Receptions Open Social Season October 18

Junior and Senior High Pupils To Welcome New Students At Informal Parties

The annual Junior High Reception, the first of Milne's social affairs for this year, will take place on Saturday, October 18th, to be followed by the Senior High Reception on the next Saturday, October 25th.

The Junior Dance will be conducted in the Page Hall Gym from 8:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M. and will be chaperoned by Mrs. J. J. Bartram, clothing instructor, Miss Evelyn Wells, Supervisor of Latin, and Dr. Wallace Taylor, Supervisor of Music.

Senior High Students will hold their reception from 8:30 P.M. to 12:00 P.M. in the Page Hall Gym. Chaperones for the affair are Miss Ethel Edwards, Librarian, Miss Anna L. Palmer, Supervisor of Mathematics, and Mr. John Kinseley, also of the Mathematics Department.

The orchestra and committees for the dances have not yet been announced.

Literary Societies Elect Officers

Officers of the three boys' societies in Milne, for the first semester of the season, have been announced this week and are as follows:

Adelphi Literary Society officers are: Charles Rosoff, President; Sanford Golden, Vice President; and Stanley Bull, Secretary.

Theta-Nu has elected Don Ponce as President. Other elections have not yet taken place.

Leaders of Phi Sigma Literary Society for the season are John Jane, President; John Poole, Vice President; Allyn Ely, Vice President; and Edward T. Ellis, Secretary.

Milne Adds Music Courses

Mr. Roy York Directs New Milne Music Department; Offer Band Choir Studies

The Department of Music, another step in Milne's policy of progressive education, has been inaugurated this fall under the direction of Mr. Roy York, newly appointed music instructor.

To the junior high school students the department offers elective courses in chorus and band. The class in band has begun with most of last year's members. It will play at all assemblies and perhaps at the basketball games. In addition to the daily classes, there will also be band practice on Monday and Wednesday at 3:30. Students unable to attend the regular classes may join the group at this time.

During the course of the year the band will purchase many new instruments which will include a tuba, trombone, French horn, oboe, and flute. The band will also have access to a pair of kettle drums that belong to State College.

In the junior high school, a required course in music for seventh graders has been added to the curriculum. In addition to the Music Club an extra-curricular organization for musically-minded Junior High Students.

Sixty-Eight Enter New Class of '48

Sixty-eight seventh graders formed the Milne class of '48 as they entered school Monday, September 22. They represent schools all over the Capital District. The new class has been placed in Homeroom 339 with Mrs. Anna Barsam, 329 with Miss May Fillingham, and 226 with Mr. James Cochrane as homeroom teachers.

New students have also been admitted to eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades. They are:

Seven New Supervisors Join Milne School Faculty

Greet Students At Assembly

Seven new supervisors and instructors have joined the faculty of the Milne School for Mr. Daniel Snader and Miss Margaret Hayes, who is a graduate of Oberlin College and University of Michigan. Mr. Boycheff served as instructor in athletics at Michigan before coming to Milne.

Acting as Director of Audio Visual Education is Dr. William H. Hartley, a former faculty member at the State University of New York at Oswego and at Teachers College in Patterson. Dr. Keyser, a graduate of Union University, received his M.A. from the University of Michigan before coming to teachers. Mr. John J. Kinsella, a senior high school teacher for the past ten years at Newburgh, is substituting for Mr. Daniel Snader as mathematics supervisor. He is a graduate of Williams College and State College for Teachers.

Mr. James C. Cochrane, now substituting for Mrs. Warren Denmore in the Department of English, has been teaching at Goshen High School for the past three years. He is a graduate of Williams College and State College for Teachers.

Dr. Robert W. Frederick, Jr., who has been teaching at Goshen High School for the past ten years at Newburgh, is substituting for Mrs. Daniel Snader as mathematics supervisor. He is a graduate of Williams College and State College for Teachers.

Kenney succeeds Hayes

Dr. Ralph B. Kenney succeeds Miss Margaret Hayes, now at State College, as Director of Guidance. Dr. Kenney, a graduate of Union College, received his M.A. from Teachers College and his Ph.D. from Yale University. He was executive secretary of the National Vocational Guidance Association and former managing editor of the magazine Occupation, before coming to Milne.

Mr. James C. Cochrane, now substituting for Mrs. Warren Denmore in the Department of English, has been teaching at Goshen High School for the past three years. He is a graduate of Williams College and State College for Teachers.

Mr. John J. Kinsella, a senior high school teacher for the past ten years at Newburgh, is substituting for Mr. Daniel Snader as mathematics supervisor. He is a graduate of Williams College and State College for Teachers.

