Cognetta Wins with Whole Slate; Voting For Stewards Slated Monday & Tuesday

The membership of UE Local 301 voted overwhelmingly to give James J. Cognetta a second term as president of the union in secret ballot elections held last Thursday and Friday. Cognetta's victory was shared by the complete slate on which he ran.

Executive Board to Represent 301 Sunday At Schenectady State Legislative Parley

UE Local 301 will be represented by the entire executive board at the state legislative conference of the union which is held in Schenectady on Sunday. The board, which acts as the union's legislative subcommittee, will join with delegates of UE locals from New York State, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Connecticut to study legislative measures affecting the economic and working conditions of UE members and to discuss problems related to the union's activities.

Balloting in Shops To Elect Stewards

Elections to fill the 65 key shop stewards' offices will be held in the UE Local 301 area Tuesday of next week. The voting will be conducted by the UE Local 301 electoral committee. Each group of workers will vote separately for the man or woman who is to represent it in the everyday union matters during the coming year. Where it is not possible to hold the voting at the end of the shift, the stewards will arrange for elections on another date.

Newly Elected Officers

The following officers were elected by a majority of the members present at the meeting: a new executive board member, hooker William Krahn; a new steward, John Black; and a new shop steward, Bob Brown. The new officers will take their office on January 1, 1952.

The posts of recording secretary, treasurer, and comptroller were won by Roy Schiffer, Schenectady, and Lee Cohen, Schenectady, respectively.

Cable Workers

The cable workers are expected to receive a new contract soon. The negotiations are said to be nearing completion, and a new contract is expected to be signed within the next few weeks.

Protests Mount Against Hike Delay

Protests against the wage hike delay continue to mount. The United Electrical Workers of America, Local 301, has called a rally for Saturday to protest the delay in the hike.

Executive Board

A meeting of the executive board of the United Electrical Workers of America, Local 301, was held last Thursday evening. The board discussed the wage hike delay and the need for action to secure a settlement.

The leadership for the coming year was announced at the recent meeting of the UE Local 301 executive board. The following officers were elected: President James J. Cognetta, Vice President John Black, Secretary-Treasurer Edward LaBenda, and Recording Secretary Robert Krahn.
Three Leading City Government Officials
Will Greet Big Xmas Parties This Weekend

Three top city officials will greet the children of union members this weekend at what promises to be the biggest set of Christmas parties ever sponsored by UE Local 301. Mayor Maurice M. Cohen and Police Commissioner J. W. Remmey will attend the celebration at the headquarters of the Municipal Employees Union.

Mayor Cohen will be in three parties sponsored by the union, with the first one getting underway at nine which Saturday morning. The others will be at 1:30 in the afternoon on both Saturday and Sunday.

The kids who are expected to attend will be treated to a first-rate variety show as well as to merriment and mirth. To top off the festivities, each child will be given a Christmas present by the mayor in person. Thus, there will be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on both days, the activities committee has made arrangements so that kids who might be unable to get in will not be disappointed. These packages will be able to get their Christmas gifts and merrily at theeler hall on Sunday. The arrangements and plans for the activities are under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Washburn, head of the committee.

Free Harold Ward--Company
MURDER FRAME-UPE IS DEFEATED

Complete freedom was won last week for Harold Ward, Negro driver of the International Harvester tractor and victim of a vicious company-engaged murder frame-up. Ward was told that the charge of robbery with a firearm had been dropped.

The jury returned its verdict after the case had been heard for three days, and the only manner in which the victim was able to make his appeal to the world was to write to his lawyer, Mr. Walter R. Hays, on the subject. The case was heard in the Illinois circuit court, and the defendant, Mr. L. E. Smith, was found guilty of murder in the first degree.

The verdict was rendered after the trial had been held for 10 months, and the defendant was found guilty of murder in the first degree. The case was appealed to the Illinois supreme court, and the defendant was found guilty of murder in the first degree.
