MILNE PARTICIPANTS IN ANNUAL ACTIVITIES OF ALBANY YOUTH WEEK

Over 20 students participated in the Annual Youth Week Activities. Richard Leeper and Sidney Stein were Attorney General and Commissioner of Education respectively.

Eight Milne students represented Milne at the Y.W.C.A. on Monday afternoon to observe the work the Albany Community Chest has done. They were: Lois Ambler, Rita Figarsky, Robert Kohn, Marjorie Gade, Catherine Morrison, Gerald Plunkett, Hoyden Sand, and Robert Silverstein.

Mr. Everett V. Johns, Director of the Albany Hospital, guided students of the city schools through the hospital on Tuesday afternoon, May 6. Representing Milne were Stanley Ball, David Feck, Valley Paradis, and Ruth Peterson.

The Executive Committee for the Mobilization of Youth met Wednesday, May 7 at the Governor's Mansion. Milne students on the committee were David Mack, Robert Rinn, Glenna Smith, and Josephine Wilson.

JUNIORS CHOOSE GOLDRING, POOLE, PLUNKETT, WILSON

The Spring Convention of the Capitol District Scholastic Press Association will take place at the Rooliff-Jansen High School, Hillsdale, New York on Saturday, May 17.

Those representing the Milne Crimson and White and Robert Kohn, Grotchen Phillips, Natalie Mann, Lois Ambler, and Bernard Golding.

The theme of the convention is: What is the role of the school newspapers in national defense?

The program will include Dr. W. T. Malchoir of Syracuse University, who is a nationally renowned speaker; college editors as discussion leaders; a one-act play, by the Rooliff-Jansen faculty, as a medium for contests, and a 60-piece school band, responsive with ten twirlers and comedy entertainment.

Mr. John A. Murray and Mr. Stephen A. Kusak, Editor and Co-Managing Editor of the State College News will lead a sectional meeting on "Typography and Make-up." They will be assisted by Robert Kohn, Editor of the Crimson and White.

HONORS BAKER AND GADE

Mary Baker and Marjorie Gade were selected to represent Milne at a dinner tendered by the Albany Zonta Club, to outstanding senior girls of the city schools, which took place last evening at the Hotel Wellington.

EINSTEIN AND SHAMBERGER WIN SPEAKING CONTEST

The Annual Milne Prize Speaking contest, which took place in the Page Hall Auditorium last Friday night, was won by Leah Einstein and Robert Shamberger both members of the Senior Class. Miss Einstein gave an excerpt from Act VI of "Saint Joan," by George Bernard Shaw. Shamberger gave an excerpt from "The Pathway to War," by Robert Hutchins.

JOAN MANWELLER AND EDWARD BOWKINSTEIN WERE ACCORDED HONORABLE MENTION.

GALA DANCE TONIGHT

The Annual QESA Dance will be held tonight from 9 to 12 in the Page Hall Gym. David Davidoff announces the Sammy Bruno and his orchestra will furnish the music.
RIDERS TO PRESENT SHOW

The annual show, presented by the Milne Riding Club, May 16, at 10 A.M. at the Fort Orange Riding Academy on upper Washington Avenue, Miss Bess Mitchell, Instructor in Physical Education, is directing the event.

The show will consist of a drill, seat and hands and sets of two, for which prizes will be awarded. For the first time in many years the show will take place outdoors.

Those participating will be: Malcolm Riley, Harry washer, Joan Figursky, Miriam Steinhardt, Marjorie Wright, Doris Spitzer, Mildred Spitzer, Cheryl Per- bor, Ann Graham, Laurel Ulrich, and Helen Levine.

SCHLOSS ELKET JR. MARSHALS

The senior class has chosen ushers and marshals for Class Night. Marshals are Lois Ambler and Robert Ball. The ushers are Marcia Davidlummer, Joyce Hopper, John Poolo, and Donald Fouscutt.

The same students will be ushers and marshals on graduation.