Taylor to Address Delegates

Speaking on "Activities in the Social Studies," Dr. Wallace Taylor, Supervisor of Social Studies, will address the delegations to the Tri-County Conference in Oneonta on Friday, October 10.

We say "Hello"

Recognize us? Yes, it's the Crimson and White back again. But this season, we're all dressed up in printed form, and we're ready to give you the gol' darned best newspaper you've ever seen in Milne.

The old, antiquated mimeograph, torn stencils, and broken staplers are row things of the past. We're looking ahead, towards a greater, and grander weekly newspaper—the kind of publication every Milne student will be proud of.

You've given us this chance by granting us a larger appropriation, through an increase in Student Tax. We know how much that extra dollar means to you, and we don't think we're going to try our best to give you every penny's worth!

We made promises last June and we haven't forgotten them. We asked you for a fair chance, and you gave it to us.

We told you we would really "go to town" with a printed Crimson and White. And so we will.

A New Milne

Fifty-one years young! That's Milne. As we begin our fifty-second season, and as we look back at the few short years we have been here, the many progressive changes that have taken place, stare us right in the face.

Speaking of progress, this year seems to be just a cornerstone. It started in June, when Hi-Y presented the school a name plaque for the rear entrance, together with freshly painted locker rooms, and a bulletin board for the use of several of our counselors.

We know there is still room for improvement. We know our foreign language department is yet to be inaugurated.

But we know, too, that Milne is one of the most progressive secondary schools in New York State, and we're glad to call ourselves "Joe and Josie Milnite."

 depends on the viewpoint

Seventh grader—Upstairs—downstairs—wrong stairs—huh? That one fountain on the first floor certainly seems to be causing a lot of commotion and there's no two on the third floor. Wanting to know what end do the numbers start from? Could you please tell me where the annex is? Seventh graders stop there! eighth graders enter through the main entrance.

When will the first dance be? Will you wear a long dress? Aren't those ninth grade girls swell! Wish I had been up to see them last year. I'm not runnin' in the halls. Why do they call me a "little" seventh grader? I'm taller than Gretchen Phillips and she's a senior. Thena Nu what? Those senior high girls certainly are a large group. Wanting to know how much in the rest of your five for our sale. You could make a better buy. Upstairs—downstairs. Where are you running? Is that what draft does for you? That teacher has an expression as cold as the fish I caught last July. Only she looks worse—more fishy. They change the books every year, and this is the last one! I'm going out for football this year, girls. Seven cents for milk or a sandwich—that's defense for you. Do you think they'd let me sign in the chair? I have a B in English. That fifth floor, 204, 206, 212, which annex of 415, not again! Printed newspaper! Everything happens just when we'll have to leave. Even the girls separated by homerooms and things, and something—something separated them. Hope we win over three basketball games this year. Take the first turn to the left and you can't miss it. Not a fountain on the first floor! Anything can happen now!

Round Town With Lo-Lo

"That was the the best time I've had in ages," Priscilla Smith remarked after having spent one week on her vacation with eight other seniors at Marilyn Potter's summer camp. Mrs. Potter chaperoned the girls which included Marcia Blossom, Marian Horsten, Glenna Smith, Sally Hunt, Margaret Rodecker and Lois Ambler.

The rest of the school seemed to scatter themselves far and wide. June Black went to Canada, and Bill Soper and Ted DeMoss went out west, Nebraska and Wyoming.

Margie Wright and John Poole were fortunate to get counselors positions at camps while a great number of the students, such as Mimi Steinhardt, Melba Levine, Pat DeKouville and Chuck Cross were just plain campers.

Miriam Boise climbed practically all the mountains in Massachusetts. One day she lost her footing and fell out of a tree. What Mimi was doing up in a tree, no one knows.

There were a number of Milnites at the Scout camps. Johnny Farnum was at Camp Hawley and Sandy Bookstein was at Big Moose. There was a great number of summer jobs for the summer and became temporary breadwinners. Marcia Schifferdecker and Corrine Edwards are among those who have experienced their experience in general office work. John Jansing had a strenuous job with the hardwares and iron. A number of boys worked on farms.

Earlybirds in Milne

Quick With Student Tax

The Earlybird pays his tax! and quite a few have already done so. Jennifer Green, secretary to the principal.

Among pays with significantly numbered tickets are: Alvin Bingham No. 1; John Morrison, No. 5; David Golding, Walter Austin, Sidney Stein, Raymon Blanchard, Gerald Wolfgang, Sue Hoyt, Jack Underwood, Robert Beckett, Frank Belleville.

