How Labor Can Win Taft-Hartley Fight

Recall of the Taft-Hartley law is more than just a slogan. It could mean the difference between life and death for many workers. The law has been a threat to the rights of workers for years, and now it is time to fight back. Labor must unite and demand that the law be repealed.

Layoffs Look "Good" From a Swivel Chair

The secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati, Ohio, has given a forecast that Cincinnati will have less unemployment this year than any other city in the United States. This is due to a decrease in the number of workers who have been laid off.

How Your Readjustment

If you have been laid off and have not been able to find a job, there are several steps you can take to improve your chances of finding one. First, make sure your resume is up-to-date and tailored to the type of job you are seeking. Second, be prepared to interview and present yourself well. Finally, network with others in your field and keep an eye out for new opportunities.

Free Truant "Six" Drive Upped by Story

The recent nesting of the Truant "Six" in the Louisville, Kentucky, area has caused a stir among the city's residents. The group has been accused of committing crimes and disrupting the peace and order of the community. Local authorities are now taking steps to apprehend the members of the group.

Unemployment Here Climbs

The number of unemployed individuals in the United States has continued to increase in recent months, with over 10 million people currently without work. This is a significant issue for the economy and it is essential that we find ways to reduce unemployment and provide support for those who are in need.

WILL Fight Removals At National Level

Local 412, the largest union in the United States, has announced that it will continue its fight against the Taft-Hartley law. The union believes that the law is unconstitutional and has vowed to continue its efforts to have the law repealed.

Facts of Unions at GI After First World War

The GI Union was a powerful force during World War I, but after the war it was dissolved. However, it has recently resurfaced and is now seeking to organize veterans of the war. The GI Union is working to improve the lives of veterans and provide support for those who have served.

The end of the war, however, marked the beginning of disaster for 1922 and 1923. In support of general legislation, both the AFL and CIO plants were busy. The depression of 1929-1930 followed the failure of the banks and businesses, causing a tremendous decrease in the number of veterans who were able to work. This led to a decrease in the number of members in the GI Union.
