OUR STUDENT COUNCIL

Where has the pride of Milne gone? Are we such children that we can't take care of a few responsibilities placed on our shoulders? Lately, in Student Council, the answer seems to be "Yes, we can't". Only a few days ago when one representative came into homeroom "X", he started to talk about the Field Day, and when he came to the part concerning the amount of money in the Council treasury, he stated they were not sure of the sum because the former treasurer did not keep track and had resigned. The inefficiency of the Council seems to increase more and more.

Also, why are the Student Council representatives electing themselves traffic officers? Is it to protect themselves from getting tickets and at the same time receive five extra service points besides the ten he gets for being on Council?

ARE WE DISHONEST?

Our roving reporter has noticed many unbelievable things about school, such as taking food out of the annex, but, worse of all, stealing it from the annex stands. We hope that we are not foolish enough to be tempted to steal as it is a habit which brings no good. We hope the guilty parties will read this and resist any temptation in the future.

CLASS TO ISSUE BOOKLET

The 7-D social study class is planning a booklet named "Guide to Recreation in Albany". On the committee are John Dyer, David Fuld, Doris Wegatske, and Helen Culp.

 CHARACTER SKETCH **

This week we pick a seventh grader. He or she has red hair, freckles, is a very good student in math, eats in the Annex, and has been absent recently.

Persons handling in the name of this individual are requested to put on the day and hour when the name is placed in the "Crimson and White" drawer.

Betty Miller, Ann Loucks, and Phyllis Reed guessed the last character correctly.

NEW CLUB ORGANIZED

A new after-school dancing club has been organized. The group meets every Tuesday in room 121 at 2:30 o'clock.

FIELD DAY AND THE BOY SCOUTS

"Do you think that the Field Day should be set for another day as nearly fifty boys of Milne are Boy Scouts and plan to attend their Pow-wow on June 6 and will not be able to attend the Field Day?" is the question the Roving Reporter has asked a number of Milne students this week. The answers were as follows; Leroy Smith, 227, no; Edna Corwin, 135, yes; Edward Meghreblian, 126, no; Martin Edwards, 135, yes; Carroll Boyce, 135, yes; Stanley Swift, 124, yes; Virginia Tripp, 226, yes; Charles Barnes, 121, yes; Arthur Bates, 121, yes; Sally Devereaux, 121, yes; and Suzanne Roberts 121, yes.

The majority of the people who said "yes" stated that those fifty boys pay their student tax but can never go because of the Pow-wow. The date should be set ahead or back to enable this group to attend both events.

The persons who said "no" mentioned that those fifty boys are really only one-eighth of Milne's total students and those comparatively few should not keep the rest from going on the date they had planned.
