Last Friday afternoon George Werntz of the Colgate faculty gave a talk to the Junior and Senior boys about college. Mr. Werntz has had a great deal of experience with high school and prep school boys and is interested in their education. He told about college life and how it would affect us later on, both educationally and socially. After telling about the college curriculum Mr. Werntz volunteered to answer any questions which the boys might wish to ask. Some of the questions concerned were, Fraternity rushing, sports, and the cost of going to college. Mr. Werntz hoped that all the boys in Milne would be able to go to college.

FIRST JOINT ASSEMBLY WILL BE WEDNESDAY

There will be a joint assembly on Wednesday, October 27, from 10:00 - 11:00 O'clock. The budget will be presented to the student body.

The council discussed ways by which they will be able to raise the money for the mural fund. The two ways that were thought best were the tea dances and a card party.

The student council asks that all students sit far down in front of the auditorium during the assembly programs, and to thus eliminate the vacant seats between the people.

The committees in charge of the reception certainly deserve a pat on the back. It was through their efforts that the reception stands out in our minds as a grand "kick off" for our social season.

Tricky decorations seem to add pep, vim, and vigor to a dance or party from the moment one steps inside the door. Lois Nesbitt, aided by Dick Andrews and a fine committee gave us the right start in that direction.

Our orchestra and entertainment committees, headed by the general chairman, Seelye Funk, helped assure us further of an evening to be remembered with pleasure. Yeah man! Mary Kabin’s orchestra has rhythm.

We surely feel sorrow for the foolish few who decided not to bother to come to our opening dance. They missed a peppy party and one that couldn’t help but be a success. Maybe that’ll learn them.

Anyway—here’s to bigger and better social affairs this year at Milne.

While the committees do a great deal of the work, it is the student body as a whole that puts the final brand of success or failure on a party. This year, with the reception as a start, let’s have them all unanimously labeled "success."

STOP, LOOK, AND READ!

Homework is not as difficult these days when you use the new library reference materials!

Last spring, the 1931 issue was the last Who's Who in America in Milne library. This fall we have a 1937 Who's Who on our reference shelf. Such news should bolster up the courage of most students.

Another valuable book is History of Travel in America by S. Dunbar. "This book I have a 1937 Who’s Who on our reference shelf. Such news should bolster up the courage of most students."

JOHN REED, by Granville Hicks

A very absorbing biography is well written by an analytical mind. The choice by Mrs. Hicks of John Reed for a study was a very good one, as not only did Mr. Reed lead a very interesting life, but the reason he did so can plainly be seen by observing his career.

Born in Portland, Oregon, in 1887, of an upper-class family, he soon became anxious that he would be an unusual boy. When he went to school, he would not conform to conventions; he liked to confuse his teachers. At Harvard, he did not mix with the boys, but became editor of the Lamplighter and did a lot of writing. All this time he became more and more radical.

At last, after living in New York with many men who later became famous, he became involved in the Patterson silk strikers. From then on, he was a socialist.

His life was one of vivid living and interest in everything. Read the book and follow Reed through!
Quin:

Thomas Hardy was quoted at the beginning of the meeting.

The Quin Rush, one of the important topics, was discussed. Damla Winshurst appointed people to provide entertainment for the Rush.

There was discussion concerning the new members.

Margaret Charles is the new reporter.

Theta Nu:

The initiation committee gave a report and the members discussed the initiates.

There was discussion of the Theta Nu Adelphi Dance and the Society Budget.

The members are planning a Society Outing.

Sigma:

Lucille Armistead reported on "The Citadel," by J. J. Cronin. The book is a fictitious autobiography about the rise of a Doctor in the mines.

Barbara Soper announced plans for the Rush. Miriam Freund conducted a meeting for try-outs for the Rush.

Members were told which foods they were to take to the Rush.

Adelphi:

Main topic of discussion was the formal dance which is to be on November 26. Social Funk, Kenneth Lushor, Martin Creasy, Richard Poland, and Seth Wheeler are on a committee for the coming dance and other problems arising during the year.

