AN OPEN LETTER

Begley, UE Foe, Defeated Now, Mayor Wemple:

Re-Mayor Begley was an anti-UE mayor. It figured that he was not a better plan, although all unionists might set aside. But in the end the man who is in the affairs of UE Local 301, although he may have organization without cause, gave the support of his public office to a company union, UE-EGO.

At public hearings on civic matters, he went out of his way to do a disservice to the members of our union, an act small thing, but small things count. Your predecessor also tried to call unionists and payers, and payers, payers, and payers. He would have us be only for the United Labor of America, and against UE.

Re-Mayor Begley did little for the city in the way of saving wage earners, small business, small business owners, who pay their taxes, who pay their taxes, and who have to live in.

To try to do better, Mr. Mayor, try to do much better.

For our organization, UE Local 301, we will work and we will not bow. While we recommend the defeat of the former mayor, we do not refuse to accept the stores he has lost.

As we said, try to do a good job.

Please note that we will make our customary contribution to everything which promotes the welfare of the community.

P.S. We would like to see Mayor Wemple.

[Signature]

R.G. Martyr

UE Takes GE To Court In Silicosis Tragedy

UE lawyers are suing GE because workers in Schenectady and a GE facility in Florida are suffering a lung disease called silicosis during the course of their employment. The disease is caused by inhaling dust particles of silica, and it can be deadly. The workers have filed suit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, and the case is pending in Appellate Court between UE and GE.

Refuse To Pay

For many years, the law has been that the company by the Supreme Court decision of 1930 (the United States vs. Local 301, 169 U.S. 1) if you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay. If you don't pay, you don't have to pay.

HIS FATHER NEEDS BLOOD

Martin Matthews, Executive Board member of UE Local 301 in Schenectady, is a UE member whose father, a war veteran, is in hospital in need of a blood transfusion. If you can help, please call UE Local 301 in Schenectady for details.

Next Thursday Is Thanksgiving

It is the heat of the 3-day Turbine strike and the Union's announced schedule of weekly shutdowns which melted the company's resistance to the Turbine grievance and the case of Shop Steward Josephine Riggi.

Following last Tuesday's meeting with Works Manager, Louis J. Male, the UE-301 Executive Board voted to call the November 19 meeting but to keep the heat on by scheduling the first shutdowns for November 26. General meetings, broken off last week, have been resumed.

Management agreed to pay average earnings on repair and return work in Turbine, and a new agreement was reached to pay the last time and, in general, it promised to be better.

This proved again that the company respects nothing more than the united front of its employees in their common struggle against the injustice of the company.

Bulldozers with the company, the UE-GES Conference Board will meet on Saturday, November 26, 1961 at 10:00 A.M. at the District's offices in Schenectady, New York.

WESTHOUUS VOTES STRIKE AUTHORIZATION

Workers in the huge GE Erie plant are voting for wage increases through stoppages and violence of overtime. No wage increase — no overtime, say the men in the LOcal Division. And they have been giving it over for a month as their share in building a big head of steam in UE's drive for 15 cents across the board, 5 cents for royalties and other benefits.

ERIE BULLETIN

Workers in the huge GE Erie plant are voting for wage increases through stoppages and violence of overtime. No wage increase — no overtime, say the men in the LOcal Division. And they have been giving it over for a month as their share in building a big head of steam in UE's drive for 15 cents across the board, 5 cents for royalties and other benefits.
Our Bill Of Particulars ... And Action Plan

In the past three months the Scherbrock management has discovered and encountered numerous and various wage rate and job title changes. The company introduced new department jobs with affective dates and a new scale of wage rates. In addition, jobs of the same title have been eliminated or altered. The company has attempted to settle these disputes satisfactorily.

The disputes involve the following type of complaints:

1. Cutting standard prices
2. Refusal to honor price increases
3. Refusal to pay proper starting rates for new jobs
4. Refusal to pay proper starting rates for new jobs
5. Refusal to regard seniority in upgrading

Examples of the above categories are as follows:

Cutting Standard Prices

In mid-Oct., foremen reduced three recent arrivals in the sales division. The foremen reduced the standard prices for three of the company's products. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Dec., foremen reduced the standard prices of the same products. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Jan., foremen reduced the standard prices of the same products again. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

Refusal to Honor Price Increases

In mid-Oct., the company refused to honor a price increase for a new product. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Dec., the company refused to honor a price increase for a new product. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Jan., the company refused to honor a price increase for a new product. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

Refusal to Pay Proper Starting Rates

In mid-Oct., the company refused to pay proper starting rates for new jobs. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Dec., the company refused to pay proper starting rates for new jobs. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Jan., the company refused to pay proper starting rates for new jobs. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

Refusal to Regard Seniority in Upgrading

In mid-Oct., the company refused to regard seniority in upgrading. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Dec., the company refused to regard seniority in upgrading. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.

In mid-Jan., the company refused to regard seniority in upgrading. The foremen explained that the company was only trying to cut costs.