JUNIOR NEWS

Representatives of each of the Junior High School Homerooms entertained the Junior High in an assembly November 7 from 9:00 to 10:00.

Homeroom 130 presented a pantomime "The Lighthouse Tragedy." The cast was as follows:
- Lighthouse Keeper: Benjamin Douglas
- The Villain: Wilbur French
- Wife: Robert Gole
- Doctor: Robert Gardner
- Newspaper: Jack Boughton
- Reader: John Best
- Announcer: Jack Crawford

John Taylor from Homeroom 129 played a clarinet solo, and Lynn Sims sang. The soloists were accompanied by Esther Stuhlmaker and Arnold Ropeik from the same homeroom, gave an imitation of a businessman chasing a fly.

Homeroom 128 gave a skit on "Home Room Troubles."

Homeroom 127 presented a Hill Billy skit. Daniel Brandwein and Guy Childs played the harmonica; Shirley Baldwin and Margaret Chase sang solos; and a chorus of boys sang "Home on the Range."

A scene from a dentist's office was presented by Homeroom 127. The characters were:
- Dentist: Fred Regan
- Patient: Robert Rotell
- Assistant: Alfred Hasty

Homeroom 127 presented Marilyn Smith in a tap dance and also Betty Schneider in a waltz song. Ada Snyder played two violin selections, "La Rondino," and "Estera Parageo."

A chorus of girls and boys, led by Lois Smith from Homeroom 127, sang "Ladies We Soutbern Accent." Barbara Soper of the same homeroom gave a reading, "Grandma's Song."

From Homeroom 233 Peasy Jantz recited "The Blue Wart," and John Askland played a violin solo.

Homeroom 124 gave a skit in which Frances Seymour and Lois Hebbitt sang, Harriet Richter sang and danced, and Hazel Roberts played a piano solo entitled "Morning." Others who played prominent parts were Betty Holmes, Marjorie Pead, and Richard Andrews.

SNOW DOES NOT STOP GIRLS' SOCCER GAME

The snow last Tuesday did not stop the eighth grade first team and the ninth grade first team from playing a soccer game on the Milne campus. The ninth grade was victorious with a score of 4-0.

The eighth grade team consisted of Clark, Nichols, Selkirk, Mardick, Haleshmyer, Rothman, Trunn, Best, and Brown.

The players on the ninth grade team were Mitchell, Seymour, Gibson, Frank, Simmons, Roberts, Charles, Trapp, H. Winshurst, D. Winshurst, Rynes, Duper, Stanton, and Smith.

HOME ECONOMICS CLASSES

PLAIN MAKE POSTERS

The Home Economics Gift Club, under the direction of Mrs. Barsom, is planning a play to be given in assembly. The committee in charge of the play consists of Harriet Olshansky, Charlotte Kornitz, and Miriam Fletcher.

The seventh grade home economics classes are making blouses for themselves.

The ninth graders are handing in posters, which show the different types of cotton textiles.

STUDENTS MAY ASK QUESTIONS OF ETIQUETTE CLUB

The Etiquette Club, according to Mayor Winshurst, president, announces that there will be an etiquette question box at the information desk on the first floor.

In this box students may put any questions concerning etiquette, which they would like answered. As soon as possible, the questions will be answered in the newspaper.

SEVENTH GRADE HOLDS EXHIBIT

The seventh grade Social Science classes held an exhibit yesterday on things which their ancestors had brought to America from the Old World.

There were interesting displays of laces, dolls, clothing, and guns. The exhibit was held in room 121.
DOES THIS APPLY TO YOU?

Doctor Fredericks requests that books and book-bags are not to be left in the halls and on the window sills during lunch period and after classes.

Neat halls present a much more pleasing appearance, help for less confusion, and eliminate the opportunity for books getting mixed or lost.

Everyone has a place for his books, please keep them there!

QUESTION BOX

Should we have an information desk in Milne?

Wilson Hume—No, because it causes too much confusion.

Mary Winshurst—Yes, because it helps strangers.

Billy Saunders—Yes, it gives the person in charge a training in speaking to adults.

Seeley Funk—Yes, because it helps strangers find their way around.

CHARACTER SKETCH

BY PROF. LEXLY

As we once more peer into our gallery of the notorious, we find a he, she, or it, in the seventh grade.

He (or she) is about twelve years old, has chestnut brown hair and gray eyes. As a gentle hint, she also sang "The Old Spinning Wheel" very well two weeks ago.

If you guess the solution to this "Character Sketch," write the name of the person and your name on a slip of paper, and put it in the Crimson and White drawer.

The person described last week was Genevieve Williams. The first three to answer the "Character Sketch" this week were in order; Edith Stevens, Dania Winshurst, and Mary Winshurst.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

1. H. Roberts getting an average under 90.

2. A seventh grader dancing at the first Junior High Party.

3. A traffic officer not accepting candy as a bribe.

4. H. Marx or R. Wilke staying in class for an entire period.
In the Junior High School English classes, the students were asked to give their opinion of Colonel Per Eamee's speech on "Our Present System of National Defense," which he gave in assembly Monday. Out of approximately two hundred students, twenty-eight disagreed with him. There were various reasons for their disagreements.

Of the twenty-eight students:

Some said that he was inconsistent in saying that he wanted peace and yet urging young men to train in the army.

One pupil thought it unfair to have a speaker who was so biased. He said there should be another speaker who would not be militaristic.

Most of the pupils expressed the desire for peace, but they believed that strengthening national defense was a poor way to get it.

A few objected to the strengthening of defense on the ground that the money expended for it should be used for another purpose.

To some, arming indicates a desire to fight. One said, "I think war is the most dreadful thing and from what I have heard, I don't want any." One, believing war to be the inevitable outcome of arming, pointed out that "some big men sit home and make profits, while others are fighting and dying horrible deaths!"

Some thought the government should put unemployed men in the army instead of urging young men and boys to train for the army.

All the others agreed entirely that the best way to maintain peace was to strengthen our national defense.

---

ETIQUETTE CLUB:

John Akullian and Helen Bartier are host and hostess at the show to which the club is going on Friday, November 16. The two sponsors, Misses Waug and de la Porte, and Miss Hlette will be the chaperones. The club is going to the Strand Theater.

The Etiquette Club and the Beginners Dancing Club are planning to get together for one of the club meetings. Beatrice Davis is in charge of making arrangements.

(Cont. in next column)