Senior High Dance Set for Tonight
In College Lounge
Poole, Chairman, Secures Grettan’s Band for Dance

The Senior High mid-season dance is definitely scheduled for Friday, February 27, from 9 to 12, and it is announced that John Poole, '42, chairman of the event.

The dance will be in the Lounge. The vote in the homeroom as to whether the dance will be formal or a sweater dance, resulted in informal winning, 67 to 31.

Edward Bookstein, '43, is chairman of the orchestra committee, which is comprised of Margarette Hunt, '43, and Richard Bates, '43. Bill Grettan and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Gerald Plunkett, '42, is chairman of the publicity committee. All students desiring guest tickets may receive them from their student council representatives.

Miss Grace Martin, Miss Mildred Nielson, Mr. Harlan W. Raymond, and Dr. Ralph Kenny will chaperone the affair.

Alton Wilson, president of Student Council, joined with Poole in saying, "We hope that all will follow Dr. Frederick’s suggestion that all Milnites appear at the dance!"

Seniors, Juniors Welcome Parents

The parents of the junior and senior class members were guests of the senior school faculty at a Parents’ Night program on Thursday, February 26, in the Milne library.

A discussion of the problems of curricular work in school, speed-up in curricular work, college entrance and the effect of the war in college, and the significance of the war for high school students, was led by Dr. Robert W. Fredrick, principal; Dr. Ralph B. Kenny, director of guidance, and Mr. Paul G. Bulger, assistant principal.

After the discussion, a tour of the school was made with the faculty. This was to acquaint the parents with the school and also to keep them from wandering by themselves and getting lost. It also avoided crowding. They were shown the classrooms, shop gym, and other parts of Milne.

A similar program will be had for the other classes of Milne in future weeks.

Milne Blacks Out For War Time

"The War has come to Milne," stated Dr. Robert W. Frederick, principal, during his interview in his office this week. Dr. Frederick explained that since there will be no moreOfficial work in the same procedure is being used for the gym.

"In the event of a blackout during a period of English, the students must be instructed to be quiet, stand still, and listen to directions. If, for instance, a blue light should occur during the course of a dance held in the Lounge, students will have to pass through the blacked out halls and stairways in order to reach the auditorium.

Because of this situation, members of the Milne traffic squad will take posts at different points, man the doors, and take charge of the lights. In addition to the regular members of the squad, an equal number of girls will be appointed to fill in for work."

John Jansing, captain of the traffic squad, and Mr. Paul G. Bulger, assistant principal, will work with Alton Wilson, president of the Student Council, in planning the list of new members to the squad, and its duties.

Students to Attend New York Convention

The final delegation of Milne students who will attend the eighteenth annual convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in Columbia University in New York City on March 12, 13, and 14, has been released.

The list is as follows: June Black, Miriam Boice, Corrine Edwards, Robert Kohn, Walter Grace, Bernard Goldberg, Marcia Schifferdecker, and Sidney Stein, seniors; Melissa Levine, Natalie Mann, and John Morrison, juniors.

Mr. James E. Cochran, supervisor of English, will chaperone the trip, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Cochran.

Delegates were to discuss plans on Wednesday, February 25 at 8:15 A.M. Details of the trip such as lodging, programs, etc., will be released at a later date.

Hoopes ’42, Announces Heads of Committees For Library Mural Drive

The eighth annual mother’s card party, sponsored by the Student Council, is to take place on Friday, March 6, from 3:00 to 5:00. The card party under the chairmanship of Joyce Hocpess is held each year to help buy the murals painted by David Lithgow, which adorn the library.

Miss Hoopes, with the cooperation of Mrs. Anna K. Barsam, faculty adviser, and Alton Wilson, '42, Student Council president, has announced the following committees to help plan the card party.

Gerald Plunkett is in charge of publicity. Marilyn Potter is assisting him by making art posters advertising the event.

Sidney Stein is in charge of securing tables. Each mother is asked to bring playing cards.

Refreshment Committees

Corrine Edwards is in charge of refreshments. Lois Wilson is to be in charge of the Milnites. Marcia Bisskummer and Glenna Smith are co-chairmen of the candy committee. Lois Ambler and Robert Lee are in charge of the food table where various things will be on sale.

Rita Pigarsky and Marcia Schifferdecker are to be hostesses at the card party. Miss Pigarsky is designing tables for the event. Margaret Hodecker has charge of prizes to be presented to the winners of the games. Prizes are to be in the form of defense stamps in booklets.

Ellen Wilbach and John Wilson are chairmen of the clean-up committee.

Sigma Initiates New Members

The Zeta Sigma Literary Society initiated fourteen sophomores and two juniors on February 17 in the College Lounge.

