MILNITES ASSUME OFFICIAL POSITION FOR YOUTH WEEK

Representing Milne at a special meeting today of the National Youth Week in Albany will be Betty Barden, Ben Douglas, and John Gulan. Janet Clark, a senior, representing the Albany City Youth Council, spoke at a luncheon Wednesday of the Albany Exchange Club as a part of the Youth Week program.

The three delegates from Milne today will fill some governmental positions of the City of Albany. They will go to the Governor's hearing room in the State Capitol at three o'clock to meet with other youth who are Albany's officials for the day.

The Y.M.C.A. sponsors annually the Youth Week program, and aims to publicize youth movements in the nation.

JUNIORS PLAN TRAVEL HOP

Traveling is the theme which the Junior class will feature at its spring informal dance, scheduled for May 27 from nine until twelve o'clock.

The class has voted to assess each Junior a ticket, twenty-five cents. A nickelodeon will furnish the music.

Athletic Club Plans Dinner

G.A.C. has chosen May 20 as the date of their annual banquet. It will be in the Wellington Hotel. Nancy Glass is general chairman, and Bette Mitcher, mistress of ceremonies. The placecard committee consists of Lillian Eley- skimer, Virginia Nichols, Betty Ederiner, and Dorothy Shattuck.

The highlight of the evening will be the announcement of election results for next year's president. The nominees are Alora Eeik, Margaret Chase, Sally Devereux, Betty Schreiner, and Jacqueline Townsend. The election will be by secret ballot at the next meeting.

OUTINGS FUTURE AND PAST

Oen and Sigma are starting something new this year by having a joint outing. They have set the date as May 27, and the place as Thatcher Park.

The Sigma outing will be June 3 at White's Beach and G.A.C. will go there as a group on June 24.

 Theta Xi had its Spring outing for the new members last Saturday at Thatcher Park. Baseball and hiking made up the entertainment.

MILNE MOURNS ALUMNI

The tragic death of Douglas Mac Harg affected Milne deeply. "Doug" was graduated from Milne with the class of 1936, and was a junior this year at Colgate University.

While in high school, "Doug" was prominent in many phases of school activities. Within the memory of our Senior High, he captained the Milne basketball team, gained through his hard work a scholarship to Adelphi, President Club, and Varsity and secretary of Athletic Council. He was also a class officer and took part in the Christmas Fays andrama President. As a junior, "Doug" was an usher at Class Night.

PERSOINALS

Virginia Brown, formerly of Milne, has returned from Hamden Connecticut after living there for two years. She is a junior in Homeroom 329, and a member of Quintillian Literary Society.

Appendectomies have kept Elaine Becker and Mildred Spector, Sophomores, out of school recently. Although Elaine has returned, Mildred is still recuperating.
my dear friends

I am visiting New York for the World's Fair and although it is my earnest desire to voyage up the Hudson to renew my friendships in Milne High School and again sample the tasty fiber of the journalism desk I fear that my duties in connection with the English exhibit will prevent any such excursion I have that the annual Q T A is scheduled for May 12, ah what a marvelous evening I enjoyed last year at that dance I remember that I favored allen and my company I suppose most of the Milne romoes have already secured what is known as a date for that event, but there is still time and there are still pretty girls available for you bashful chaps really you jelly well can't miss this affair you know well I was chowing on an excellent etiquette book the other day and I intend to search for this delicious volume again so as to render your milites a few timely suggestions for next Friday night I hope some of my old friends will stop by to see me at the World's Fair even a termite becomes weary of chewing only wood and longs to chew the fat with a pleasant companion cheerio

With utmost affection
Timothy Termite

P.S. I shall send you a recent portrait of myself next week

LOSE SOMETHING?

The Lost and Found drawer at the main office is now crowded with almost every sort of thing imaginable. Among the found articles are: brown suit coat, pins, pens, pencils, keys, and many other novelties. Miss Solomon wishes that anyone who lost any of their possessions would please come and claim them, for the drawer is becoming stuffed.

Practically every civilized country will have exhibits depicting its national life, and foremost American industries will sponsor displays, many of which cost thousands of dollars. These displays will produce before the eyes of the onlooker the products which have become household words in every American home.

One may see at the Fair displays and men's ideas in visible form, which will influence design and living in this country for many years to come. It is an opportunity that no student can afford to miss. Go to the World's Fair!
Richard Warren Paland, of 14 Cardinal Avenue, is our second sportsman under the spotlight.

