Seventh Graders Promote Project

By PAUL COHEN

Members of the class of '56 plan to help the class of '57 to get a good start in Milne.

This idea was presented to Dr. Theodore H. Fossieck, principal, and was quickly approved.

Prize Snapshot
To Gain Award

"We, the members of the class of 1956 of the Milne School, in order to provide a fitting memorial for our late classmate, Paul Wolfgang..."

This is the beginning of the preamble to the memorial award.

How many of you really know what this award is? Paul Wolfgang was a member of the class of 1950, and he died in 1947. A year later his class made a memorial for him by way of this award.

Every year 5 dollars is awarded to the student submitting the best picture of general interest to the Bricks and Ivy. The picture will be given to, and voted upon, by the award committee.

The voting will take place March 2. Under the direction of Dr. Theodore H. Fossieck, principal, the committee includes the president of the junior and senior student councils, the director of the Audio-Visual Aids Department, and Mrs. Marion Madigan, art instructor.

The committee will keep the winner's name secret until the presentation of the award at commencement in June.

The snapshot box is in the hall outside the art room.

Younger Set Plans Junior High Affair

Arthur Melius, president of the junior high student council, announces that the council will sponsor a dance for the junior high this spring.

Seventh, eighth, and ninth graders will attend the affair to be held...
To the Editor of the Crimson and White:

As a Milne student, I resent the fact that we have as much time for homework in class (under the glorified name of supervised study) as we did with the former schedule. That is: none.

Of course there are exceptions. Of five courses I am taking, I have one only, sometimes two, classes in which any time at all is allowed for homework.

When the new schedule was introduced, it was stated, I believe, that there would be time for supervised study in all periods or classes. What happened to it? Is this fair?

A Milne Student,
(Name submitted)

After polling several Milnites (see a few answers in The Inquiring Reporter) we have concluded that the majority of students are in accord with the above letter; they are not allowed enough time for supervised study in school. A few conceded that one or two classes allotted study time, however.

In general, a plan for the supervision of homework is greatly favored by Milnites. They don't necessarily want exactly 20 minutes in each class, but they feel that a carefully scheduled lesson-plan could reserve enough time at the end of each period to start the day's assignment.

There was a small minority of students who voiced dissenting opinions. They felt that nothing is accomplished in supervised study.

From experience, we, personally, believe this to be a weak argument. If a program of supervised study fails to accomplish its purpose, who else is there to blame but each individual student? It's up to each of us to make such a program successful.

Perhaps by means of these letters, the matter will be brought to the attention of supervisors and student teachers. Perhaps less plans could be altered to allow a few minutes for study.

Now, Milnites, you've spoken and undoubtedly, you'll be heard; so let's show our faculty how well.

Milne Trims Kinderhook by 54-42; St. Peter's Rally at Saratoga Wins

Milne's Red Raiders travelled to Kinderhook to win their second game of the season by a 54-47 count over the Martin Van Buren high school quintet on February 10. Bob "Team of the Week" Mull starred for Milne as he grabbed many rebounds in a row to take and scored 19 points, 10 of them in the last quarter. Bogardus paced Kinderhook with 20 markers. Milne jumped into a 13-11 lead in the first quarter, but Kinderhook rallied to take a 24-22 edge at the half.

Lead Changes Ends
Returning from the intermission, Kinderhook increased its lead to 29-25 early in the third stanza. The Red Raiders rallied for five points in a row to take a 30-29 edge, but this lead was short-lived as the losers again went out in front. Milne forged back into the lead and held it until Van Buren tied the score at 36-36 late in the period. Milne scored again to lead the 38-36 margin as the third quarter ended.

Milne Clinches Game
The home team started off the fourth quarter by tying Milne 36-36. A foul shot by Bob Mull put Milne back into the lead, this time for good. With the score 41-40, Milne tallied six points in a row to take a more comfortable lead. Kinderhook struck back to within three points of Milne, but the Grogan men sewed up the contest to come to an end.

Milne J.V. Wins Overtime Game
Milne edged the J.V. game by nipping Kinderhook 42-41 in a thrilling two-point sudden death, double overtime game. The score at the end of regulation time was 37-37. After the first overtime period, at 38-38, Don Coombs and Buster Dodge paced Milne with 10 and 9 points respectively. Johnson was the high man for the visitors with 20 points.

