS. CAREY

Jandreau held the spotlight on Carey for many years as a disruptive agent of the General Electric Co. He convincingly proved that Carey gave away plant-wide seniority and real piece rates protection in the IUE plants.

He showed that the UE contract provides plant-wide seniority, piece rate protection and is superior in other respects.

UE CONTRACT VS. IUE-CONTRACT

Have the UE and IUE contracts changed?

There's no plant-wide seniority in any IUE—GE contract. In GE Syracuse last year, the workers were on strike for 16 weeks in a vain attempt to get back the superior UE protection of piece rates and seniority.

This explains in great part why fewer than 10,000 workers pay dues to IUE-CIO, in all the GE shops under IUE.

These facts are well known to Jandreau. He has explained them many times.

ENTER McCARTHY

What happened to Jandreau?

There were the secret meetings between Carey and Jandreau now out in the open. But nothing happened until after the McCarthy hearings in Albany, February 19 and 20.

(Note that the exchange of letters by Jandreau and Carey were dated March 4 and 5.)

SURRENDER TO McCARTHY

What did Jandreau agree to do that caused McCarthy to leave Albany without putting him on the witness stand? Jandreau had been subpoenaed. Why wasn't he called before McCarthy? And what is the deal with Rep. Kearney of the Un-American Activities Committee?

If, as many suspect, Jandreau is running from McCarthy and GE, why should GE workers give up their UE contract, seniority, time values and other benefits?

SURRENDER TO GE

GE wants to break down the protection of piece prices and plant-wide seniority in Schenectady. But, the Company is getting only token resistance from the union leadership.

You can't run from McCarthy and fight the company, too. GE workers have noticed that the union office wasn't tackling the growing layoff crisis of fighting effectively on rate cuts and seniority violations of the UE contract.

NEED UNITY BEHIND UE

GE workers need unity behind the protection of the UE contract in view of growing layoffs, the drive to lower the earnings of the people. Amid the storm signals of depression, our local is being seriously split for the first time in our 17-year history.

With his "Sidle" stalled by the rank and file workers, Landreau is now complaining that he is the victim of "outsiders."

This is a strange cry from those who are trying to hand over the 16,000 UE members to an outside outfit in violation of their oath of office and the UE constitution.

DEFEAT THE OUTSIDERS

Who are the "outsiders?" Is it UE, the union that has represented GE workers for 17 years—that organized GE workers, united them and negotiated the National Agreement for Schenectady, or is it the repudiated IUE which was twice defeated by GE Schenectady workers in secret ballot elections in 1930 and in 1931?