Alumni News

Here we are, starting another year at Milne and preparing another batch of alumni for next year. Does anyone remember that class of '41 have gone far and wide to continue their education, while some others are still attending either college or working.

Around this h'yar neck o' the woods you might see Margie Oade, Betty Nye, Lorraine Soper and Ted DeMoss, and Marge Weinberg at Mildred Elley, while Marilyn Tinner and Della Stover are making good at Michigan. It seems that they all are going out for football this year. Girls, listen up! Do you think they'd let me sign in the chair? You have a B in English. That last one, 204, 206, 212, which annex of 415, not again! Printed newspaper! Everything happens just when we'll have to leave. Even the girls separated by homerooms and things, and something—something separated them. Hope we win over three basketball games this year. Take the first turn to the left and you can't miss it. Not a fountain on the first floor! Anything can happen now!

Dedication

To Mr. Warren I. Densmore, without whose guidance and help, the printed paper would not be possible and to Miss Katherine E. Wheeling under whose supervision the Crimson and White was founded eleven years ago, we dedicates this, the first printed issue of the Crimson and White.

Child In School Or 20 Years After
by Marilyn Potter
On Monday, September 15, 1957, my young son entered the school here in Orange. Just a small boy, to me a definite child, to him a new world of big people and interesting things. The excitement prevailed throughout his whole being.

Watching him, I experienced the thrill and joy of such a moment. The impression is one of boundless surprise and excitement of my high school days. It was as though I were reliving the past through my own child.

Perhaps the most captivating and thrilling day of all was in September 1957 when I entered the seventh grade of Milne School. I was a stranger, eager and anticipating.

I remember vividly those friendly faces of my fellow students, as they stood, unusually, nearby, wondering, how in the world they would ever know any of the strange children around them.

Recalls Mistakes
I recall I made the horrible mistake of taking the stairs leading to the boys' locker room. With my embarrassment, I was hastily escorted out again.

It all seems like yesterday. The boys in knickers, and the girls in pleats, and hair ribbons.

Most of my eighth and ninth years were devoted to athletics. This was my second year at Milne, and I had always looked old and bored, but rather, young and equal. (I have no misgivings in my mind about that.)

Junior Year
My junior year was really quite the same as previous years, except for one thing—the boys seemed to be the aimless activity of the year, all year round. With my new interest, I was more interested in my study, and I was hoping to get into my own amusements, and my teacher's too. Another big important factor was that the seniors no longer looked old and bored, but rather, young and equal. (I have no misgivings in my mind about that.)

Senior Year
ders, John Knox, D. Pashland, Bob Warsch, John Doughs, Lee Arno¬
witz, Eugene St. Lewis, Robert Phinney, and Larry Foley.

John Jansing, '42
Heads Traffic Squad

Mr. Kooman Boyceff, Director of Boys' Athletics, announces that preliminary singles tennis matches for Junior and Senior boys will tentatively take place on Thursday, October 2. The second elimination will be played off on October 4, and the semi-finals are scheduled for October 6.

witz, Eugene St. Lewis, Robert Phinney, and Larry Foley.

Senior Girls Plan
Annual Fall Ride

The annual Hayride given each year by a group of Senior Milne girls, will take place Friday, October 3. All couples will meet at the cross¬ road in Delmar at 7:30 P.M., where the Senior Gym Committee will have a dance tent set up. The ride will begin at 8:00 P.M. and will be an annual event for the past two years, this being the third ride.

After the ride the couples will make their way to Mr. Priscillian's house where they will dance and have refreshments.

Those planning to attend are: Jim Dyer, '44, Mary Bennett, '43, June Black, Miriam Boice, Margaret, Eodecker, Joyce Hoopes, Martin Horton, Sally Hunt, Marilyn Potter, Glenna Smith, and Priscilla Smith.

Mr. Boyceff:
Pioneer of Boys' Sports in Milne

by "Bang"

I gained a very pleasant picture of Mr. Boyceff here," said Mr. Kooman Boyceff, the new, long-hoped-for boys athletic coach in Milne, during an interview in his new office. The school is pleased with the program now in operation and hopes to have a successful year under the guidance of the faculty and students.

The gym program is only tentative, Mr. Boyceff says, "but I will do as much as possible for the boys with the equipment on hand at the present time."

The coach's gym program during the winter will include calisthenics, tumbling, boxing, wrestling, and base ball. The hope is that every boy will benefit by exercise and exercise of some sort. He is going to do all in his power to see that every boy gets as much exercise as possible.

The varsity basketball squad will have a full schedule of sixteen games this year. Besides the practice sessions each afternoon, the squad will have practice games with other schools.

