Senior Students To Sponsor Dance

Ulrich Heads Committee For Senior Reception

The Senior High School will conduct its annual semi-informal reception dance-tomorrow night, October 23, from 8:30 P.M. until 12:00 P.M. in the State College Lounge. There the chaperones will greet both old and new students. The chaperones are to be Miss Nielsen, Miss Jackman, Mr. Sensemann and Dr. Snader. Miss Laurel Ulrich, '45, is chairman of the dance.

First Social

"Since this is to be the first social affair of the year, we would like it to be an outstanding event," said Laurel Ulrich, chairman. All boys are urged to invite someone, if they haven't already done so.

The posters seen in the hallways were done by a committee of talented Milne artists, headed by Linn Mueske.

New Amplifier

This will mark the first appearance of the new amplifier purchased by Dr. Floyd Hendrickson for the nickelodeon. Many of the most popular songs of the season have been acquired to aid the musical entertainment.

There are to be the usual fox trots, tango, waltzes, congas, and leap year dances.

Senior Discuss Photos For Bricks and Ivy

Milne seniors attended their third class meeting Monday at 12:27 in the art room. Miss Grace Martin and Miss Katherine E. Wheeling, class supervisors, also were at the meeting. Alvin Bingham, class president, acted as chairman of the meeting.

The main topic of discussion concerned pictures of the seniors for the yearbook. A representative of one of the local studios made an offer to the students and showed some examples of his work. Displayed in the senior room were some prints made by another studio.

The meeting was dissmissed at 12:37 P.M.

The portraits for the senior class will be taken some time this semester so that the yearbook will have pictures of any students graduating in January. Sue Hoyt, business manager of the Brick and Ivy, is taking care of the portrait business for the senior class.

Students Pass Budget 354-24 After Assembly

The annual budget for the Milne school was approved Wednesday by a large majority following the Budget assembly 354 voted for the budget and 24 against it.

The assembly was opened by Dr. Robert W. Frederick, who stated, "This is one of our most important assemblies of the year." Following this Leonard Jones spoke and introduced the first speaker, Mr. Wilfred Allard, French supervisor. He spoke in place of Betty Lou Terry for the French and Spanish Clubs. This money will be used to put on a play similar to the one produced last year. Miss Terry who was supposed to speak was absent.

Len next introduced Sanford Bookstein who spoke as editor of the Crimson and White. He asked for $600, the same as last year's appropriation. This is used in the 23 issues costing $30 each for the year. The cuts, at least one of which is used each week, cost $200. Food and stamps, and other supplies take care of the rest of the money.

Bob Beckett spoke for the Boys' Athletic Council. They too asked for $600. Because of the increased rent of the baseball field, the BAC is starting the year with a $150 deficit. The BAC expenditures average $1,000 a year but they expect at least $400 in gate receipts from basketball games.

Sue Hoyt spoke for the Bricks and Ivy. They asked for $200 as they did in past years. The rest of their money is made from advertising and the pages sold to various organizations.

Elaine Sexton spoke for the Music Council which asked only $30 to support the entire Music Department, which includes the band, the choir, the Millenites, and the quartette.

Joyce Knapp spoke in behalf of senior high parties, senior school activities which was cut $25, and the Mural fund which remained the same.

Pat Peterson spoke next for the Girls' Athletic Council which requested its usual $368.

Name Creble, Letham To Other Positions

The Albany Student War Council elected Kenny Stephenson, '44, president for the year, at a meeting in Milne on October 13. This is the second year of the War Council and both presidents have been from Milne. Last year Richard Bates organized the Council to engage students in war activities.

Other officers are: Secretary, Catherine Creble, Girls Academy; treasurer, Mary Letham, Vincentian. The business manager is from Schuyler but has not, yet been elected.

