There are to be fourteen basketball games this year of which eight are to be at home and six are to be away.

The total cost for each student will be about $1.00 which includes the expense for transportation and admission. A list will be placed on the bulletin boards in both the girl's and boy's locker rooms, and all those who plan to go to the game are urged to sign up at once if they wish to insure a place on the bus.

WILL HAS RUSH

The annual Quin rush was conducted in the Little Theater last Tuesday from 3:30 to 4:00. Leah Einstein was the chairman. After the program the girls and the faculty advisors, Miss Martin and Miss Johnson had refreshments in the Cafeteria.
To describe my first impressions of Milne, I shall have to go back a number of years. Then, Milne was on the third floor of Draper Hall and what a long climb we had!

The first sight of Milne so awed me that I fell down the stone steps approaching Draper and arrived for the inevitable entrance tests a rather battered freshman. Despite this unfortunate "entrance", Milne became my school and has remained so ever since.

To further explain this, I should add that having been in Milne during its removal to the present building, my class grew up with its Alma Mater, such "shocks" from its neatness, such grandeur, and such room! All these were ours for a whole four years!

Now, in spite of the fact that names, faces, and offices have changed, the same spirit of pride, loyalty, and friendliness that is Milne still prevail. It is indeed satisfying to return to your Alma Mater as a faculty member and observe, in the present Milne, the identical qualities you admired as member of the undergraduate body.

ADVISORY BOARD

IMPRESSIONS OF MILNE: THEN AND NOW

The question around the school recently as to whether or not girls shall wear uniforms is not questionable from the practical viewpoint.

All will have to admit if they are to be honest, that uniforms will cut down on their school clothes budget. Anywhere from fifteen to twenty dollars will buy three complete uniforms that will be used for most of the school year. While most Milne girls average about twenty-five dollars more for their school clothes.

If uniforms were worn there would be no feeling of inferiority on account of clothes. Most girls would like to spend more on their clothes, but are not able to. If only one fifth of the school clothes budget was spent for school clothing, the rest could go toward nicer and more "date" or "party" dresses.

Some may say it wouldn't be long before everyone grew tired of wearing them. The girls are twice as tired from deciding what to wear, as from wearing the same thing. If uniforms were worn one day a week could be set aside for the wearing of street clothes, if the students were in favor of the idea.

Uniforms would add something to the prestige of the school. They would create more school spirit, and give a neater appearance to the school. Every Milne girl should be proud and willing to wear her school's colors!
The question is...should the girls of Milne High School wear uniforms or not? One of the most interesting and debatable questions this year, pertaining to school life, is that of wearing uniforms.

On every girl's tongue is the problem: are uniforms essential, are they economical, and would the wearing of uniforms create dissatisfaction to the faculty and the boys of Milne High School?

Uniforms to many are a mark of distinction for a school. It seems to put that certain school on a higher level than other schools. A girl wearing such an apparel always appears to look exceptionally neat, correctly attired, and well poised.

Uniforms are considered economical. There are some girls who cannot have the expensive clothes other girls are fortunate enough to have, and uniforms would tend to even the score. Also, too many girls are clothes conscious, and spend more time trying to decide what to wear than they spend on their studies.

But, every problem has two sides to it, and this one concerning uniforms is no exception.

Is it fair to make a girl wear a uniform that is unbecoming to her? Is it fair to the faculty and to the boys to force them to see the same dress, the same colors day in and day out for the entire year? Everyone likes a little variety.

Many of the girls have been known to say that the girls who cannot afford expensive clothes would feel less conspicuous if there was a definite uniform to wear. But clothes cannot "make" a girl. She acquires her own personality and her own character. One of the well-known authors a few years back was known to say:—"Don't judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one, the tailor the other.

So, the big question still is, are uniforms in or out? Thumbs up, or thumbs down?

DO YOU KNOW......?

That Marilyn Potter's favorite pastime is basketball? We wonder why!
That the sophomore girls have really grown up?
That Sally Hunt and Jane Davis are both driving cars,—legally, too, you have to stop, look, and Hurry if you don't want your family to collect on your life insurance?
That Dave Davidson is going to give dancing lessons to "hopeful jitterbugs? Hurry, gals!
That Ed Poole has a new creation. He wears it in the privacy of that 10:00 chemistry class, but why won't he show it to all of us?
That Cath Morrison, Jessie Darren and Marilyn Tinker are trying their best at bowling?
That the reception was a success? Congratulations to the boys... they've finally decided it's not so bad to take a girl!
That the 10th grade girls have quite a surprise in store for them? There has been a lot of planning for the Quin and Sigma rushes.
That the girls have finally decided to let the boys have their coats back?
That EdLangwig causes quite a commotion when he plays the drums at V.I. dances? But then, whenever Ed plays, feminine hearts flutter!
That the new pastime of some of our seniors is skipping? It's fun, isn't it Johnny?
That Norman Andrews, formerly from Milne, still thinks Milne is the very best school there is when it comes to social functions?
That a crowd of Milniters attended a church dance Saturday night, and had a grand time?
That Chuck Locke is some jitterbug? His new name is "Lancelot",... why?... You can guess, can't you?
