Dr. John M. Sayles, principal of Milne High School, has announced that Miriam Freund is the valedictorian of the Senior class. Esther Stulmaker is the salutatorian. Miss Freund has maintained during her four years in the Senior high an average of 96.09 and Miss Stulmaker, 95.17. The valedictorian and salutatorian will each deliver an address at commencement exercises on Monday, June 26.

At a recent meeting of the Senior class students elected ushers and marshals from the Junior class for class night on June 19 and for commencement. The ushers are as follows: Joan Brush, Martha Froystag, Russell Jones, Clifford Lantz, Joan Laddine, and Sidney Stockhols, John Fink and Betty Schreiner are marshals. Their duty is to precede the Junior class as it marches into Page Hall for class night and commencement exercises.

MAC GOWEN SUPERVISES YEARBOOK SHOTS

Many Milnites have spent their last two afternoons making faces at Gustave Lorey as the cameramen were taking a series of photographic shots for the spring issue of the Bricks And Ivy. Under the leadership of Jack Mac Gowan, photographic editor of the Bricks And Ivy, sixteen groups have posed for pictures.

These shots include the four societies, the Athletic Council, Bricks And Ivy staff, Class of Nineteen Thirty-nine (see page on next page).

MAY

NICHOLS WINS CONTEST

Suspended concerning the first May Queen of Milne ended last Friday night when Charles Mac Culloch, general chairman of the Q.T.S.A., announced and placed a crown of roses on Janet Jansing's head, Mildred Mattick, whose votes from the four societies were only a few less than those for Miss Jansing, was the recipient of a huge bouquet of roses.

Virginia Nichols received a free ticket to the dance as the winner of the poster contest which the publicity committee of the Q.T.S.A. sponsored. Miss Nichols' poster had a pedestal in its center, A boy was standing on the pedestal, and a girl at the bottom was endeavoring to push him off. The initials, Q.T.S.A., were diagonally across the poster, the "Q" being the first letter of queen as well as of Q.T.S.A.

The eighty-five couples in attendance at the dance in the State College Commons acclaimed Matt Brudor, his orchestra, and Harry Curry, a vocalist for sixteen WUT, who sang at the dance.

Eight Juniors accepted nominations for Senior High Student Council presidency at a joint assembly yesterday afternoon at 1:35 o'clock in Page Hall. Eliminations to the number of four candidates are taking place in Senior High homerooms this morning.

The Junior class nominations and those from the floor are: Arthur Bates, Sally Beveridge, John Pink, Doris Holmes, Clifford Lantz, Arnon Liversedge, Betty Schreiner, and Edward Stornhoff. Students also nominated Stanley Edelson, Russell Jones, and Robert Whooler, who felt it imperative that they decline their nominations.

Campaigns will run until the final assembly on June 7, when the Senior as well as Junior High candidates and their managers will deliver campaign speeches.

"Government is a gift of the people to themselves. Whether it is good or bad depends upon the giver," Dr. Sayles stated yesterday in his speech on the importance of choosing a worthy council president. Ben Douglas, 1938-39 president of the Student Council, introduced those candidates which the Junior class nominated on Monday afternoon.

The student body has been conducting annual elections for presidents of the Student Council since 1921, when the Council began.
FREYTAG TO BE PRESIDENT

Martha Freytag heads the list of Zeta Sigma’s new officers as president. She will be assisted by Ruth Martin as vice-president, and Joan Manweiller as secretary. These three officers were elected Tuesday. Due to an interruption, the election of the remaining officers has been set for the next meeting. Offices to be filled are treasurer, mistress of ceremonies, critic, and reporter.

HEWES HEADS TRAVEL HOP

"We plan to make the dance one of the greatest achievements of the Junior Class," stated Frank Hewes. "The idea of planning the dance as a Travel Hop should also aid in its success." Hewes was elected to complete charge of the committees at the last meeting of the Junior Class. The dance will be in the State College Commons on Friday May 26 from 9-12.

Proceeds of the dance will add to the treasury to be used next year. Tickets are $.25 a person. A nickelodeon will furnish music.

Hewes also stated that although it will be a travel dance, it will not be necessary to bring a bag.

BASEBALL GAMES

Have you ever heard of baseball games? Did you know that Milne has a team? Well, it has, and it has played quite a few games recently. All of the games have taken place at four o'clock.

Although the players have tried hard they haven't been very successful. But, don't blame them entirely!!! Imagine yourself in their place, playing your hardest to give our school a good name, with a very very few Milnites supporting you. No cheers are given, while the other team is being strongly supported. How would you like it?

Let's not have any more "non-spectator" games. It's up to you, and don't forget that the weather has been perfect for baseball games lately.

READ REBECCA

Another top-notch novel has come to the attention of the Crimson and White Literary Committee.

BIZARRE, powerful, dynamic, -- Rebecca is a story about a woman long dead, but who lives again in the memory of a second wife.