Alice Van Gaasbeek, mistress of ceremonies, planned the program, and was aided by the whole society and various other chairmen of committees in carrying out her well-chosen program. This program was high-lighted by the huge supply of Coca-Cola, sandwiches, and potato-chips.

"The Society as a whole cooperated very well in contributing food and their time to make the initiation a huge success," stated Miriam Boice, president of Sigma.

The new members are Frances Morin, Janice O’Connell, Sue Hoyt, Jean Dorsey, Jean Figarsky, Ruth Short, Joyce Stanton, Anna Jane Rockensytre, Wilma French, Patricia Pearson, Nancy Knapp, Mary Foster, Betty Lou Terry, Dorothy Chauaney, sophomores; and Ellen Lege and Janet Taylor, juniors.

Miss Thelma Eaton, librarian and adviser to Zeta Sigma, was the chaperone. Due to the Mother’s Tea in the home economics rooms, Miss A. May Fillingham, instructor in cooking, is the homeroom teacher.

Student Council to Sponsor Card Party on March Sixth

Junior High Forms A Club Council

The formation of a Club Council to coordinate activities of all Junior School clubs, was announced for the first time when the council met on Wednesday afternoon, February 25 at 3:00. The council has been formed to give students a voice in the running of their clubs, and is under the campus direction of Miss Winifred Bee and the sponsorship of Mr. Paul G. Bulger, assistant principal.

Each club has elected a delegate to the council, which will meet at specific intervals. The delegates elected Ruth Walsh, '43, president.

It was announced that all members in Junior School clubs will receive membership cards in the near future. Printed membership certificates are to be granted to all clubs later in the semester.

Until he is called he will continue to meet twice a week for courses in naval history, spherical geometry, and naval tradition.
Senior Spotlight

Joyce Hoopes

As president of Quin, a member of the editorial staff of the Crimson and White, and at present, chairman of the Homecoming Committee, Joyce Hoopes, 42, really is kept pretty busy.

But Joyce just takes a hectic day here and there that usually begins with an hour conference with Dr. Frederick concerning the Quin Sigma delegate with a student, a friendly chat with Mrs. Barsam as to who will be on what committee, or an attempt to deal with a student with a friendly word for everyone.

Since coming to Milne in her freshman year from Toledo, Ohio, "Juice" (her pet nickname) has this to say concerning her new Alma Mater.

"At first, I felt strange and alone when I came to Milne. I guess it was because I didn't know anyone. Now I think the school and the kids are tops—everyone."

Joyce always has a smile and a friendly word for everyone.

Improve Again

Fellow Milnites study, don't complain about not having night activities. We would all feel pretty badly about the cancellation of the Quin-Sigma and basketball games among other things, but cutting out night activities is the least we could do to help win the war. We all want a free country so we will always have a democratic school, such as this, that's a long way off," states Joyce.

Open Letter

Dear Milnites,

As I recall my former newspaper days at Milne, I well remember the tedious efforts of the Alumni editor to obtain letters or news. Therefore, I am sending this letter to you.

There really isn't too much to say about Geneseo. We have, as did Milne, our sorority dances and parties, entertainments of all kinds and many extra-curricular activities.

Student body isn't large, being only about 430 this year, so that our classes are small. Needless to say, this requires a great deal more preparation.

Being on the Lamron staff is really fun. Of course, everyone has to work hard, but our correspondents over-rule this. Perhaps the most interesting time to be on the staff is around election time. When the Columbia Scholastic Press Convention is causing quite a commotion around school, and we certainly do envy those who are going. We expect a full report when they return. We feel awful sorry for those boys who are being initiated into Theta-Nu, Adelphi, and Phi Sigma, but yet, we still think they don't mind as much as they try to make out. It looks like a lot of fun! . . .

"Plash! . . . Harry Culp has the mumps now!

The boys are a bit slow as usual when it comes to dances and sporting events. Months in advance for the Quin-Sigma and the boys are still undecided about tonight's dance. . . . Among those going are Mickey Baldwin, Warren Lamrock, Bob Ball, Glennna Smith, John Wilson, Meg Huntington, Chuck Cross, Billy and Dunc, June Black, Hal Game, Janice O'Connell, Tom Dyer, Melba Levine, Mary Hecker, Anna Jane and Arden Flint, Jeanne French, George Perkins, and one or two others. The game's being in the afternoon, so very few soles and great section work.

"Oh, that was a wonderful game!" "Didn't they play well?" were some of the remarks made by the students who were present at the game between the Milnites and the Lamron. The afternoon didn't lessen the number of the students present, for Dr. Sayles, Dr. Frederick, Mr. Bulger and a few parents were seen viewing the game from the balcony. But the Milnites were too down-hearted to say anything and those were her own words. After all, who wouldn't be? Since the game was in the afternoon the girls didn't have any basketball so there are no wins or losses to record here.