St. Peter's Winner, 57-44
Milne absorbed a 57-44 defeat from St. Peter's in the fourth period at the leading at the end of the third quarter on the Saratoga court. Milne controlled both backboards but St. Peter's forged into a 14-11 lead at the quarter. Milne rallied to gain the lead at halftime, 27-25.

Red Raiders Cling To Lead
Returning from the intermission, Milne maintained its lead, holding a slim 36-37 edge as the fourth quarter began. Then the Red Raiders collapsed as the winners rallied to take the lead. Center Bob Mull led both teams with 18 markers. Jiggs Magline had 15 points for St. Peter's Saratoga.

Bill Wade paced the Milne J.V. to a 37-22 victory over the St. Peter's Jayvees as he scored 16 points.

Columbia High, Rensselaer Win

Milne dropped a Class C League encounter to Columbia high school, 66-47, on the East Greenbush school's court, February 17.

Both teams played evenly in the first stanza with the score standing 13-13 as the second quarter began. Near the end of the second period, sophomore guard Bunny Walker poured in three field goals in one minute, but it was to no avail as a big Columbia scoring spree spiced up the Blue and White quartet out front by a 40-26 margin at the intermission.

Milne Outscores Columbia
The home team increased their lead to 58-44 by the end of the third quarter. Columbia was out-scored by Milne, 13-8, in the final stanza. Bob Mull and Bunny Walker led the Milne attack with 13 and 10 points respectively. Johnson was high for the winners with 20 points.

Von Rensselaer Triumphs, 56-36

Van Rensselaer high school handed Milne a 56-36 defeat in a Class C League game on the Rams' court.

Cathedral Triumphs In Close Contest

Milne dropped a 65-60 decision to Cathedral academy in a thrill packed game on the Page Hall court, February 14, when a fourth-quarter rally fell short.

Late in the first quarter, Cathedral led Milne 18-8, but the Grogan men rallied for five points in a row to bring the score to 18-14 in favor of Cathedral at the end of the period. Milne came to within one point of the Elm Streeters early in the second quarter, but Cathedral pulled away to take a 30-26 lead at the half.

Milne Stages Big Rally
Milne rallied in the fourth quarter as they scored 12 points in succession to pull within three markers of Cathedral. With less than three minutes left in the game, Herberger of the visitors put in two foul shots to break Milne's scoring streak. Field goals for Milne by Ray Guerin and Bill Hayes left Milne trailing, 59-58. At the two minute mark, Milne lost the services of Dick Taylor, who left the game on fouls. Joe Burke, playing for Cathedral, sank five foul shots out of six to clinch the game for the visitors as time ran out.

Milne Players Hit Double Figures

Ray Guerin was high scorer for the Red Raiders with 16 points. Dick Taylor, Bob Mull, and Bill Hayes with 14, 13, and 12 points respectively, added the Milne cause. Jack Burke led Cathedral with 20 markers. The Grocan men lost the game from the foul line where they converted 16 free throws to Cathedral's 23 charity tosses. Milne out-

The M.G.A.A. and Home Economics Department jointly sponsored this in order that the student teachers might become acquainted with the Milne faculty. Miss Stein, Miss Tomlinson, Miss Tainter, Miss Kritzler, Miss Powell, assisted by members of the A. C. C. Council and girls in the Home Economics classes. Special thanks again go to Miss Tomlinson for so unselshishly making the coffee and tea.

By STUART CRAWSHAW

Most of us do not realize the importance of having a well-rounded personality. We do not realize how lucky we are to be going to a school such as Milne, where one has a chance to acquire a well-rounded personality. Some students go to school to learn how to be doctors, lawyers, or taxidermists. (A taxidermist is a man who kills and stuffs taxidermists.) Consequently, they do not have a well-rounded personality.

Red Suspenders

A doctor, or a lawyer or a taxidermist may make a lot of money and drive around in a Buick, but what if someone should come up to him on the street and ask, "Do you know why a fireman wears red suspenders?" What will they say? Why, they'll laugh and tell him to hold his pants up! Now anyone with a well-rounded personality knows that firemen don't wear suspenders. Such is the danger in not having a well-rounded personality.