"Dick" stands five feet nine and one half inches near the ceiling, and weighs one hundred and forty five pounds.

"Dick" has gone to Milno six years and is the only senior who has been on the basketball team for three years. Last year he captained our Milno basketballers through the season. He plays right forward on the basketball team and is now representing the school as an outfielder on the baseball team. "Dick" batting for last year was .321, several of these being home runs.

Richard is a member of Adelphoi, in the society he holds the position of vice-president.

"Dick" has deep blue eyes and wavy brown hair. He is eighteen years old. His hobby is photography and all sports.

"Dick" is also vice-president of Milno and prefers "blonds, brunettes, and redheads, to boldheaded girls."

In professional ball he likes Brooklyn in Ford Frick's league and sincerely believes they can take the national pennant. In the American League the Fenway Millionaires, or Boston Red Sox, hold his preference.

"Dick" leaves Milno this June and expects to go to Brown University.

Next Week - "Johnnie" Fink

The annual horseshow given by the Milno students who take horseback riding will be presented on Friday, May 19, at Troop B Armory on New Scotland Avenue. The events will start at one o'clock and will include competition in seat and hands, sets of three, and jumping. These are all to be judged and prizes awarded.

The president of the class Sally Beveridge will lead. Those taking part are Marion Wieler, Marjorie Gade, Elaine Bookor, June Davis, Rita Trevarasky, Doris Spearer, Marion Steinhardt, Marjorie Wright, Marie Lovino, Etelico Mann, Barry Bookor, and Edith Cumshaw.

The pro-base lineup is as follows:

Catcher - Kirk Loaning
Pitcher - Donald Gissel
1st Base - Robert Stevenson
2nd Base - Charles Locke
3rd Base - Dick Paland
Short Stop - John Fink
Right Field - Clifford Lunts
Center Fielder - Alton Wilson

This afternoon, weather permitting, the Milno Boys' Tennis Team will open a very full schedule by playing a match with Mount Pleasant High School at Ridgefield Park.

The Mount Pleasant team of Schenectady is considered a good aggregation. Consequently, the opening game is considered to be a tough test for the Milno team. This year's team will be headed by two veterans of last year, Captain Earl Godrich and George Scovill. Those two players will be number one and two men in the singles competition and will probably be matched together in doubles playing.

"In the past years there has not been much interest shown by the Milno students in tennis matches," expressed Earl Godrich. He also added, "I hope that there will be a large turnout this year as the matches promise to be interesting."
School-days, school-days........you were sixteen, my village queen so lovely

When the Christmas plays) "Ladies and gentlemen for your pleasure, we present-- the amazing story of the difficulties of one royal family in Egypt. The role of the aspiring young princess is played by

If that's too deep for you, don't give up yet, because it all ties in with the simple little fact that the little queen is stepping to the fancy Q.T.S.A. with none other than Robert Wooler.

The fate of the majority of junior girls appears to be remaining undecided. Can it be our would-be escorts are too timid to do, that can't be. One lolly-pop will be given for the best answer to the alluring question.

Those numerous chal-really! and good coming from the sophomores side of the girls' locker room may be caused by the anticipation of the on-coming fall sponsored by Q.S.A. "Harri" Gale almost always needs a drink after giving an occasion on whether or not she's glad to be going.

The excitement, however, is not (ah definitely not) confined to the sophs. Jean "Toodles" Best looks very coy as she says "it's been almost a year! Betty Barden promises to show how the Milne girls can step and we do mean step!"

That glamorous miss, Betty Furman, will undoubtedly be showing "Millard" Pfifer that he's not the only star in her blue heaven by graciously allowing another little lad to escort her to the Q.T.S.A.

No doubt the dance occurring on May 12 (sometimes nick-named the Quin-Theta-Mu-Sigma-Adelphi) will be quite some affair.

No doubt there will be some people there, many of whom will come from other schools, no doubt.

Barbara Thompson, who has repeatedly announced "We're moving to Cleveland", left for the West last Sunday. If you have thought you noticed her around school last week, don't be alarmed, you undoubtedly did, and no doubt about it.

No doubt the horse show, an event of the future, will be quite amusing. The girls all looked their prettiest last Monday when they had their picture taken.

