SPORTS REVIEW

Milne's basketball season has just recently been completed. All three of the teams, both boys' and girls', compiled an excellent record.

Milne's baseball team is possessed with the same potent spirit that the other teams had. Every man has been eagerly awaiting the coming season. This group of boys to which the question is of vital interest will represent the school on the field. It is our duty to support the team from the sidelines. Can't we capture some of their anxiety to have games?

The manager with the help of the captain and the coach has succeeded in getting a collection of excellent contestants for our team. Some of the teams that they will play are Altamont, Roselville, Averill Park, Rensselaer, and Troy Country Day School. This is only a partial list of the games that they hope to play.

Every boy in the school is eligible to try out for any position. They welcome improvement in any department of the game. Practice begins immediately after vacation is over and the first game will be played Saturday, May 4, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Their opponent will be Altamont High School.

Several places are open on the team, namely, shortstop, left field, and the pitching staff. Last year's letter men are Ely, second base; MacHarg, first base; Norvell, outfield; Rosenstein, catcher; and Feldman, third base. Substitutes were Dawes and Collins.

All the team hopes that we will come out and make a good showing on the part of the rest of the student body. We are sure that the team under the leadership of Captain Bob Feldman and Coach "Johnny" Cullen, State College senior, will make a good showing.

Let's go! — L. M.

WHY EDITORIALS?

How many people in the senior high school read the editorials in our paper? We are afraid that very few of you do. Are you among the number that reads the jokes, scans the headlines, and throws the paper away?

The question arises: Why read the editorial, anyhow? We shall attempt to answer this question for you.

In the first place, the Crimson and White is our paper. It is edited for our benefit by our own schoolmates. It presents for us the news in the school, covering it as completely and as clearly as possible. There is, however, only one place in a school paper where the students may give their own opinion. That place is in the editorial. It should be interesting to you to read editorial discussions of school affairs if you have any school spirit or pride. Editorials may give you a new slant on school problems of student government, sports, or extra-curricular activities.

Since Milne is temporarily our place of business, we should take an active interest in the "goings on" as seen by the editor. Certainly no one is better qualified to give an impartial view than the editor.

Why not, when your paper comes to you on Friday, open it to the second page and spend five minutes reading an editorial which presents a well thought-out idea or plan. We are sure that you will not regret it.

NOTICE

Come to the Senior High party tomorrow night from 8:30 to 11:30. It's informal. Bring your student tax ticket.

THE JOLLY MILLER

Idle Chatter

"C.C." has fallen again (ha ha, you nosy people, technically speaking mean 1), which is his favorite indoor sport. While perpetuating an arduous, intricate and never-ending chatterbox drag, he paused for a 30 second recline on the well known Edgewood dance floor.

All Due Congratulations

Little bothered over the above mentioned incident, Honor Student Simpson snagged a passing physics mark.

Men at Work

The following consists of views and interviews of Milnites with the work and workmen disabling our courtyard.

Eddedy:

"Oooh, sir, it must take a long time to learn to swing that axe like you.

Worker A32:

"Now, it ain't so hard, you kinda pick it up.

DePorte of Albany:

"Mister, doncha think some pines lining the college side would look peachy?"

Worker A32:

"Now, there are enough pines on that side already."

Winton:

"Can I take your wheelbarrow a minute to give my girl a ride?"

Worker A32:

"Now, I'm using it, so borrow somebody else's."

(The moral of all this is that we're all dirt diggers underneath.)

Picked up at Parents' Night

Parent:

"And little man, what are you going to be when you leave this school?"

Willy Emery:

"Who me? Oh, I'm going to be a policeman, and maybe some day the honor of Sergeant will be bestowed on me."

ADVANCED DRAMATICS CLUB

The advanced Dramatics Club voted to work on another play, although they probably will not present it in assembly, they will gain valuable practice by having the rehearsals during the club periods.