DIAMOND KEN OPEN SEASON WITH LOSERS

The Milne baseball nine didn't get off to an especially good start last Friday, when they lost an 11-4 decision to Rensselaer High School at Rensselaer. Bob Austin performed smoothly on the mound, but he had none too good support from the rest of the team. Milne had a number of errors.

This Tuesday, Milne journeyed to Upstate Greenbush to battle Columbia High School. Columbia was on the long end of a 7-6 score. Tommy Dyer pitched the first six innings and was relieved in the seventh by Bob Austin.

MILNE RED CROSS PUBLISHES PAPER

The Milne Junior Red Cross recently published the May issue of the Red Cross Inquirer. 150 copies are put out each month by some school in Albany, and distributed among the other schools. The theme for this month's edition was "Famous Workers in the Red Cross."

The following students assisted in editing the publication:

Co-Editors:
- Corrine Edwards
- Patricia Cline
- Elmo Brook
- Blandone Finkler
- Rita Finkler
- Robert Silverstein
- Marcia Schifferdecker
- Miss Naomi Hammy, Advisor

Copies were distributed at the City Red Cross Council Meeting last Tuesday, May 6, which was the last meeting of the season.

LOIS AMBLER TO ENTER CONVENTION CONTEST

Lois Ambler, Feature Editor of the Crimson and White, is entered in the Feature Story Contest of the Capitol District Scholastic Press Association, which will take place at Rookiff Jansen School, in Hillsdale on May 17.

DR. FREDERICK TO SPEAK ON STATION WAY

Dr. Robert W. Frederick, Principal, will deliver another in his series of monthly talks over Station WGY on Monday, May 12. He will speak on "Broken Homes and Broken Children."

SCHIFFERDECKER WRITES FOR YOUTH WEEK PAPER

Marcia Schifferdecker, reporter of the Crimson and White staff, was selected to be on the staff of the magazine to be published for the annual Boys and Girls Week.

MISS GREENHILL TO ENTER CONTEST

Miss Grace Martin, Instructor in Art, announced that the Art Department will award four medals at Commencement Exercises in June, to outstanding Art Students.

Two of the awards are for the best boy and girl art students in the seventh grade, while the other two will be given to senior high students who excel in ceramics and art.

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY HONORS FOUR SENIORS

Robert Austin, president of the senior class, received recently a letter from Dr. W. H. Orgelwell, president of the International Students Society, informing him that both he and Edward Langwig, President of the Student Council, had been selected as outstanding students in Milne High School. Marion Soule and Mary Tekor, also seniors, were selected along with Austin and Langwig to have their biographies appear in the 1941 issue of "Student's Who's Who."

Students whose biographies are to appear in the book are selected on the basis of leadership, scholarship, accomplishment, and promise of future attainment.

MILNE ART DEPARTMENT TO AWARD FOUR MEDALS

Miss Grace Martin, Instructor in Art, announced that the Art Department will award four medals at Commencement Exercises in June, to outstanding Art Students.

Two of the awards are for the best boy and girl art students in the seventh grade, while the other two will be given to senior high students who excel in ceramics and art.
Many people have commented on some of the changes made in the library this year at Milne. Miss Almada Z. Hall has certainly done a grand job in taking Miss Thelma Eaton's place as librarian. This year, only there has been a slight more freedom given to its inhabitants. The students are allowed to move from their seats and whisper with each other, instead of remaining in one place for an hour.

Another great improvement is the addition of the daily newspapers to the files and also FI, a daily newsmagazine, which most of our readers enjoy. All the other magazines, which were removed before are still on our files and our library is as well versed as it ever was before.

Congratulations, Miss Hall! You have certainly done a grand job this year.

BASEBALL GAMES

Have you ever heard of the Milne baseball team? Did you know that it has started its season and will continue for a number of weeks? Most of the Milne students attend a few basketball games and usually disregard all other competitive sports on our program. The team is not too victorious in its endeavors, but it is not entirely their fault. Imagine yourself in their place, playing your hardest to give our school a good name with no support at all.

