Local Holds Women’s Meeting To Plan Widening of Sex Discrimination Fight

U.S. Local 301 took another long stride in the campaign to end pay discrimination this week when it held a special women’s meeting at union hall. The meeting took place on Wednesday and Thursday, too late for the details to be reported in this week’s paper. However, the union's campaign to end sex discrimination is ongoing, and the local has been actively involved in organizing women to stand up against pay discrimination.

Leaflets Show Pay, Runaway Shops and Grievances Linked

Grievances and runaway shops shared the spotlight this week in leaflets distributed at the Schenectady works by U.S. Local 301. The leaflets were prepared by the national and local unis or as part of the current campaign to end all union members on the subject of sex discrimination. The national unis have agreed to work on the shop issue on Monday, with the importance of selecting the shop to dominate in their meeting. The U.S. Local 301 has agreed to work at the local level.

Packhouse Workers Hold Women’s Meeting

A meeting was held on Saturday, September 23, at the Schenectady works to discuss the issue of sex discrimination. The meeting was attended by a large number of women, and it was decided to work towards ending sex discrimination in the workplace.

Many Sign Up as Local Opens Drive for 100% Membership

Several hundred new members were added to the rolls of U.S. Local 301 this week, as the union’s organizing drive got under way. The drive was launched with a special meeting of all members, and it is expected to continue with full force.

Demonstration Shakes GE ‘No Bargaining’ Position

A demonstration by union members outside the General Electric Co. headquarters in Schenectady, New York, last week resulted in a sit-down strike. The demonstration was part of the union’s efforts to negotiate a contract and end sex discrimination in the workplace.

Big Attendance Marks 301’s Women’s Conclave

A large crowd attended the 301’s Women’s Conclave, which was held to discuss the issues facing women in the workplace. The event was a success, and it is expected to continue with full force.

Board Again Helps Scornet Strike

The Schenectady Newspaper Workers Association has again assisted the Scornet Strike, which is protesting the company’s failure to recognize the union's demands. The union has been working with the workers to end sex discrimination in the workplace.

Schenectady Local Plans to Demonstrate for 50% Increase in Wage

A demonstration is planned for this week, as the union continues its efforts to negotiate a contract and end sex discrimination in the workplace.

Demonstration Challenges GE’s ‘No Bargaining’ Position

A demonstration by union members outside the General Electric Co. headquarters in Schenectady, New York, last week resulted in a sit-down strike. The demonstration was part of the union’s efforts to negotiate a contract and end sex discrimination in the workplace.
28 Prizes To Be Awarded
In Big Field Day Drawing

Twenty-eight prizes with a total value of well over $3,000 will be given in this big prize drawing to be held by the union at the UUE Local 301 Field Day on June 28. The gala prize program will be presented at the Foundation Park, Portland Blvd., rock or data.

The prizes to the grand winner will be a 7-day trip for two JEFRS, valued at $200; a beautiful home will be given to the winners; tickets of admission, which make the buyers eligible to win drawing prizes, are available at all of the locals.

In addition to the drawing prizes, a special gate prize worth $100 will be given in every factory where a member is employed.

The drawing will be by one of the most respected field-day activities in the union, the large number of entries, the brilliant drawing prizes, and the excitement of the day will make this drawing a success.

Prizes include: a 7-day trip for two for the main prize, a home valued at $200, a beautiful home valued at $100, and tickets of admission for the drawing prizes.

By Ben Fordham of this town (perhaps through a typographical error) was written in Washington when the decision made by the union was announced.

Bldgs. 18 and 40 Stop Work
To Block Price Cut Attempts

Attempts by employers to cut prices and wages in general do not seem to be very effective in the present economic climate. Employers are generally trying to cut prices and wages in the present economic climate.

Condemns T-H-Oath

Condemns the T-H-Oath agreement with the government in its recent negotiations with the government. The agreement is condemned because it is an attempt to control the government and to limit its power.

T-H Amendment Takes
In Goldwater-Rhodes

The T-H Amendment takes in Goldwater-Rhodes when the amendment was adopted by the union.

LL Teams Tune Up

UUE Local 301's veteran team for the big league baseball game again will be able to win the championship, according to the team's manager, whose team is expected to be the best in the league. The manager has been studying the game for over a year, and has organized a team that will be able to win the championship. The team is expected to win the championship, according to the manager. The manager has been studying the game for over a year, and has organized a team that will be able to win the championship.