Happy New Year

UE Local 301's 1955 officers wish to take this opportunity to join with the incoming slate of 1955 officers to wish all of the members of the union, their families and friends a happy holiday season and a peaceful and prosperous new year.

In extending this greeting, they pledge to make the union's contributions to the welfare of its membership an ever increasing one. This past year has seen many gains in our fight to insure a decent living standard for every UE worker in Schenectady. We shall endeavor to consolidate these gains and to make new advances in the coming year.

This pledge is made with a confidence that working together, in the democratic UE way, we can achieve our goals.

Stewards to Elect Executive Board in January 6 Ballots

The final phase of UE Local 301's democratic process for selecting its 1955 leadership will be completed Tuesday when the members of the executive board are chosen.

The board election will take place in the union hall, with all of the newly elected stewards participating in the vote. The secretary-treasurer will report on the union's financial status and the executive board will meet in executive session to elect officers and the new executive board will meet in executive session.

IUOE Wage Boost Margin Shrinks

Announced by the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, the IUOE wage boost margin shrinks. The boost of 10 cents per hour, which started on December 1, 1954, will be reduced to 7 cents per hour effective January 1, 1955.

The IUOE, which represents more than 125,000 workers in the electrical industry, said the reduction was made necessary by the current economic conditions and the company's desire to keep costs down. The boost will continue to be paid to workers employed on government projects.

Donations to Children's Home

A donation was made to the Children's Home in January, bringing the total to $2,000 for the year.

Actions by UE Force WSB To Approve Full Pay Hike

In a dramatic response to the strength shown by UE members across the nation, the Wage Stabilization Board last week granted a full pay hike to 100,000 UE workers in the electrical industry. The hike, which was negotiated by UE and the management, is expected to benefit 90,000 workers in the Schenectady area.

The wage boost is the result of a campaign by UE members who, through their collective bargaining power, were able to negotiate the hike. The campaign was supported by the AFL-CIO and the UE leadership, which is now calling on other unions to follow the UE's lead in fighting for fair wages and benefits.

New Job for U.E. Members

All UE Local 191 shop stewards who attend Monday's meeting will be given preference in hiring for new jobs opening in the electrical industry.
Honor Roll

There were a few news highlights this week, bringing us to the total record roll of 1998, which has been surpassed by at least 300 to 400. We now have a total roll of 2000, and we continue to work on the print edition. Reach us at 555-5555.

Jaymon Quine

A Year to Remember—’52 Highlights

As the New Year begins, and the 1952 page of history, the 1952 men and women who make up the US Local 301, and the people of the United States and Canada, look back on an important year in their lives, many important events in their lives, and many important events in their lives, and many important events in their lives. They now look forward to the year to come and the events that lie ahead.

Many of these events were marked by important milestones. The 1952 men and women who make up the US Local 301, and the people of the United States and Canada, look back on an important year in their lives, many important events in their lives, and many important events in their lives. They now look forward to the year to come and the events that lie ahead.

One of the highlights of the year was the US Local 301 strike, which began on February 1 and lasted for 10 days. The strike was the result of a long-standing dispute between the US Local 301 and the US Steel Corporation over wages and working conditions.

The strike was a success, and the US Local 301 was able to achieve many of its goals. The company agreed to raise wages, improve working conditions, and protect the jobs of its members.

The year also saw significant changes in the US Local 301. The union was able to negotiate with General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler to raise wages and improve working conditions for its members.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

The year also saw significant changes in the US Local 301. The union was able to negotiate with General Motors, Ford, and Chrysler to raise wages and improve working conditions for its members.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.

In July, the US Local 301 signed a new contract with the company, which included raises and improvements in working conditions.
1953 Will Be Hard Year — But Victories Are Possible

With GE still slangy to its 1% tax, Local ILGWU leaders are bracing themselves to face another year of the hard-earned laughs of the union movement. The winter's hard work and efforts to improve wages and working conditions have been successful, but the spring's challenges promise to be just as tough.

The start of the new year brings the usual round of union meetings and negotiations. The ILGWU and UI locals will be working hard to improve conditions for their members. The union's drive to improve wages, benefits, and working conditions will continue.

JULY/AUGUST

Negotiations for a new contract with GE and the contracts for UI members across the country will be under way during the summer months. General Electric is expected to make contract talks in August with a view to settling a new contract with the union. The talks are expected to be difficult, but the union is confident that it can achieve a fair settlement.

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER

The fall months will be a time of reorganization and preparation for the coming year. The union's leadership will be working on plans for the next year's campaigns and negotiations. The union's membership drive will continue, and new members will be recruited.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

The year 1953 will be a time of new beginnings and challenges. The union will continue to work hard to improve conditions for its members. The union's leadership will continue to work hard to achieve its goals.

Stewards to Hear Jim Matlack After Swearing-in on Monday

Some Union "Leaders" Are Safe From Attack

Big Business always claims that there is no such thing as a safe attack on their interests. However, in reality, there are certain union leaders who are safe from attack. These leaders are usually those who have the backing of the union membership and who are able to defend their positions effectively.

Stewards at the New York City AFL-CIO Conference will hear a presentation by Jim Matlack, a well-known union leader, after he is sworn in as the new President of the AFL-CIO. The presentation will be held on Monday, January 2, 1953.

The union leaders who are safe from attack are usually those who are able to defend their positions effectively. These leaders are usually those who have the backing of the union membership and who are able to make a strong case for their positions.

The union movement is a powerful force in American society. The union leaders who are able to defend their positions effectively are those who are able to make a strong case for the union movement.

ELECTRICAL UNION NEWS

Friday, January 2, 1953