Interested in golf, Mr. Boyceff arranged a qualifying tournament at the Albany Municipal Golf Course on Saturday, September twenty-seventh at nine o'clock, for all boys. The coach also organized a team for the only class in which many boys will participate.

For several years, Milne boys have gained a reputation as golfers, playing many Capitol District schools. Surely, with the renewed interest in golf, a team for this season should be probable.

Game, Hecker
Win Golf Honors

Hal Game and Marvin Hecker, Juniors, captured honors in the junior golf tournament at Municipal Golf Course, last Saturday, September twenty-third at nine o'clock, for all boys. The coach also organized a team for the only class in which many boys will participate.

For several years, Milne boys have gained a reputation as golfers, playing many Capitol District schools. Surely, with the renewed interest in golf, a team for this season should be probable.

By way of exercise, the boys in the gym will try to maintain good procedure in the school and college buildings, classrooms, and other places, and those who will wear armbands for identification, have the authority to direct the students.

Seniors To Form Intramural Teams

In order to coordinate Physical Education into Senior boy's schedule, Coach Kooman Boyceff announces the formation of four intramural teams, each of which will play both football and soccer.

A meeting of all senior boys interested in playing the teams will be held Monday, October 6, at 3:30 in the Page Hall Gym.

Four similar intramural teams have been formed in each of the other classes of the school.

Tennis Matches
To Start Thursday

Mr. Kooman Boyceff, Director of Boys' Athletics, announces that preliminary singles tennis matches for Junior and Senior High boys will tentatively take place on Thursday, October 2. The second elimination will be played off on October 4, and the semi-finals are scheduled for October 6.

witz, Eugene St. Lewis, Robert Phinney, and Larry Foley.

No Senior Gym

Since the senior boys do not have any scheduled gym programs this year, Coach Boyceff is planning to form intramural teams and a touch football program. Boys in all classes may participate in this program, however. The idea is to get all boys, who do not otherwise get a chance for a gym class, to participate in some form of exercise.

Beauties to keep fit that every boy will benefit by exercise and exercise of some sort. He is going to do all in his power to see that every boy gets as much exercise as possible.

Mr. Roy York, Music Man, Enjoys Milne

by Eleanor Gutterson

"Music education is definitely beneficial to high school students," stated Mr. Roy York, new supervisor of music in the Milne School, during an interview at his desk in the Little Theatre.

However, Mr. York believes that the amount of benefit that a student derives from music instruction depends upon the student himself. "The student who enjoys the music courses very much is especially so in the ninth grade due to schedule difficulties. This is very beneficial to high school students," Mr. York stated.

Mr. Roy York, new supervisor of music, declared that anyone who is interested in music and who is not taking it now should be able to enroll at the time.

Mrs. Lehman Sends Letter

Mrs. J. J. Baram, instructor in clothing, received the following letter from Mrs. Herbert L. Lehman, President of Bundles for Britain, thanking her for the children's clothing the Home Economics classes in Milne have made, and which have been sent to England.

"Dear Mrs. Baram:

I want to thank you, and through you, the Home Economics class at Milne High School, for the children's clothing you made and sent to Britain for shipment to England.

It is perfectly splendid work, and I assure you that the Albany Chapter of Bundles for Britain is very grateful to you for your help.

Many, many thanks,

Vera on Wednesday evening.

EDITH A. LEHMAN.

Chairman.

Quinn, Zeta Sigma Meet Tuesday, Map Plans

Quintillian and Zeta Sigma Literary Societies conducted their first meetings of the year on Tuesday, September 23, at 3:30 P. M.

Nothing definite was decided in either society since the attendance was very small. However, in order to remedy this situation, Quinn held a map meeting, Tuesday, and pointed a committee of four to see Dr. Robert W. Fredericks, principal, concerning enforcement of attendance to meetings. The committee is as follows: Joyce Hoopes, Margaret Foderecker, Ethel Baldwin, and Lois Amber.

Joyce Hoopes, president of Quinn, stated: "I hope that the fact that the meetings will be held after school hours this year, will not hinder the attendance at meetings. I know that Quinn will have another successful year if everyone will cooperate."

The next society meeting will take place on Tuesday, October 7th at 3:30 P. M. Quintillian will meet in room 127 and Sigma, in room 130.

Pres. Alton Wilson Announces Meeting

Alton Wilson, president of Student Council, in his first weekly press conference, stated that organization leaders should start work soon on the preparation of itemized budgets of Student Association appropriations. These budgets are to be presented at a council meeting on October 8, before they are presented to the student body, at the annual budget assembly, which will take place at a later date.

"Groups should start planning their budgets now, and plan to be represented at the preliminary budget meeting," Wilson stated.
