AF! Local Backs Wausau Workers

A high degree of labor unity among the people of Wausau, Wis., centered in the headquarters of this city, is a well-known fact. The local union has been at work during the last few weeks, and the workers have been strong in the fight for the rights of the union. The men have been active in the work of the union, and they have been successful in their efforts. The union has been well organized and has a strong membership. The men have been active in the work of the union, and they have been successful in their efforts. The union has been well organized and has a strong membership.

Members OK Committee Making Advancements

Local 301's membership on Monday voted approval of the executive board's recommendation on the composition of 7 major committees after making additional advancements. These advancements included the elimination of the chairman of the executive board, the elimination of the vice chairman of the executive board, and the elimination of the treasurer of the local union. These advancements were recommended by the executive committee.

UE Tells Carey REAL Joint Action for Workers Possible

President Carey has made a statement on the question of the joint action between the UE and the AFL. He has stated that the joint action is possible, provided that there is a change in the attitude of the UE leadership towards the joint action. He has further stated that the UE leadership must be willing to give up its old policy of opposition and to work in cooperation with the AFL. He has said that the UE leadership must be willing to give up its old policy of opposition and to work in cooperation with the AFL.

NEW STEWARDS

The 15 new stewards were sworn in Monday at the union's meeting. They are: Arthur Williams, 30; Frank Filipowicz, 31; Charles Pfister, 32; John Mallone, 33; George Horn, 34; and John Smith, 35. The new stewards were elected by a vote of the members.

Endorse Vote Plan

UE Local 900's membership voted to endorse the Endorse Plan. The plan is designed to make it possible for workers to work in all lines of work. The plan will enable workers to work in all lines of work. The plan will enable workers to work in all lines of work.

Court Rules New Affidavits Illegal in Big UE Victory

The court has ruled that the new affidavits are illegal, and the UE has won a significant victory in this case. The court has ruled that the new affidavits are illegal, and the UE has won a significant victory in this case. The court has ruled that the new affidavits are illegal, and the UE has won a significant victory in this case.
Taft Amendments Would Hurt Labor

Mr. Robert Full led the Trustee in a letter to the Executive Board of the AFL last week, urging it to support the Taft-Hartley bill. Mr. Full's letter, which was mimeographed and distributed to the Executive Board, was the second of three letters written by Mr. Full to the Trustee on the subject. Mr. Full was not present at the meeting of the Executive Board and did not have the opportunity to present his views in person.

The Trustee, however, was able to read the letter and discuss its contents with the Executive Board.

Stewards Receive Vital Questions

Meeting with the shop stewards conducted at the shop by executive council members of the AFL last Wednesday was a success, according to the AFL. The representative at the meeting said that the shop stewards were informed about the laws and the rights of employees under the Taft-Hartley Act.

The questions dealt with many of the key issues facing the shop stewards, including the rights of employees to organize and the duties of employers to bargain with unions.

Christensen Returned

A committee of the AFL has been appointed to work on the Taft-Hartley bill, according to the AFL.

Local Committees Pick '53 Leaders

Local Committees are meeting to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

District Council Deals with Strikes

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

District Council Deals with Strikes

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Local Politics:

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.

Two Workers Get Class A Ratings

The AFL has been working with local committees to select leaders for the coming year. The AFL has been actively involved in this process, and is working to ensure that the leaders selected are representative of the membership and are able to address the needs of the workers.