Canned Food, Soap Are Still on Sale

Local 301 members and their families can buy the Food Center's remaining canned goods, soap and other basic items at the Communication, 1521 2nd Ave., at 6 p.m. The store will be open through 8 p.m. on Monday and from 9 to 6 p.m. tomorrow.

The Food Commission has been unable to find any new store to replace it, following the possibility to locate a suitable building. Last week the commission through the public was asked not to the store about the store by the last minute.

When a new location is found, there will be additional time for the store to be occupied. There should be no time limit for the store to be occupied by any union members of the commission's knowledge.

Planning Social Program for 301

Meeting of the Activities Committee. Present were, left to right, Edward M. L. Canfield, 2545, 13th Ave.; John Beatty, 1, 12th Ave.; Ralph Young, 1, 13th Ave.; and John D. Young, 1, 13th Ave. At the meeting were also present, Louis Schenker, 2, 13th Ave.; and Louis E. Bower, 1, 13th Ave. Also present were Louis Schenker and Louis E. Bower, 1, 13th Ave. Also present were Louis Schenker and Louis E. Bower, 1, 13th Ave.

Employers Rush to Use TH Board Against Workers; Unions That 'Submit' to Board Are Under Attack

Statistics issued by the Tele-Harley Board as of Jan. 1 show the widespread use that employees have made of the Board already.

As David Schenker, UE general counsel, put it, "employers have rushed to the Board to utilize it to their own advantage.

There were 844 company petition for the election of the Tele-Harley Board, all of which were refused to be heard on the grounds of insufficiency.

Company spokesmen have already filed 100 petitions in the Board.

Employers have filed 844 unfair labor practice charges against unions. The charges include refusal to bargain, refusal to hear, or refusal to hear the claims.

The unions were asked to present evidence that they have not been heard by the Board.

In conclusion, it is significant to note that many of these petitions were taken against unions that have submitted to the Tele-Harley Board.

Local 301 Officers and Board Are Installed

Installation of officers and Executive Board of Local 301 at the meeting on Jan. 12. Charles J. Kehoe, ex-officio secretary of the 301, is shown administering the oath of office. Present are, left to right, Charles Perry, Willard Hornbeck and Paul B. Calvert, Board members; Edward Stumph, secretary; Murray White, treasurer; Belva Quintal, recording secretary; Louis Schenker, treasurer, president; William Hornbeck, Board member; William Ochs, secretary-treasurer; William Hornbeck, secretary-treasurer; Louis Schenker, president; Joseph J. Conley, vice-president; Louis Schenker, secretary-trustee; Albert Schenker, treasurer; and William Butler, secretary. In attendance were also present.

Hopes to Find New Quarter For Local 301 Food Center

The Committee on Finding a New Location for the Food Center has been working hard to locate a suitable place.

The committee has been working with local merchants to find a suitable location for the Food Center.

Income Tax Help

Because the Internal Revenue Service offers a new location for the Food Center, local 301 is offering free tax preparation services for local 301 members.

Income Tax Help

Because the Internal Revenue Service offers a new location for the Food Center, local 301 is offering free tax preparation services for local 301 members.
GE Finally Recognizes State Rule on Workshops

The state rule on workshops has been recognized by the General Electric Company. The company has agreed to allow workers to form workshops as provided by the state law. The union, Local 201, has been granted the right to conduct workshops on company property. The workshops will be under the supervision of trained instructors.

GE Fights Payment For Injured Woman

The General Electric Company is fighting against paying a Workmen's Compensation award to Mrs. Nellie Valtutto, who is recovering from an injury at the Toledo plant. The company claims that Mrs. Valtutto was not employed at the time of the accident. The union, Local 201, has filed a complaint with the state Workmen's Compensation Board.

GE-GE Negotiations

The GE-GE negotiations are nearing completion. The union has accepted the company's offer of a 5% wage increase for the first year, with an option to negotiate for a higher raise in the second year. The negotiations have been顺利进行.

Jib Crane Installed

The new jib crane has been installed at the GE plant. It is expected to increase productivity by 30%.

Polio Collection

A collection for the polio vaccine has been set up at the GE plant. Employees are encouraged to contribute to help fight polio.

Challenge GE Secrecy

Local 201 has challenged the company's refusal to reveal the identity of the worker who was injured at the Toledo plant. The union claims that the company is trying to cover up the incident. The case is pending before the state Workmen's Compensation Board.

Bldg. 76 Stilp Gang

Grievance Settled

The dispute over the Stilp Gang in Bldg. 76 has been settled. The company has agreed to pay the workers for the extra hours they worked.

Streamliners Local Seeks Separate Unit

Local 301 Streamliners have requested a separate bargaining unit. The union claims that the Streamliners have different needs and interests than the other workers.

Last Time, Layoffs

Protested by Union

The layoff protests have been met with opposition from the company. The union claims that the layoffs are unjustified.

Fairground Program

The Fairground program has been cancelled due to budget constraints.

---

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

February 27, 1948

Published by the Electrical Union News, Inc., 80 Liberty St., New York, N.Y.

Edited by John B. Fish, Managing Editor.

No part of this publication may be reproduced without permission.

ALPHABETICAL ORDER:

2

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

February 27, 1948

GE Finally Recognizes State Rule on Workshops

The state rule on workshops has been recognized by the General Electric Company. The company has agreed to allow workers to form workshops as provided by the state law. The union, Local 201, has been granted the right to conduct workshops on company property. The workshops will be under the supervision of trained instructors.

GE Fights Payment For Injured Woman

The General Electric Company is fighting against paying a Workmen's Compensation award to Mrs. Nellie Valtutto, who is recovering from an injury at the Toledo plant. The company claims that Mrs. Valtutto was not employed at the time of the accident. The union, Local 201, has filed a complaint with the state Workmen's Compensation Board.

GE-GE Negotiations

The GE-GE negotiations are nearing completion. The union has accepted the company's offer of a 5% wage increase for the first year, with an option to negotiate for a higher raise in the second year. The negotiations have been顺利进行.

Jib Crane Installed

The new jib crane has been installed at the GE plant. It is expected to increase productivity by 30%.

Polio Collection

A collection for the polio vaccine has been set up at the GE plant. Employees are encouraged to contribute to help fight polio.

Challenge GE Secrecy

Local 201 has challenged the company's refusal to reveal the identity of the worker who was injured at the Toledo plant. The union claims that the company is trying to cover up the incident. The case is pending before the state Workmen's Compensation Board.

Bldg. 76 Stilp Gang

Grievance Settled

The dispute over the Stilp Gang in Bldg. 76 has been settled. The company has agreed to pay the workers for the extra hours they worked.

Streamliners Local Seeks Separate Unit

Local 301 Streamliners have requested a separate bargaining unit. The union claims that the Streamliners have different needs and interests than the other workers.

Last Time, Layoffs

Protested by Union

The layoff protests have been met with opposition from the company. The union claims that the layoffs are unjustified.

Fairground Program

The Fairground program has been cancelled due to budget constraints.