All Schools Represented

Each school in the city is represented on the council. One senior and one junior are elected to serve the school year. In this way there is always someone experienced serving. Representatives are: Albany High School, Jack Hotchkiss, Stephenie Bunting; Boys' Academy, Dave MacLeod; George Ross; Academy of the Holy Names, Joanne Kurrus; Milne, Kenny Stephenson, Ruth Welsh; Philip Schuyler, Doris Sexton; Norma; St. Joseph's, Florence Itytal, Betty Condon; St. Agnes, Esther Glassbrook, Helen Waterman; Hackett, Susan McArthur,_Vince, centian, Joan Fausel, Mary Letham; Girls' Academy, Virginia Miner. They have already raised over $9,000 by selling stamps, and there has been no representation from CBA since the election. He is John R. Summers. St. John's and Catholic have not been represented as yet.

Adviser from the Parochial schools is Brother Aloysius. Public School advisor is Helen McCormick. Dr. Robert W. Frederick of Milne is the chairman of the school's curriculum committee.

Meets Regularly

The council meets every two weeks at one of the schools. This is determined alphabetically.

A goal of $25,000 has been set for War Stamps and Bonds by December 7th. This quota must be reached. "The only way it can be attained is for each and every student buying some stamps each week. Hackett Junior High School has already raised over $9,000 by themselves. Milne is lagging and there is no reason for it," according to Kenny Stephenson. He continues, "Each of you know someone in the service whom you'd like to have come home sooner. Won't you help them by buying a stamp today?"
Letters to the Editor

Fellow Milinites: It is time that we did something about the situation that faces us each day. The problem of food for the senior school is indeed one of great importance.

There are three shifts eating at the cafeteria every day. First is State College; second, the junior school, and lastly, us, the senior high. Indeed one of great importance. To the Editor of the Crimson and White:

This year there has been a change in schedule since the seventh grade. During this time I have always eaten in the Annex. Whenever I wished to dispose of a piece of paper at lunch time there was always a waste basket handy. This year there has been a change in schedule and all students now eat in the cafeteria. There has been much discussion this year about the throwing of papers in the cafeteria. I ask is this entirely the students fault? If not, ask Elaine Sexton, Barbara Bogardus, Helen Huntington, Barbara Shamburger, Janice Hauf, Greta Gade, Laurel Ulrich, Janet Wiley, Barbara Macmahon, or Lois Mehan; they are the original.

This weekend: Betty Fettig went horseback riding with two Siena boys... Janie Spatz, junior hostess, spent Saturday night at the USO... Ruth Short spent the weekend with the hives. Mona Delano traveled to Crooked Lake and the Circle to dance.

Sunday Sally Duncan, Al Bingham, Rosada Marston, Corny Heidenreich went to Saratoga Lake... Corny fished while Bing climbed a tree—against his wishes.

Jean Figarsky went out with one of her men from Union... Seaman First Class Walt Hothnels went home for five days to see Babs Bogardus... A surprise birthday party for Janice Hauf was Tuesday.

Have you seen all the cars sported by Milne students? Pat George is a snappy green and black fair... Louis Austin has a 36 Plymouth... Angela Snare has a neat Fleetside Chevy...

The freshman class is having a Halloween Party at 3:15 today. It was planned mainly by Barbara Betham and group. Tom on his good south paw when it came to pitching was at last a reality... There are two sevenths graders, two eighth graders and four freshmen.

Retraction: My apologies to Arden Flint—Arden did not work as a pin boy this summer; he worked in a chicken coop...

Tomorrow is the big affair for the Senior High. Couples are: Helen Clark, Al Bingham, Helen Caldes, Bob Beckett, Roxy Becker, Bill Baker, Pat Gotier, Chuck Rosohl, Sally Duncan, Pete Hunting, Rosada Marston, Corny Heidenreich, Mary Popp, Chuck Hopkins, Betty Gallup, Paul Distelhurst, Winnie Hauf, Frankie Bellefinger, Nancy Clark, Eugene St. Louis, the senior girls, Frank Kirk and Warren Shell.

Dot Crooks, Scott Hamilton, Ruth Welsh, '46, and George Myers ended up in Troy over the weekend.

The talent show was a success... Ruth Welsh, '45, deserves more than an encore... The budget is passed... Jean Dorsay and Pete Peterson really expected long and hard fights would be more waste baskets there would be less if no paper throwing. Let see some action in the near future.