Milne's Modern Methods

Now Milne has a multitude of activities where one learns a little bit about everything. These activities help the individual to have a well-rounded personality.

All subjects are taught predominantly by movies. The student is not subjected to homework. (This accounts for the extra classes in rooms 321, 228, and 123 every afternoon at Milne.)

Learn To Hold Tea Cup

Nowadays in school, one does not study the three Rs. One studies the implications of each R and derives from each. Also one studies social life. To have a well-rounded personality one must understand the importance of social life. The social student learns how to hold a tea cup with his little fingers extended at a 45-degree angle.

Trips are frequent activities. Recently one of the classes returned from a two months excursion to New York (all expenses paid by the social studies department) where they hit all the night spots and spent two weeks in the New York City jail studying the social customs of the inmates from an inmate's point of view.

Probably the most unique of all departments in Milne is the English department. This department is the first of all departments to be interested in helping one to have a well-rounded personality.

If an English student does not adjust himself satisfactorily to his environment, he is asked to leave the class. He does not find himself in one of the comfortable benches in the second floor corridor.

Lucky, Lucky Us

Thus with how good we are, how lucky we are in being able to go to Milne, where one is helped to acquire a well-rounded personality. (A well-rounded personality means a doctor, lawyer or taxidermist—a taxidermist is a man who weds the derms on taxis—does not have.)

Girl Scouts Sponsor Dance

Milne's Girl Scout troop 69 sponsored an informal Valentine's Day dance last Saturday in the State college lounge. The dance was held for the junior high student body from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

The troop, under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Young, decided that all profit from the dance shall go to the school yearbook, Bricks and Ivy.

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen of Hearts. Ann Crocker, eighth grader, was selected by the troop to reign as queen with her escort of the evening, Bruce Cargill, as king.

Music for the event was provided by vietrola. Coke was sold during the dance. The lounge was decorated in red and white, carrying out the Valentine theme. An added feature was an elimination dance.

Chaperons for the dance were Mrs. Anna Barsam of the Home Economics department and Mr. Albert Wood, music director.

Gardner Forms

Advanced Class

Dr. Randolph Gardner, mathematics supervisor has formed a new advanced algebra class at the request of Milne students.

Miss Elyne Howard, student teacher, meets the class "during period III. The course carries a half-year credit and advanced algebra students are eligible for the Regents examination in June.

Those enrolled in the class are: Doris Metzner, Keith Beswick, Harry Stevens, Maria de Sousa, Robert Tewell, Robert McClure, John Lucus, Russell Gritsch, George McManus and Bert Sackman.

Mr. John Ralph Tibbetts, guidance director, was selected by the troop to give the girls' hockey and basketball varisties a helping hand. Then, there's that little side issue of teaching. The seventh graders are used to her clowning by now, and she and her audience always... class... get along famously.

George! Where have we heard that little phrase before?

Precious Cocksley maid steals show in Broadway hit.

Hadn't you guessed that Edith Cross (happiness mingled with hilarity) was the sole solution of our nonsense puzzle?

Sigma Triumphant

Sigma, for the third consecutive year, emerged victorious in the annual bowling clash with Quinn. Total averages were: Sigma, 103.5; Quinn, 97.2.

Mary Phillips, Barbara Van Dyke, and Mary Alice Leece were the Sigma high scorers, while Doris Mehun took the honors for Quinn.

HAROLD VINE

Do you like to play guessing games? Well, here's one to make your brain start ticking.

Starting his musical career in his seventh grade, he has been a member of the Milne band ever since then. This year he is president of the organization. Holding the office of president of the music council, he has been in the Milne choir in past years. Any clues yet?

Joining Theseeum in his sophomore year he has shown his activeness by becoming the vice-president of that society.

Also busy on the Bricks and Ivy staff, he now is the business manager of that publication.

Remembering that "man's election of student council officers" this lucky fellow won the honor of treasurer of the student council. Basketball is doing a very fine job at it, too.

After commencement he hopes to attend the University of Rochester to study in the field of science.

Have you guessed who it is yet? Time's up, so I will tell you. It is our one and only Harold Vine.
