MILNE FIVE BY 47-22 SCORE
LAST SATURDAY IN AWAY GAME

Milne High suffered her first defeat of the basketball season at Troy Country Day School, Saturday, January 14. The final score was 47-22, with Howard Rosenstein the high scorer. Several fouls were recorded for each team.

The lineup for Milne consisted of the following: Walter Simmons, Howard Rosenstein, Douglas MacHarg, Ralph Horvall, Richard Thompson, Frederick Dearstyne, and Osmond Smith. Captain Edwin Blockidge was unable to play due to illness.

More than half the spectators were composed of the visiting Milnites. The Milne cheering was led by Olive Vroiman and Betty Boyd. There will be no basketball game this week-end, the next game being scheduled for January 23, when the Milne quintet will meet Sharon Springs on the Page Hall court. Bring extra tickets!

PURCHASE OF NEW MILNE RADIO
WILL GIVE TO MILNE STUDENTS
CHANCE TO HEAR DAILY PROGRAM

Milne will soon be the possessor of a radio. Under the approval of Professor John M. Sayles, arrangements for its purchase have been made by Miss Katherine Wheeling. Mr. Carleton Moose will investigate the desirable features of several makes of radios and decide upon one of them.

The radio will be placed in room 105 and used at 2:30 due to the fact that Milne has no alma mater. The Hi-Y is offering a gold key to the writer of an original school song. This song has to be original both in words and music and written by a Milne student. The contestants must have their entries in by Friday, January 25, 1935. They will be judged in time to be used at the first basketball game of the second semester.

Who is the Irving Berlin of Milne High School? This will be disclosed when the winner of the Hi-Y Alma Mater contest is announced.

Praise is due that energetic and ambitious group of sophomore boys who, by their own efforts, drew up plans for and organized a new boys' club, designed especially for the discussion of current world problems. The name of the society, Theta Nu, was chosen out of respect for and deference to an old society which existed years ago in Milne. The society has already won the support and consent of the faculty and the Student Council and the first meeting as a recognized society was held last Tuesday in room 126 at 11:00, when Quin, Sigma, and Epsilon also meet.

Each week, then, we see new evidence of progress in Milne, new indications that the youth of Milne, of Albany, of America, of the whole world are not standing still, but are ever advancing onward.

SUPPORT THE TEAM!

In last week's basketball game, on Saturday, January 12, one thing we noticed with very great satisfaction was the excellent support which was given to the team by the members of the school.

No basketball team, no matter how good it is, can play its best without support. Milne, although it has a very good team this year, must support it if it is expected to show up well. In last week's game, most of the spectators were Milnites, and they gave the team excellent support. The team played a very good game, but, unfortunately, facing a team at full strength, they lost, 47-24.

Therefore, in the next game, on Friday, January 25, support the team to your utmost ability, and let's win and show Sharon Spa how good we really are.
The junior girls came into their own last Monday at 3:00, when they were victorious over the seniors in basketball by a score of 14-8. Two of the regular senior players were unable to be included in the line-up, Ruth Campbell and Irene Hawkins.

The score at the half was 4-8 in favor of the juniors. The junior line-up consisted of Barbara Birchenough, Ruth Mann, Jean Graham, Sally Ryan, Cora Randies, and Vivian Snyder. Elsbeth Fromm, Olive Vroman, Christine Ades, Helen Gibson, Marion Mallory, and Jean Combrinck-Graham made up the senior team. This game was the second in a series of championship contests.

Varsity try-outs, which have been held during the last two weeks, have resulted in the appointment of these senior high girls to the varsity basketball squad: Ades, Birchenough, Bulger, E. Fromm, J. Fromm, Gibson, Gillooly, J. Graham, J. C. Graham, Hawkins, Mann, Mc Dermott, Randies, Ryan, Wander, Sipperley, Shultes, and Snyder.

SIGMA:

The quotations of Sigma's literary program were from the works of Christopher Morley. There was no program as there was too much business on hand.

Sigma voted the Tri-Society dance to be semi-formal, but was overruled by the other societies. The list of the committees working on the dance was read.

QUIN:

A group of quotations by Oscar Wilde was given by Virginia McDermott. Mary Volk gave a biography of Robert Louis Stevenson. A list of the girls who handed in their acceptances was read.

A list of committees for the Tri-Society dance was also read and approved. A motion was made and carried that the dance should be informal and that the tickets should cost one dollar per couple.

ADELPHI:

President Ganson Taggart gave an interesting literary report, "Science Gets The Confession."

It was voted that the Tri-Society dance be informal, and the price $1.25. A suggestion was made that each society be assessed 24 tickets and that the money be distributed equally.

Last week's game was a sour apple to the Milne High School squad. It seems that Troy Country Day likes to get players who have graduated from other schools to play for them (meow). Oh well, better luck next time. The singing on the bus was peaches fine anyway.

There is a new craze in Milne High School these days, and it is called "Chessie in the Hallies." That is, two boys play chess in the hall while Professor John N. Styles looks on. It takes three good sports to play the game successfully. Figure it out for yourself.

Q. T. S. A.

Quin, Theta Nu, Sigma, Adelphi.

This year we can have a real Q. T. S. A. Dance. And you all know why. Now everyone in the school says:

"Lots of luck to Theta Nu,
That's just a wish from me to you."

Ques: Did you miss the Dribble Column last week?
Ans: Freshman - No, I never read it.
Soph - Yes, a happy miss that.
Junior - No, the paper was good.
Senior - Yes, it seemed good not to read the trite.
Sonny B. - Yes, it's a peach fine column and I love it.
You see someone has to like the column and it might just as well be (me) or (l).

I know for a fact that Harry (Ace) Witty was chasing Ely Hotaling around a hush last week with a water gun at the Edge of the Wood. (Some pun, eh Ray?)

G. A. C. DISCUSS DANCE

Discussion on the Hi-Y-G.A.C. Dance was postponed indefinitely when Edwin Blockidge announced the possible joining of Hi-Y Clubs of Milne and other schools of the Capital District for a dance.

Miss Margaret Hitchcock, athletic instructor, explained her plans for an afternoon bridge party for the mothers and a possible Mother-and-Daughter banquet. Changes were proposed concerning the girls' athletic awards, but action was deferred.

DR. CROASDALE ADDRESSES SENIORS

Dr. Carolyn Croadaske, of the New York State College for Teachers, spoke to a senior high school assembly at 11:00 on Wednesday, January 9. Her contribution was a story, "The High Places," written by herself. She was introduced by Kenneth Christian, a senior at the college.