A Ninth Grader.

New Desks

Fortunately, Milne obtained a large additional group of desks for class rooms, to replace those that are wearing out.

All the students who use them should treat them with care. Please do your doodling on paper. The war naturally makes more practically unobtainable. This has been reiterated so many times, it is almost a cliche, but it remains the truth.

Be sure to treat them gently.

The Red Cross

The Milne Junior Red Cross has started its annual drive for funds. Every student is asked to contribute a small amount of money.

Give the Red Cross organization your fullest support. Everyone should contribute to this worthy cause. Don't forget about it; give your contribution. Let's see that every single person in Milne gives something!

9th Grade, Blackouts Break Tie for 1st Place

Since last week, the Lancers, the leaders of the 9th grade league, have played two games. Of these they won one, tied one, and lost none. The league standings however have not changed since last week.

In the 8th grade, the schedule has stayed the same. The Termites are still out in front, with 5 wins, and no losses.

In the 7th grade, the Blackouts have broken the 3-way tie and have moved from last place into fifth place. Since last week, however, they have played two games. Of these they have won one, tied one, and lost none. The league standings however have not changed since last week.

The 12th grade league stands the same as last week due to the fact that no games have been played since then.

G.A.C. Awards

The Girls' Athletic Council awarded tennis letters to those who have played 20 or more hours. They are: Suzanne Pelletier, '48, Florence Flint, '47, Jean Hutchins, '46, Chloe Pelletier, '45, Barbara Richardson, '45, Janice Haul, '45, and Jean Dorsay, Marilyn Bates, Pat Peterson, and Joyce Stanton, '44.

Ninth Boys to Get An Extra Gym Period

More physical activity for ninth grade boys will result in a change of schedule of classes on Monday instead of Friday, third period. This change avoids a conflict with the college schedule during the winter months when the students would be indoors. The new plan gives the ninth grade use of the big gym on Mondays. In the future the junior boys will have an extra gym period on Thursday, sixth period. This will relieve the congestion in the library and, at the same time, will give the boys an opportunity for more physical activity.

"The program is coming along in fine shape. The teams are enjoying the Inter-scholastic Football League and as the season progresses competition is becoming keener," affirms John C. Tanno, physical director.

We finally got a gym teacher and certainly needed one too. The name is quite familiar around State and Milne—Mrs. Merle Tieszen.

Plans Made

Plans are already made to start the sports rolling right. Mrs. Tieszen is trying to get every girl to participate in sports. For official gym classes this year very few students showed up, and Mrs. Tieszen doesn't want to see dear girls about school.

Nebaskan

Our new physical education teacher is a Nebraskan. After attending the University of Nebraska for three years, Mrs. Tieszen transferred to Goshen College, Indiana for her degree. Within the next few years, our instructor married Professor Merle Tieszen, now a science professor at State College. She also continued studying graduate work at Ohio State. There she organized a sports clinic for physical education teachers, which was very interesting work. Mrs. Tieszen had excellent teaching experience when she taught gymnastics five years at Holridge High School, Nebraska. She continued teaching her program at State in 1931, where she was gym teacher at Albany Business College. It was a victorious year, because her football team ended the year undefeated.

In 1936, '38, and '39, Mrs. Tieszen taught at State College while Miss Johnston took a leave of absence. In this way she acquainted herself with Milne.

Mrs. Tieszen looked over our equipment and believes that it will hold out for the season. She wants cooperation. Let's give it to her girls.

Improvement in the hockey games have already shown. There isn't quite as much murder being committed with the sticks, and the games are more organized. Students are now practically compelled to participate in gym classes, and even Norma Silverstein was seen on the field with "Bosco" Dorsay and O'Connell.

There are quite a few good players in hockey this year and when we start participating in playdays, we will be looking for them to join. Marilyn Arnold, '46, and Phoebe Heidenreich, '46, are quite good and if they stick to it, they get places in Milne.

