This year’s Alumni Ball was resplendent with the Song of the South. A Paddlewheeler, a plantation, hooped skirts, and the Civil War, were all in evidence as the class of ’73 took this year’s theme from “Gone with the Wind”. The South shall Rise Again!
Senior Band

This year's senior band is made up of 9 people. Conducted by Mrs. York, and accompanied by Dr. York on piano and alumnus Jack Freele on trumpet, the band played everything from Dixie-land to Chopin.

Leon Aronowitz, Mary-Ann Aronowitz, Marc Aronson, Micheal Aveyard, Merle Bachman.
Overpowered by their percussion section, the junior band met during lunches and two additional periods each Friday.

Highlights were; a violinist, a tuba player, a saxophone player and the shortest gong and cymbals player in the world.

GREENHORNS
At the time of this writing, it’s December 20th, 1971, and the amount of knowledge I have about the Golf team is practically zilch. BUT... Our Golf team won the Central Hudson Valley League Section D Championship and beat all the section B, C and D schools. You might say that we have a very forward looking Golf team.

Our short but scrappy varsity players performed individually for the first part of the season, but jelled into a functioning team by mid-season. Led by the all-around play of George Khachadourian, the rebounding and scoring of Chap Hanley, Eric Schlamowitz, and Dennis Edwards, plus the coaching of Mr. Doug Phillips, made our team look forward to a successful sectional campaign.
This year’s Hoopsterettes were planning to play V.I., Girls’ Academy, Marylrose, Troy High, and several other schools. The close-knit team was hoping for a good season with the rebounding power of Patti and Steph, the scoring of Ann and Patti, and the overall playing of Slow-Motion Linda, Nancy the Fouler, Margi the Mauler, Mary T., Joanne Chocolate, and Merle the Maniac.

I don’t really remember what happened. I just remember finding myself in a souped-up Volkswagen on my way to the Bowling Alley. As fate would have it, the Milne team was bowling against Voorheesville at that very moment! Meandering down a gutter I shot a few pictures and came close to being a strike for Milne’s Captain. Luckily, I was saved by a gutter ball.

Library

We are the dedicated supporters of the Roman language and civilization. Through activities, guest speakers, and a trip to New York for museums, the Latin Club takes the Roman culture from the pages of textbook and verb chart, — thus proving that Latin is not dead; it is a civilization that can offer satisfaction and knowledge to anyone willing to explore among its ruins and through the many contributions to our present culture.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Milne:

The standards of behavior at Milne vary according to the age level of each student. We expect that our students will exhibit increasingly refined behavior as they gain experience and maturity.

Your child has received an "H" (Honors) mark in behavior on the report card for this quarter. The "H" indicates that in the judgment of the teacher and supervisor concerned your child's behavior is superior for students of this age level.

The items checked below are those which currently apply to your child:

- Acts courteously and cooperatively.
- Is considerate of others' rights and feelings.
- Displays exceptional leadership qualities.
- Meets obligations promptly.
- Uses study time efficiently.
- Prepares assignments with extra care.
- Seeks and carries out extra responsibilities.
- Shows enthusiasm for course activities.
- Demonstrates considerable ability to work independently.
- Explores areas of learning in depth beyond the level required.

Additional comments and/or explanations:

There is a wonderful girl who has fulfilled my hopes for her work and shows what I expected. It is a pleasure to have Jane in my class.

The 1971 Section 2 - Class D-E Championship team

Frank winning the sectionals

Led by the great cheering of the faithful fourful (namely Jon, Ellen, Ann, Margaret-Ann and an occasional Connie), the X-Country team ran into the end of the season with the League title and the Section 2, Class D-E Championship for the tenth straight year. "Gentleman"Perlmutter surprisingly skipped in first in his third meet (the Sectionals), and the strong, dashing, speed of "Leper" Slawsky, "Cross the River" Barker, "Puff" O'Neil, "Dancer" VandeKerkhove, "Wrong Way" Elsworth, Paul the Farmer, and "Canoefoot" Dunn made the faithful fourful (or fiveful) fantastically funfilled.
