The sixteenth annual conference for teachers will be conducted at Milne High School this Saturday, April 13, beginning at 10:00 A.M. Each department is holding a different conference and teachers from all over the state are expected to attend.

The English department, headed by Dr. Harry E. Hastings of State College, will discuss "Radio and the High School." Proceedings of new films and a discussion of plans for the next year will feature the science department meeting to be headed by Dr. Carlton A. Moore.

Mrs. Ann K. Barson will direct the economics department. They are planning a very interesting program with some of Milne's own models appearing in the latest clothing styles.

Mr. Wilfred P. Allard will direct activities in the French department, with Mr. Druce forondon, a French teacher at Milne, assisting him.

MILNE GOES "HOLLYWOOD"

The photographing of Milne's activities will get under way tonight under the direction of Mr. Theodore Shreiber, of the Albany Camera Shop.

Pictures of characteristic exhibits and the play, Christopher Dean, will be taken. Photos will be taken behind the scenes of make-up, and of Andy, the janitor, cleaning up afterwards, as well as from actual scenes of the play.

PARENTS VIEW STUDENT WORK AT OPEN HOUSE

Following the Dramatics Club's production of The Late Christopher Dean, parents are invited to proceed to the classrooms to view the exhibits.

The handicrafts of Milne students, consisting of charcoal sketches, murals, pottery, metal and wood work, are on display in the art room and industrial arts shop.

Other exhibits are located on the following floors:

First floor:
- Room 126: Latin department display, featuring individual projects.
- Room 128: History Department exhibit.

Second floor:
- Room 300 and 305: Typing, introduction to business, and economic geography exhibits.
- Room 326: French department display, featuring student projects and a recorded concert of classical music.

Third floor:
- Room 330: Biology exhibit featuring a geysar and an ingorsol eye model.
- Room 331: General Science display, featuring displays of distillation, a vacuum pump and a homemade telescope.
- Room 326 and 328: Chemistry and physics display featuring tuning forks and a sensitive flame.
- Room 339 and 333: Social studies exhibit, featuring bulletin board projects.
STAFF HONORED AT BANQUET

The staff of the Crimson and White established a new tradition when it conducted the first Crimson and White banquet at the Edward Johnson restaurant last Saturday evening. The new staff of the paper was announced. Robert Jarden is the editor-in-chief with Edward Langwig, Helen Hutchinson, and Robert Kohn as associate editors.

Miss Katherine Wheeling, faculty advisor, Miss Sally J. Young, Miss Victoria Vocelka of State College, and Miss Elizabeth Jarden, last year's editor, were guests at the banquet.

HISTORY CLASSES

Last Monday afternoon the History 3 classes were privileged in being able to see moving pictures on Russia, brought here by Professor York of State College.

The movies, taken in Russia in 1927, showed agricultural Russia. They showed the Russian peasants at work, their very few and crude farm implements, and their collective farms. Professor York explained the pictures as they were shown.

ALUMNI SPEAKS IN ASSEMBLY

Benjamin Douglas, last year's Student Council president, gave a talk on the University of Michigan during the Senior High Assembly last Wednesday.

Mr. Douglas is a freshman at the University and is active in student activities. He gave a quite interesting explanation of the social and sport activities of the school. After his talk, Mr. Douglas answered any questions that were asked about the University of Michigan.

HERE AND THERE AMONG THE ALUMNI

Miss Elizabeth Jarden, '39, will be the next undergraduate editor of the Alumni Quarterly of State College.

John Winne, '36, former editor of the Crimson and White, is vice-president of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity at the University of Michigan.

From Bates College, we hear that Priscilla Simpson, '37, is manager of the golf team, and a member of the executive board of the W.A.A. She was prominent in Milne athletics.

SENIORS PICK UshERS

The Senior Class chose the ushers for Class Night, June 14, last Monday. They are Jesse Doran, Joan Mancilla, Marilyn Zinch, David Davidson, David Voight, and Arthur Penney.

The class has voted to allow alumni to come to the Senior Ball which follows the Class Night exercises. The ushers and marshals may attend the Senior Ball also.

CARD PARTY

PROGRESS ANNOUNCED

Betty Mann announced that the Senior Class voted $133.04 on the card party which took place in March. $100 will go to the Rural fund and the remainder will be given to the Student Council for the moving pictures to be taken in Milne.

ATTENTION SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class dues were due before Easter vacation. All who have not yet paid their $2.00 are to do so immediately. The dues are to be paid to the representatives in each homeroom.

NEXT MORNING
The new staff of the Crimson and White wishes to take this opportunity to thank the retiring staff for all the help and time they have given in the past in order that we might follow their footsteps. We shall work diligently and try to achieve the goal of the retiring staff that of receiving first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Contest, in March.

FROM JOE MILNIT'S DIARY
April 5-12

Dear Diary,

Friday: Read the last issue of the ’39-’40 staff of the Crimson and White. It was all-Senior and typical of the old saying, "last, but not least."

Went to the Hi-Y-OBC tonight. Everyone seemed to enjoy the band, and of course the dance.

Saturday: My, what a busy day for the Milnites and the Termites! This afternoon my sister Josephine went to the Quin Solomon Grundy party in McKownville and I went to the Fathers and Sons dinner at the First Reformed Church tonight. My cousin, Timothy Termite, went to the Crimson and White Banquet at Howard Johnson’s.