MYSIFYING, puzzling, intriguing, -- Rebecca has an involved plot and the main climax is difficult to unearth as after the most thrilling chapter there comes a series of semi-climaxes one after another until breathlessly the book ends.

RAPID, quick, fast, speedy, -- the book will be read as it was written, at high speed, and we, the committee, advise the reader to start Rebecca when he or she has plenty of time. For so gripping is this novel that one cannot scenes at Manderley Union Pacific, last of Hollyvrood's four top until the last scenes at Manderley are finished.

Manderley is the beautiful estate of Rebecca's main heroine, and even glamorous, Rebecca.

Do not let the fact that you heard Orson Welles portrayal of the book on the radio daunt your enthusiasm as one of America, The leads played by Joe McCrea and Barbara Stanwyck make the picture truly joyed Rebecca as excitedly as we.

This book is now third in the list of best-sellers and was recently on top.

MILNE GIRLS URGED TO START TENNIS TOURNAMENT SOON

For the Girls who are interested in obtaining Tennis letters, Miss Hitchcock urges that each one start challenging the members signed on the bulletin board, which is nearest Dr. Sayles office. Miss Hitchcock states, "The system is changed this year to make the distribution of Tennis letters more fair. Each girl is welcome to challenge any girl. By the results of each game the names will change and if you do not play your name will drop to the bottom of the list."

SPORT SPOTLIGHT
FOCUSED BY "RIPPER"

The first Junior athlete under the Sport Spotlight is John Thomas Fink of 214 Northern Boulevard.

Johnnie is by no means a junior when it comes to height as he stands six feet above the ground, and balances the scales at 22 pounds per foot or 168.

Johnnie came to Milne in the eight grade and has been on the baseball and basketball teams for two years. Last year he filled the position of second baseman on the baseball team and had the amazing batting average of .500. Already this year he has hit a circuit clout and is ready for many more.

Fink is sergeant-at-arms of Theta Nu and vice-president of the Boys' Athletic Council.

His hawk eyes and wavy brown hair have stopped many a feminine heart.

"Finkies" hobbies are reading as well as the art of shunt-eye, or sleeping.

In professional baseball Johnnie admires Connie Mack and Vokes. "I think that he has done more for young ball-players than any other American or National league manager." It is for this reason that Johnnie picked a last place club in the Junior circuit, the Philadelphia Athletics.

In the National league, however, he prefers the favorite Cincinnati Reds.

Some years from now "Finkie" may be drawing with a southern accent, as he intends to go to Duke University in Durham, North Carolina.

Next week, "Finkie" plans.

MILNE TO BAT WITH RENSSELAER

Yesterday the Milne Baseball Team went to bat against a powerful Rensselaer team. This game was the last of two encounters for the season, in which the two teams have met. In the opening game of the season, Milne was defeated by a score of 2-1, due mainly to the fast ball pitching of Childs, Rensselaer's number one pitcher. In the game Wednesday the Milne team was conceda a far better chance. Since the first game the squads batting average has improved tremendously.

The probable pitcher for this contest is the right-handed Guy Childs.

Last week the ball team split in two games. In the first, one against Philip Schuyler, Don Giosol, Milne's ace pitcher won his own ball game. Besides pitching ten strikeouts, Don stepped up to the plate with Milne behind in score and hit a home run that put Milno on the winning side of the score.

In the second game last week the Crimson seekers lost a close game to Roeselville. The game was a neck to neck trial all the way, but the final decision came in the first of the seventh inning when a Roeselville man came in from third on a fly.

Guy Childs, of Milne, pitched a nice game gaining eight and only giving up two walks. The final score was 3-2.

TENNIS TEAM BUSY

This week the Tennis Team has had its busiest week of the season. Since last Friday, when the Milne Boys met Vincent Institute at Washington Park, there has been a dull moment. In the match with VI. a tic score of 2-2 resulted.

On Monday the Team traveled to Rensselaer High School to play on their courts. The Boys' lost the tough match by a score of 6-3. In the match the singles were:

Number 1- George Scovill - lost 1-6
Number 2- Robert Wheelor - lost 6-0
Number 3- Earl Goodrich - won 6-0
Number 4- Marcus Meyers - lost 6-0
Number 5- Robert Gardener - lost 6-0

In doubles Earl Goodrich and George Scovill carried the flag as victors in one of the matches but John Gulnac and Robert Wheelor lost theirs.

A match with Philip Schuyler was scheduled for Tuesday as well as a match with Albany High on Thursday, weather permitting.
The headline attraction of the week end was, needless to say, the gala Q.T.- S.A. at Milne. Having been forewarned of this sparkling affair, I was then at the stroke of nine. I sat, unnoticed but noticing, in a secluded corner where I wore rhythm into my smart new black sweater. The orchestra, I thought, was exceptionally good; that cunning little "Frisbie" number, rendered by the "trilling tunz" was responsible for a dropped stitch. A teasing flash appearing at the door diverted our attention.