Let's not have any more "no-spectator" games. The team plays most of its games at Ridgefield Park. The weather has been perfect for baseball, so let's turn out for the next game.

Almost all of our present class of seniors are planning to attend a college next year. It seems that each student is going to a different college or university throughout the country. Some are planning to go to business college and some are not going to college at all, but the large majority are planning to be doctors, lawyers or engineers.

Milne is sending a large delegation to R.P.I. and Union. Larry Hayes and Bob Miller are going to R.P.I. and Marcus Hoera, Bob Schenburger, Bella Wineline and Don Summers and Stan Swift are going to Union.

Colgate is receiving two additional basketball players to their team in the form of Oaxillo Locke and Don Estes. John Young is also receiving new members of their basketball team. John Wur is going to Sigma and Bob Saunders to Brown.

Many students don't realize, but the service is receiving several Milne girls next year. Bill Wiley and Art Broady are going to Roosevelt Field and Rich Edwards can't make up his mind between the Army and Navy.

Most of the Milne girls are also planning to go to college. Russell Sage is receiving by far the largest group of Milne girls. This group includes Elaine Gallogly, Jean Keneddy, Sally Ivane, Helen Cooper, Betty horizon, Mildred Spector and Elaine Drex. Simmons is also receiving a large group of Milne girls, which includes Jessie Doran, Cath Morrison, Phyllis Noon and Marilyn Tinker.

Our Student Council President Ed Langhig is going to Michigan along with Helen Morris and Mary Borer. Dave Conlin is going to Syracuse and Dave Davidson to Lehigh Valley. Job Speck and Fred Ward are going to photography school in the city of Rochester. Our neighbor state is receiving two pupils from Milne in the form of Jeannie Selkirk and Bob Mason.

Some of our senior students are going to attend business college right here in Albany. Helen Morris, Doris Vegetaske and Mary Schwartz will attend Albany Business and Elaine Heck will attend Richard Eliot.

Last weekend certainly was busy for Milne. Friday night everyone went to Prize Speaking or the dance recital at the Girls' Academy, with Milne taking part. Leah and Bob did a swell job with their speeches and so did all the others. It must have been awful to be a judge! After it was over you could find Schiffy Norm, Alice and Gerald at the Playdium blowing 'duck pins' and Dave Mack and June Black at Herbert's.

In Saturday night Sigma had their banquet at the Wellington. All Sigma turned out in full force to bid farewell to the Seniors. Ruth Martin was given a gold compact with the Sigma seal engraved on the cover. When the banquet was over and the tears dried, they went practically en masse to the Strand to see "That Hamilton Woman."

Of course we mustn't forget the Quin banquet the same night as Sigma's. Their's was held at Howard Johnson's and I've never seen so many Quin girls sitting down all at once. Jessie received a gold bracelet with the Quin seal on it, and everyone had a corsage to wear. It was a very sad occasion, and some of the Juniors almost shed a tear too.

At the St. Agnes dance Saturday night Dave Davidson, Robin Wendell, Bob Kolm, and Gerald Plankett were seen, whirling a girl or two around the floor.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS

Teachers: Today will be a hard day for you. You must be patient and understanding. If you hear Alice Van Derwater mumbling about Gerry, what to wear, and hoping he doesn't step on her feet, overlook it. This will probably happen in many classes, for tonight, dear teachers, is Milne's Q.T.S.A. Some of the cuties at the Q.T. will be Martin Edwards with Helen Culp, Marion Mulvey with Dick Lawyer, June Black and Bob (O.B.A.) Mossey, Jean Hoyos with Dick Van Aernam, Schiffy with Norm (cum laude) Arnstein, Marilyn Potter and Jimmy Gibson, Joyce Hopps and Dick (Alb.) Bone, Marcia and Duncan, Sally and Bob, Corinne and Allan, Bette Farran and Bob Dohre, Jessie Doran and Bob Peck, and this could go on forever.

So you see, teachers, remember you were young once and it won't happen again till next year.
