The baseball season is here again and all over the country amateur and professional teams are springing up to support this national game of America. Here in Milne, we also have a baseball team, and, as all teams do, it needs support.

The question arises, what can we do about the team? We are not on it, so why should we go to the games? That is exactly what you should do. Go to the games, give the team and the players some backing, not only by moral support but also by some physical help. That does not mean to tell them how to play, but to cheer them when they do get a hit or a run.

The attendance at basketball games was pretty good last winter, so let's have the same good crowds at baseball. It's an exciting game, played outside, so one can get fresh air and see a good sport, and well worth supporting. How 'bout it, Milnites?

Many people have worked hard to make this dance a success. They have spent much time and effort in making posters, decorating, getting the orchestra, and arranging a good time for all. So let's come and come to have a good time.

June is close at hand and with it the question of vacation; what to do this summer—camp, a job, summer school, travel?

For the high school student who would like to combine travel, fun, and education, The American Boy is offering three cruises; one to India and Liberia to Alaska; two cruises via the Panama Canal. One of the leading boys' camps on the Pacific Coast—Camp Rainbridge on Puget Sound—may be combined with either Alaska or Panama to round out the summer. The cruises are described in current issues of the magazine as low-cost tours, planned for boys from twelve to twenty years old.

Cruise leaders are selected from the staffs of large universities, private schools, and The American Boy's list of writers. Cruisers will meet Major Allan Swinton, English author who has served with the Bengal Lancers in the Khyber Pass of India; Carl H. Claudy, author of a current serial in the magazine, and a Gold Rusher of '98; and Kenneth Gilbert, leading writer of animal stories.

The program aboard train and ship will include lectures and round-table discussions on the country through which the tourists are passing. There will be rodeos, Indians, lumber mills, paper mills, gold mines, mountain hikes, wildlife movies. Full information may be obtained by sending to the magazine, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, for a folder. Enrollments will be taken any time up to June 15.

FRIENDS TO PREFIX BOSSES

Have you heard how Vida Benjamin scored one hit and no errors in a head-to-face conflict with our respected editor?

We seniors were very busy this early part of this week, with our senior votes. At the bottom of the mimeographed sheet was a place for name, offices etc. We couldn't help thinking what fun some people were going to have, seeing how many bright Milnites voted for themselves! We were smart, though; we tore the name part of the sheet off our sheet!

A propos of the same subject, i.e. the senior votes, and especially of the one labeled "Best Athlete (boy)," Doug Maching (during a discussion of said vote in the boys' locker room), piped up, "I'm pretty good at basketball, but at baseball I'm lousy!" Come, come, Doug, don't count your chickens before they are hatched!

MILNE TO HAVE HOLIDAY ON MOVING-UP DAY, MAY 15

On May 15, State College will observe one of the most important functions of the year. Freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes will put on stunts in the auditorium in the morning, and a prize will be awarded for the best.

In the afternoon, each class, wearing a different color, will march around and form their class numerals on the campus.

Because of this, Milne will have no school Friday, May 15.

GLEE CLUB TO SING CLASS NIGHT

The glee club, under the direction of Dr. Candlyn, has been practising for a program to be given class night and graduation. The club will sing "She is Sylvia," by Schubert, in two parts; "Do You Ken John Peel," an English hunting song; and "Nobody Knows de Trouble I've Been." They have been practising these pieces in the auditorium for the past two weeks and will continue to do so for the rest of the term.