Only a second glance was necessary to inform me that the one to whom the lovely red hair belonged was none other than the Bethlehem Central "dress animal" girls Bruce Clemons beloved with attention. A few more whirls, and they disappeared into the gay crowd.

Bill Saunders, a P.G.-ing Milnite certainly put it over on the younger lads by accompanying "la jeune belle" Tinker to the dance. Don Jones and several others too anxious to mention almost made Bill wonder if it was he who escorted her.

Much to the sorrow of many, John Fink again joined the ranks of the bel-con-tying stags. (The lone-rangers who refuse to step foot upon the dance floor) At any rate, he couldn't have been lon- some since Preston Robinson, Ed Hunting, Gay Childs and plenty of others kept watch from the same location.

Even further from the music were Armon "Elsmere" Livermore and Al Metz. These two advanced no nearer than that farthest water fountain; they were, however, heartily greeted during an intermission, but could not be persuaded to "whirl".

Speaking of admissions, the crowd pursed the Coca-cola machine with more than ordinary enthusiasm, but due to the quickly exhausted supply, a good many were disappointed. I heard Bob Wheeler remark that he didn't mind not getting a coke, but what burned him up was the thought of someone else enjoying one whose nickel paid for it.

Frank Hayes did his bit to add gaiety to the evening. I could not help noticing how well he and petite Miss Roberts glided over the floor.

Conspicuous by their absence were the Junior boys. Evidently their sociabil- ity has waned considerably. The ab-undance of Freshman girls was rather unus-ual. Perhaps it's their youthful charm which is so enticing. Willie "Mean" McGregor and Fred Regan too were too to be captivated by the true jeanne act.

Following the pause which refreshed, I returned to watch the dancing of the queen; Jim certainly accepted her title with un-mean grace. Eddie Starce-ather's face nearly matched the red of the mass.

Another hour of dancing, and the evening, even though the usual time was extended, drew to a close. The gay clusters of young people who withdrew from the Couron expressed nothing but thoughts of a wonderful evening.

Out in the driveway I caught a mere glimpse of George Sco-ill; unfortunately George had to miss the Q.T. because the Academy dance was on the same evening.

Later, at home, I glanced over my social calendar for the coming week. Included among the events in the Milne Horse Show, scheduled for Friday after-noon. I intend to be there and hope to see just lots of you too.

Hope you enjoyed the Academy dance. (Continued from next column)
UN EXAMEN

Are you up on all points of knowledge? Do you know what's what and what isn't? This is "un petit examen" to test your—or—social snoopiness. We received 100%.

1. What Milner "moonbeam" received an orchid from her "Q.T." (jun-eylic) escort?

2. What junior was the cause, by means of a touching piece of oratory, of drawing tears at the Sigma Banquet?

3. From what picnic did several Milnites obtain "hair in the hair" and "over-ent aches?" (Several Milnites went home too early to enjoy the fun).

4. Who picked pink elephants off the ceiling for a Sigma girl?

5. What little junior couple had a friendly "eat!?" It wasn't so long ago either.

Well, we were going to tell you the answers, but we have decided that if you don't know the answers—you can guess.

-----------

DAFFY-MOTIONS

Gifted — state of person on his or her birthday.

Cleon — another word for "track ace," such as Cleon Cunningham.

Heater — hot date.

Heaven — that place to which all Milnites wish to go eventually but none will.

Heart — the organ which plays its best tunes in Springtime.

Liable — used in describing a situation which lends itself to falsehood.

Tinker — baby talk; such as, "I tinker loves too, Herman."

Kindred — form of relations.

Logarithm — headache spelled with 9 letters.

Nodding — word commonly used by store-keepers on Central Avenue; such as, "Nodding cost more don free cents."

Protective — private investigator.

Zeal — aquatic animal seen in circuses; such as, "Oh, watch the zeal eat the fish!"

HAVE YOU ANY IDEA

WHAT IT MEANS??

Does your girl twirl her lacy handkerchief? Have you ever given a thought to what this might mean? One of our staff editors recently donated a tiny booklet from way back in 1905 which revealed some interesting facts about love and the handkerchief.

If she has a tendency to draw the handkerchief across the lips it means: I desire your acquaintance. Of course, if she draws it across her eyes she is saying that she is sorry. We always thought that when she dropped her handkerchief she was flirting, but it really means: we will be friends. To twirl a handkerchief shows indifference. Drawing it across the cheek means: "I love you." Does Betty Schreiner do this often? Then, too, a great many girls sit in classes, fix their eyes on the teacher, and draw a handkerchief through their hands, which means: "I hate you." Of course when "Hicky" draws a handkerchief across her forehead she's telling: "We're watched."

Now we see why our Milne men follow the St. Agnes and Girls' Academy "friendly rival. A little book says that a handkerchief over the shoulder means: "Follow me."

We realize that this article may stimulate a run on handkerchief counters in the Albany department stores. We suggest that since it was written in 1905, that—well, after all, things do change!!