No doubt Ira Moore bequeathed his Adelphi pin to an innocent "ill" junior. If in doubt, cast a glance around the hall any time up to one-half second before classes resume.

No doubt the teachers, especially those of the seventh and eighth graders, will soon have a large collection of balls—with and without elastic, ropes, and marbles.

Back to the dance, no doubt there may be several couples whom we have all noticed at some other affairs present.

One or two of those might include Doris and Gifford, possibly Hoyt and Nicky, and perhaps Millie and Joe; of course, this is all very vague and the entire thing is subject to change. No doubt! !

Maeve was the fairest of them, at the beach that year, and was always seen in the company of Harrison, her proud escort. Her slim white body was a vivid comparison to the swarthy tanned bodies of the boys who had to swim their hardest to keep up with her. No matter how early the boys got up, Maeve was always in the water before them, and with Harrison. It was strange, her devotion for him, for he was not a Hercules or even a Bob Taylor; still, she was always with him. Several times she had "gone out" with other lads on the beach, but never seriously.

Harrison was rightly pined of her for she was a beautiful girl.
A FEELING FOR YOUR THOUGHTS!

Tra-la, tra-la in the spring tra-la. Ah yes, spring again. Can't you tell it by the dreamy Milnite faces?

Speaking of dreams, most of the Milne girls have been thinking of presenting the*Hulda* since they saw it at State College the other night. They can't get over the scene in which Hanki-Poo demonstrated his love for Yum-Yum. The only difficulty is that all the girls want to play Yum-Yum. Hanki-Poo? Well. Johnny (Tyrone Power) think has joined the Glee Club!

It must be that spring fever has infected the Milnite for we hear that Al Metz is keeping an active correspondence with a Saint Agnes lassie.

Cometh the day and also the Q. T. Cometh the Q. T. and also worry. It seems that the life of the Milne "girlies" runs like this:

Seniors—worried!
Juniors—disgusted!
Sophomores—wondering!

PRIZE GIVERS

It was Mark Twain who said, "The funniest joke is the truth," but, confidentially, we doubt it since here are some true class "cracks:"

Jack Mac Gowan:---and this is true according to Mein Kampf.

Jane Phillips: Your what?

Student: and I looked and looked in the Harsmans and all I could find was information on little fires.

Teacher: That wasn't so hot, was it?

The Comment, Liberty High School's paper, has a birthday column, which includes a little horoscope for all students having birthdays during that month and lists their names.

The Algolian from Rome, New York, has a columnist who writes under the " pseudonym" of The Lone Ranger, Hi-o Silver!

"Serious last words" is a feature column in Green-Gold Echoes from Tonkara, N. Y. This week's note:

"To I didn't do my homework; I want to see a show instead."

Do you know that your handwriting reveals about you? Are you a man or a mouse-woman or worm? Let us search into the private lives (well, fairly private) of several Milnites. We shall unveil deep, dark secrets about these people.

First let us examine the handwriting of Shirley Baldwin:

Shirley Baldwin

Notice the well formed S which denotes dramatic ability. See how it curves in such an artistic manner. Follow the next letters until you come to Y. This shows much practice, the solution-Plane Geometry, where Miss Baldwin sits and says why all period. Ah, now in the B we see a lingering touch—now why Bob-oh yes, Bob-Bob-Bob! The rounded H relates that Shirley is a scholar.

This should prove interesting. Here is the "John Hancock" of that super, super man. You know who we mean—

Robert Y. Gardner

See how the writing sprawls, just like Bob's. The fancy T proves him to be man about town. The shrunken M with the definite period shows that he is very careful of small details. The large G relates—alas, how shall I say it—that he likes girls. The R followed by a sweeping curved stroke which curls at the end says—speaking and executive ability.

Another senior and a pretty one too—

Una Underwood

Notice the repetition of U's. This shows she has a fondness for U's. In other words, she not only likes Union men, but everyone. The H shows a bit of pugnastic attitude like she might say grrr a great deal. Oh, she must have a brother! Well, gee, we know that—the revealer—Kay Newton.

Well, we must toddle along now. Remember, watch your a's and b's, and especially q't's.

TAINT' FURRY

English Teacher—Use elide in a sentence.

Bette Tinchier—He told me he loved me, but oh how elide.

Joe Ludden—What's your girl's favorite sport?

Joe Clarkweather—Fishing. She can swing a nasty line, and right now she's trying to hook me.