Sunday: Movie-mad Milnites went to town today as they saw Northwest Passage at the Madison, Strange Cargo at the Palace, and of course, Annie Get Your Gun at the Strand, in It All Came True.

Monday: Back to school again after a short, but brief weekend. Good little Milnites left the college campus for "pitch and catch" for the higher grounds of Alls.

Tuesday: Everyone’s busy copying over French projects etc. for the big night on Friday. What a job!

Wednesday: Milne’s dramatically inclined students are preparing for the dress rehearsal of "Chris Bean," the gala Parents night production.

Thursday: Typing students are still tearing their hair (if there’s any left by now) in making menu cards for tomorrow night.

Friday: Well, today’s the day and tonight’s the night. The new staff’s first edition of the C & W appears today, and tonight (as if you didn’t know by now) is the annual Parents Night, with the presentation of "The Late Christopher Bean."

See you soon,

Joe.
First practice for the tennis squad took place Thursday, April 4 in the gym, and only two lettermen from last year's squad are left with which to mold this year's team. They are; Joe Wheeler, capt., and Marcus Keyser, ass't capt. According to Bob, the tennis team will be out there fighting, win, lose, or draw.

Some of the fellows out for the team are; Gifford Lentz, Arthur Phinney, David Conlin, Morton Swartz, David Davidson, Charles Kosob, Jerome Deville, Ed Megrobian, and others. Practice will take place every Monday and Thursday in the gym until the courts in Washington Park are opened.

The first match is scheduled for Monday, April 24, against Nott Terrace High School in Schenectady.

The first reminder that the HORSE-SHOW is May 7. The Siding Club is in practice for it now so don't forget to mark it down on the calendar.

The Milne Aesthetic Dance Club together with the College Club is to present a recital in the Sage Hall Auditorium May 2, at 4:30 p.m.

Miss Hitchcock, Milne's instructor, says: "This will be an artistic production which will be of interest to those who enjoy music and art. This type of dancing is done by many schools and colleges throughout the country, and we hope to further interest and understanding of it in our institutions by this recital."

Tickets can be obtained only through Miss Hitchcock and the girls taking part. Members of the club in Milne are: Shirley Baldwin, Elaine Droose, Estelle Dilg, Jane Davis, Leah Minstein, Marian Fletcher, Doris Holmes, Jean Susko, Margaret Koch, Eleanor Yagoda, Mary Jo Mack, Dorothy Rider, Sue Hoyt, Janice O'Connell, and Ardelle Chatterton.

GIRES ATTENTION

Don't forget to sign up for the main sports of the spring season! Don't miss your chance to try out! Take your choice, and make it more than one.

RACQUETEERS VIE FOR VARSITY

Baseball Squad Names 6 VETERANS FOR BACKUP: COACH FAIRBANKS WILL COACH

The baseball team will begin practice next week if possible. This year's team has many regulars back from last year. Among these are: John Fink, Bob Stevenson (this year's captain), Charles Locken, Al Wilson, Guy Childs, and Kirk Lonning.

The team looks forward to a good season under the wing of Coach Fairbanks of State College. The team to date has had a chance to get out and show the old "stuff" but if there is good weather the team will be ready to start.

The first on our roster this year is with the hard fighting Rensselaer team. The date set for the game is April 30. This year Coach Hatfield announced that we will have 10 games. The games are with leading teams of the Capital District. The schedule will be printed next week if possible.
还记得Steve Knowlton？他回来了，觉得一切都和以前一样。Seymour Funk, Jack Basile, did starkeather, Dorothy Shattuck and John Alms were also there. Many of the girls' hearts were fluttering all over the place when a certain young man showed up. Why, who else but the colonel of O.T.A.—Jack Pauly. There were other O.T.A. representatives there too, and one A.P./boy that we know of. Say, Mina is getting around.

Do you realize, kids, that we have some real little-bugs in Mina? That's how some doctor!

Robert Johnson's Wagner, The Crossroads, and Herbert's very Funny place after the dance. Stanley Hark, who borrowed his family car for the luminum was seen at the Howard Johnson's, Jimmy and Jane, Martha and Grace, and just dozles of others were at the Crossroads. Herbert's was the meeting place of the page. Talk about gain, it looked as though boys can get as much into lovely refreshments, as girls can out.

THE PLANTS THAT BLOOM IN THIS SPRING——The 44.

In the spring, a young man's fancy turns to—well, we know, don't we?

Did you notice the changes that spring brings? Yes, a few weeks ago, the front of Big Hill was barren and bare. Now, at lunch time, it is far from barren. It locker like the grammar school recital.

Whisking is much more popular now. Ah well, Moannes are changed, but not to keep them warm.

Is it any wonder that all the school kids like spring the best of all the seasons? No, baseball and other sports will start their practice, and then we Mina kids can get all set for a swell season.

Last Saturday night at the Crimson and Blue Banquet, the staff for next year was announced. There were many a sad face and many a happy one when this year's staff were handing down their positions.

The humorous part of the program was when Florence Herbert was handing her speech, which, by the way, she did very well. It seems that she was telling a joke, and one of the kids said, "Tell it on that Mina bug." We went, "The joke but boy—you can take our word for it—Ed was hinting—but nothing. By the way, that Burg's boy is some lad. He was talking with all the young ladies on one side of the table.

All the big shots on the staff made swell speeches. One people, did you know that Ben Begon is a magician, at least, he's a magician in his own way. He was building Miss Whaling's set off, and he pulled a present right out of the body of it. You should have seen him performing his magic. It was some sight.