Most of the girls have been playing hockey in everything but gym-suits. They have been seen in bright green shorts, dresses, skirts, and every color sweater or blouse on the market. One uniform was seen on little Norma Singer. She's had one since the classes began and she certainly looked cute.

How many girls are interested in a horseback riding class? There is no apparent reason for not organizing a class. Let me know about joining.
Mr. Raymond, shop instructor, reported that Milne has completed its quota of model planes pledged to the Navy. Eighty models have been delivered, and thirty-five additional planes are on display in the shop. The model building program extends to January 1, 1944. Any boy who completes an acceptable model before that time will receive a certificate from the Navy.

Senior High shop students are now engaged in making reading aids, concerning the film loan working on mahogany jewel boxes. Hutchison, photography editor, and Betty Stone, literary editor, is in charge of these assignments. There are other assignments still open for Bricks and Ivy students at this time. There is also a call for models of plane hardware and Bricks and Ivy students are interested people.

The model building program extends to January 1, 1944. Any boy who completes a model plane will receive a certificate from the Navy.

The Junior High shop students have seen several movies among which were "Choosing Your Vocation," "Furniture Craftsmen," "Theory of Flight," and "What Is Electricity?"

10th and 11th grades attended an assembly in Page Hall auditorium on Monday, October 18, 1943. The feature point of interest was an interior the Mississippi Valley and the flood control and soil conservation program there. The soil conservation was shown in several pictures taken through the year from 1933 to 1935.

Pictures were shown of the many homeless refugees in the major floods. The Mississippi and all its tributaries were silhouetted in white against the black background, making an impressive spectacle.

Jean Dorsey was the last speaker on the program. She wanted $55 for the cheerleaders to standardize their skirts or sweaters.

Betty Baskin made an announcement urging student participants to elect a representative to purchase stamps and bonds for each homeroom. The assembly was then closed by Len Jones and students went to their homerooms to vote by secret ballot. Len announced that all student tax must be paid before the first of November.

The budget was approved at a student council meeting last Friday, October 29. It was passed just as printed in the Claysm and White in the last issue. Lou Knapp and Len Jones were in a large part responsible for the budget.

Practically the entire school attended the assembly which was held after school. In past years there has been considerable excitement taken, placed, and dropped school hours. Dr. Frederick gave the students a chance to direct any questions concerning the appropriations, but there was a single question was waiting to open in the Broadview show "Bright Lights."—Then the show folded in three nights.

Did you know that in the original play the Noble outfit were Claude Thornhill, Glenn Miller, Will Bradley, Charlie Spivac, and Pee-Wee Wayne, former Claude Thornhill buddie, was off the movies. Vaugh Monroe and Hal McIntyre both fathers, are repored 1-A. Buddy Rich, Dorsey's drummer, was reported slowly gaining normal vision following a 20-foot training barrier for the Marines. Erskine Harris assembly, then cloused induction notice. John Kirby's band laid off for a month in New York waiting for their donation. Milne is overseas.

All the students enjoyed the assembly. It lasted for the full half hour period allotted for the show. Miss Mary Conklin told the students that there was a rough music on the program that the students were allowed to ask questions on anything they did not understand. The program was conducted with the singing of the Alma Mater.

She explained about the traffic rules and other laws of the road. Ralph Brown performed a song about the many months of rumors to that effect, she as last week actually go through with it. And put these don't call Harry James "Mr. Grable!"

Discussions

In the recently conducted poll for top bandleaders, results are as follows: Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey are respectively top swing bands, top sweet bands and favorite bands of all. Harry James' all around showing was one of the best and Duke Ellington pressed hard for Favorite Band. Goodman's popularity seems to increase every year.

The news flashes: Duke Ellington plays concerts December 11 and 12 at Carnegie Hall, New York and Boston. Wayne, former Claude Thornhill thrus is off to the movies. Vaugh Monroe and Hal McIntyre both fathers, are repored 1-A. Buddy Rich, Dorsey's drummer, was reported slowly gaining normal vision following a 20-foot training barrier for the Marines.
