COMPILED THE CONSTITUTIONS

It has been recently suggested to the Senior Student Council that the constitutions of various organizations in the school, such as societies, Girls Athletic Council, Boys Athletic Council, and Student Council, be compiled into one volume for use in the library.

This idea would make it convenient for any member of the faculty or of the student body seeking that type of information.

"This plan," says Donald De Hure of the Student Council, "is what Milne has needed for a long time. For whenever anyone needed information on these subjects, it was very difficult to secure it."

We, of the Crimson and White feel as De Hure does, concerning this question. The Ready Reference of Organizations Constitutions would be a great asset to Milne.

TALKING OF TALKIES

Film Of The Week

*The Howards of Virginia

Frank Lloyd, Columbia's ace director-producer has added to his list of film hits, and succeeds a new vehicle called "The Howards of Virginia." It is a story of the Revolution, based on Elizabeth Page's novel, "The Tree of Liberty."

The film tells of the reasons and events which lead up to the revolution, from the southern angle, at the same time, portraying the story of life and love among two Virginia families— one aristocratic, and wealthy— the other poor and of common stock.

Cary Grant portrays the role of Matt Howard, the frontiersman from Alamamle County, very well, and is favorably cast with such members of the theatre and screen as Martha Scott, known for her work in "Our Town," Sir Cedric Hardwicke, of "Stanley and Livingston" fame, Alan Marshall, who is comparatively new to the screen, and Richard Carlson, who plays excellently, the role of Thomas Jefferson.

Looking at the picture from every angle—story, acting, cast, photography, direction; one can truly include "The Howards of Virginia" a definite "must see."

COMMUNICATIONS

Is there something about Milne that you particularly like? Is there some feature of the paper that you especially enjoy? Or have you something in mind that you feel should be adjusted, something that needs attention and action?

Have you read a book, an article, a poem or play that you have particularly enjoyed, and that you think others would enjoy? Have you seen a motion picture that you believe others would like to see?

Have you a bit of news or a scoop that is not known about? Have you a talent for writing that should be displayed?

The Crimson and White is your newspaper. You're paying for it whether you realize it or not.

For this reason, the staff is creating a Communications Column. When you want to voice your opinion, just drop a note to: The Editor, Crimson and White, and leave it in the Crimson and White file in Room 233.
The Senior High is certainly fortunate this year. Several new girls and boys have decided to come to Milne. Some of us lucky ones have already met them, but for those who haven’t, may we present——

Miss Betty Vail, formerly of North High in Worcester, Massachusetts. Her homeroom is 233. She likes Milne for many reasons, but mainly because of the student teachers and beautiful campus ground. Her favorite sports include swimming and tennis.

Robert Hachel hails from good old Albany High School. His homeroom is the Art Room. He was born in Albany, and his hobby—well you’ll never guess it—is collecting and throwing knives! He excels in all sports, so it appears that Albany High’s loss is Milne’s gain.

Next in line, we have Miss Shirley Ann Atkinson. Although she is originally from Ohio, last year she attended Hackett Junior High School. She favors Milne because everyone has such a friendly attitude toward everyone else. She also is in favor of small classrooms. Her favorite sports are swimming and skiing.

Walter Grace, formerly of Voorheesville High, said he was very glad when he found that he could change to an Albany school. As he was born in Albany, in this way, he could meet all of his old friends. He moved to Voorheesville in 1933. He is very enthusiastic about almost every sport we could name, but he is most interested in baseball. He is hoping to make the team next spring.

With these few new additions to the school ring, and with all the grand people in Milne already, we ought to be set for a pretty good time this year.

You’re all very familiar with the regular type of speeches, but have you ever heard a minister give one? Now, remember, we said “speech,” not “sermon.”

At the Capital District Scholastic Press Association, the Reverend George B. Gilbert gave the most delightful and entertaining speech we’ve heard in a long time.

Rev. Gilbert is a rather elderly man that has lived a full life. He gave a short summary of his life on the farm which was very interesting. He has a fine sense of humor and through his many experiences, he has a large collection of stories.

One of the best stories he told was this one. It seemed that a young girl was going on a sea voyage and decided to write a one-line diary every night. This is the way her diary read:

1st night—Sailed out of New York Harbor.
2nd night—Met the first mate.
3rd night—The first mate asked me to kiss him, I refused.
4th night—He said that if I didn’t kiss him, he’d sink the ship.
5th night—I saved 1200 lives.

Along with telling some very funny stories, Rev. Gilbert gave some constructive help on writing.

Did you know that Dave Davidson is trying very hard to decide between Butte Farman and Jessie Doran? That interests us, what ever happened to that “” of Vincentianite?

Helen Hutchinson, although she is very sorry to have left Milne, says that Vincentian isn’t too bad. She was enjoying herself at the Vincentian Get-Together last Friday night.

We are all glad to hear that Marilyn Tinker is at last on the road to recovery after her tonsillectomy.
