A play entitled "The Game of War" was presented by the 8-A social science class yesterday in Page Hall auditorium during assembly period. The cast included two boys; Edward Langwig and Robert Mason; their sister and a girl friend: Shirley Smith and Joan Hunting; War: Jerome Levitz; Peace: Robert Schamburger; Hate: Jack Westbrook; Envy: Ruth VanDusenbeck; Labor: Borden Mills; Liberty: Miriam Adams; Elaine Drooz was announcer and the play was directed by Miss Ames Torrens, of State College.

It was an original play written by Miss Torrens and Miss Lillian Shapiro.

SIGHT SAVING PROGRAM AGAIN ON FEBRUARY 18

Due to the fact that the picture machine broke down last Wednesday during joint assembly, the program was discontinued. On February 16 at 11 noon a speaker from the State Department of Health will again present the program on sight saving. The pictures will be shown to the Junior High School only.

COMING ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

"The assembly program for January 21st has just been scheduled for the Sub-Deb Club, announced Betty Schreiner, chairman. The January 21st program was originally set for the 7th English class; due to the absence of Fred Betzler, the star, the program was postponed until February 11th.

BOYS' ATTENTION!

Keeping in mind the dances that boys and girls of Milne Junior High will attend this winter, the Sub-Deb Club issues a warning: Boys, don't leave girls in the middle of the dance floor!
THE BETTER MOVIES

A great many of the children of Milne High School go to a movie without the least thought of what is playing there. One of the West's pictures or "King Kong" or some other picture, in my opinion, should not be seen by children and in such a case money is spent foolishly. When you go to a movie why not see what is playing, and find out whether you would like the picture, and whether it is fit for you to see? If not, wait until a decent picture comes to the theatre. A better picture will improve your education and mean more to your friends and yourself.

DON'T MISS THESE

To our question "What current movies do you think best for Milnites to see?" the faculty has answered with the following photoplays.

Miss Hayes suggests that you see "The Plainsman" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade".

Miss Anderson believes you'll enjoy Shirley Temple in "Stowaway" and "Rainbow on the River", featuring Bobby Breen.

Shakespeare plays are Miss Conklin's choice. They include the famous "Romeo and Juliet" and "As You Like It".

Miss Moore seems mighty sure you'll enjoy William Powell in "After the Thin Man" and Cecille de Mille's great picture "The Plainsman".

"Oh, say of the Light Brigade" and "Wintersot" were picked by Miss White.

Naturally Mr. Roley is thinking of his promotion when he says he's sure "Rembrandt" will be a great picture. He goes further to say he hopes you'll get to see "One in a Million", "The Informer" and "The Plainsman".

Mr. Raymond thought immediately of "The Plainsman" and "Romeo and Juliet".
I enjoy reading for pleasure, but when we are compelled to read dry things for homework or for class drill I don't get my enjoyment out of it. I like certain types of books, and do not like to be assigned special reading. I know that it is necessary to do some special for different subjects, and would not mind it if the books were well written. Many authors do not write books for help of the reader. A well written book of history or science would be of great help to our reading. These books are so hard to get that it makes such reading a hindrance to reading for pleasure. The only thing that can be done about this is to have all the departments go over the books, and pick the ones that will be the most benefit to the learning and enjoyment of the reader.

HUMOR

Postman: I sure am. I’ve been all over town looking for a guy named Pringle.
Woman: "How can I drive all without hitting my fingers?"
Salesman: "Hold the hammer in both hands.
Wife: "No, I did not sew a button on your trousers; I was too tired. Which is more important, my dear—your wife, or your trousers?"
Husb. p.d: "Well, there are places I can go without a wife."

Mrs. Fussoy: "Are you sure those are strictly fresh eggs?"
Grocer: "Certainly, madam. The farmer who brings them to me refuses to keep chickens which lay any other kind."

CHARACTER SKETCH

The character for this week has been chosen from the depths of homeroom 126. This person is very tall. He or she is quite unnoticeable to the seventh grade girls and spends most of his spare time drawing pictures of what the future may look like. He or she is in the B2 group.

All answers to this week’s character sketch are to be placed in the Crimson and White drawer in Miss Moore’s office with the name and homeroom number of the persons handing them in.

The answer to the sketch in the Christmas issue was Santa Claus of the North Pole.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Dr. Hooso can play cornet and clarinet?

That Kenneth Gypson of homeroom 130 had his birthday on Jan. 4, the same day we came back to school? (Nice birthday present, eh what?)

That there are 10 microscopes in Milsor?

That Donald Jones doesn’t dislike Lois anymore?