The result of the game Friday must have put some real fighting in the boys, for Saturday they really went to town with a whole bus-load of rooters to back them up! The Wappingers Falls bus was filled to the brim, but of course the ride back held a few different faces than the ride down did. . . . Oh well, that's only to be expected! Coming back the old sleuths saw Barbara MacMahon and George Edick, Dottie Hoopes and Chuck Hopkins, June Bailey and Hal Game, Janice O'Connell and Tom Dyer, Joyce Hoopes and John Jansing, Ann Robinson and John Poole, Shirley Coburn, Fred Detwiler, and Laurel Ulrich and Sanford Golden.

What a gang, but we couldn't leave anyone out.

The bills are still flying, and the girls want to have them. Good luck! The rest of the dances are rather doubtful, but keep your fingers crossed and maybe we'll have a great time. . . . It looks like a lot of fun! . . .

The Milne quintet finished the Wappingers Falls game five on the opponent's court last Saturday. The final score of the game was 44 to 14. This is one of the largest scores that the Red Raiders have rolled up on an opponent this season.

John Jansing led the Milne attack with a high total of 17 points. The Red Raiders had complete control in taking their eighth win in 14 games.

The Junior Varsity downed the Wappingers Falls JV by the score of 28 to 12. High scorer for the Milne Junior was Harvey Holmes with 7 points.

This was the 11th victory for the Milne Jayvee against only 3 losses.

The Milne varsity fought valiantly in going down to defeat at the hands of a sharp-shooting Falcon squad last Friday afternoon. It was an exciting game throughout the with the score see-sawing first in our favor and then in Schuyler's.

This was one of our top engagements of the season and the team fought with fury. Clarke and Wilson were put out of the game on fouls fairly early in the fray. The remaining starters and the men on the second string continued to vie with the south end aggregation.

Game played in beautiful ball in rolling up eight points to tie for scoring honors with Swartz, who hit the mark from the free-throw line. As usual people who went on the bus are worried that they are now exposed.

Have you heard all the things that have been happening this past week? Well, I've heard a few so here goes—

The trip to Wappingers Falls was quite a success. It was well supported and a very exciting game to watch as Johnny Jansing sank long shot after long shot, to make the amazing total of seventeen points to make him high scorer. Johnny was still recovering from this feat on Monday as he was absent from school. Also an high-light of the trip back was "Denny" Flint's declaration of horror when he discovered he was chocking from carbon monoxide gas. "Stop the bus!" cried Denny—but as usual people didn't pay any attention to Denny.

The fellows in the three boys' societies are sure being hard on the new pledges. Any time you want proof of this statement just drop over to the annex or cafeteria at lunchtime and you will see a great sight. Jack Casmer experienced a new feeling, when he was forced to eat his lunch blind-folded by his sweter.

Speaking of initiations—the Sigma girls certainly took a lot out of those new members—Eileen Legge was caught remarking, "What did they do to you? They certainly picked on me." Now Eileen, it was all in fun.

Too Much to Eat

A few of the fellows on the team profiled by the initiation though—they mumbled the "lee box". What mean the "cole" and sandwiches. My, my, boys certainly can eat a lot—for that matter, Alice, Glenna, Fris, Mar, and Corrinne found it rather hard work to eat any dinner after their little snack after the initiation. When they left the Lounge we wondered if they would survive the next day. They all arrived in school however.

Did you know Harry Culp has the mumps? Well, it's true. Many people who went on the bus are worried that they are now exposed.

Our cheerleading squads certainly showed up well at Wappingers Falls. The girls have been having more practices lately—it certainly helps.

Defense Stamp Sale Is Lagging At Halfway Mark

$5,000 Goal Due April 2; Students Not Cooperating

Milne students are not doing their part in the war effort. Six weeks ago a campaign was begun in Milne to raise money for Uncle Sam through the sale of Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps. The goal for the campaign is $5,000 to be raised by April first, only four weeks from now. As yet, with three-fifths of the time gone, the drive has not yet reached the halfway mark of $2,500.

"The sale of Bonds and Stamps is definitely lagging," said Richard Bates, chairman of the committee supervising the campaign. "Five thousand dollars may seem like a lot but compared to the amount our government needs and to the amount we really could contribute, we find it very, very small. More than half our time is gone, and we have not even reached the halfway mark. This means that if we are to achieve our goal, every student will have to cooperate to the fullest degree. Most of us have the money but just haven't got around to buying stamps yet. Stop and think for a moment how much your government needs and to the extent of which you possibly can and pitch in to help your country.

After April first, a new system may be adopted. In the new system, students would buy saving stamps every other Wednesday instead of banking.