GROUPS MAKE PLANS FOR YEAR

The different groups of the Dramatics Club are in full swing. Robert Wheeler is the chairman of the Sophomore acting group. They discussed the different types of plays to be presented this year and decided upon comedy.

The senior acting group decided to work on dialect. They would like to present a three act play sometime in March.

The junior acting, elementary make-up, advanced make-up, and the sets-costume groups met, but have made no plans for the coming year.

Teacher (in the English class): "William, please tell us what it means when I say, "I love, you love, he loves".

William: "That's one of them triangles where somebody gets shot."

—The Interlude

The giraffe is a dumb animal and can't express itself by any sound, because its neck is so long that its voice gets tired on the way to the giraffe's mouth.

—The Boulder

"I don't mind," said the long winded professor, "when someone takes out his watch and looks at it, but when he takes out his watch, stores it at it, puts it to his ear, and then shakes it! It gets me!"

—The Lamp

A taxi trip is the longest distance between two points.

English 4 Student: "Pretense."

—The Buccaneer

"This case is more serious than I thought," said the detective when he saw that both sides of the window pane were broken.

Some Consolation

(An editor's soliloquy)

They find fault with the editors. The stuff they print is rot. The paper is as peppy as a cemetery lot. The ads show poor arrangement. The jokes are old and stale. The men so loudly holler and the women say "Holl-o!" But when the paper's printed and the issue is on file, if someone doesn't get his, you can hear him shout a mile.

LANTZ ADVANCES CORPORAL IN MOUNTED TROOP

Lantz advanced a rank.

Friday night was a big night for Clifford Lantz. He was made a Corporal in the Mounted Scout Troop, "6." The troop meets at the 19th Century, Troop "P" Armory, New Scotland Avenue every Friday night. Troop "63" is the only scout troop of its kind within a radius of three hundred miles.

Newell Cross is also a Corporal in the Mounted Troop. The following Milne boys are members of Troop "19": Jack Doughty, Leonhard Benjamins, R. Richard Swift, Stanley Swift, Preston Robinson, Jack Backman, William McGregor, Roger Harding.

Anyone who is interested in joining must be at least fifteen years old, a first class scout, and have a few merit badges. There is room for more members who are from Milne.

CHEERLEADERS START PRACTICE; TRIPP AND FOND ARE CAPTAINS

Margorie Ford and Virginia Tripp, both captains of the cheerleading squad, have started practice for the first game, which is scheduled for November 19. The other cheerleaders are: Elizabeth Simmons, Janet Cole, Frances Seymour, seniors and Virginia Nichols and Janet Clark, juniors. The girls will practice at least twice a week.
AMBITIOUS — OR SOMETHING

When we saw what an ambitious-looking crowd there was in Milne, we decided to put a few of these ambitions down in black and white. So here they are.

Barbara Soper: To teach Kenny Lasher to do the dip.

Lori Hayner: To marry a baseball player.

Ed Miller: To marry a hockey-kockey dancer from the south seas islands.

Frances Seymour: To persuade Skip to let his hair grow. He's really handsome, you know, etc., and so far into the night.

Dick Selkirk: To be a missionary somewhere where the cannibals don't eat pork.

Ed Walker: To be a minister. (And just to prove that he is well-fitted, he recited this little ditty:

My parents told me not to smoke — I don't.
My mother listens to a naughty joke — I don't.
To dance or flirt is very wrong — I don't,
Wild youths chase women, wine and song.
I don't.
I kiss no girls, not even one,
I do not know how it is done.
You wouldn't think I have much fun — I wouldn't, if this were true.

That was too much for even a snoopy reporter, so we called quit for this week. So long, everybody!

EMILY SQUEEZER

GREAT SYMPATHY

Getting out this little publication is no joke.
If we spring jokes, people say we are silly.
If we don't, they say we're too serious.
If we clip things from other newspapers, we are too lazy to write them ourselves.
If we don't, we are too fond of our own stuff.
If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate true genius.
If we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.
If we make a change in the other person's mailing, we are too critical.
If we don't, we are asleep.
Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this from some other paper.
Ha — we did!
