In this week's issue:

Adoption of Standard College Point System Suggested

At Conference Attended by Two State College Delegates

Lorena Shaffer and Georgianna Maar attended as delegates to the Standard College Athletic association, at Wellesley college, April 16, 17, 18. The first meeting was a series of speeches on the past and present Athletic Conferences of American Woman College.

At the discussion held Friday afternoon at Shakespeare, the more practical problems were taken up. Miss Appley, an Englishwoman who originated field hockey in this country, spoke of the responsibility of college women, not only in keeping their own love of hockey, but in imparting it to others.

The conclusion of interest justifies the existence of the athletic association. The theme, according to Miss Washburn of Randolph Macon, who read a paper on the function and purpose of the organization and its relationships. She felt that the interest of the largest possible number of college women is as real today as it was at any time considered, and a spirit of sportmanship, founded on a spirit of life, will be brought more to its best end if fostered accordingly.

The committee members were: music, Mary Rhode, dancing, Bertha Zajon, secretary, and Helen Zimmerman; properties, Sara Barkley, house, Hazel Benjamin; advertising, Thelma Irlce; Louise Finn is general chairman, and Kenneth MacFarland is secretary-treasurer.

PURCHASER MAY HAVE SILVER NAME PLACED ON PEDAGOGUE COVER

"The 1926 Pedagogue will appear during the week of May 10," Miss Minnie Greenaway, 26, editor-in-chief, said Monday. "The usually decorated prints of the three religious clubs of the college, Newman, W. C. A. and Menorah. The pageant, which will be staged especially for the entertainment of the Occident, is to celebrate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, 1776, and the purchase of Manhattan from the Indians, 1626. The year's Ped will be the biggest ever, having been waited for two weeks. This year the Ped will be held on campus under the direction of Dorothy Lasher, 28. The events consist of 50-yard dash hurdle race, basketball throw, standing broad jump, running broad jump, and running, high jump. At 7:30, the gymnasium classes will give us exhibits on the campus. All those taking part must report at the gymnasium. This will be held in the gym. Each class has been divided into booths and tables. The menu will consist of:

- Ice cream and cake: $0.10
- Ice cream, whipped cream, strawberries, whipped cream and cake: $0.15
- Ice cream, whipped cream, strawberries, whipped cream and cake: $0.20
- Extra ice cream: $0.05
- Extra ice cream cone: $0.05

The first meeting was a series of speeches on the past and present Athletic Conferences of American Woman College.

At the discussion held Friday afternoon at Shakespeare, the more practical problems were taken up. Miss Appley, an Englishwoman who originated field hockey in this country, spoke of the responsibility of college women, not only in keeping their own love of hockey, but in imparting it to others.

The conclusion of interest justifies the existence of the athletic association. The theme, according to Miss Washburn of Randolph Macon, who read a paper on the function and purpose of the organization and its relationships. She felt that the interest of the largest possible number of college women is as real today as it was at any time considered, and a spirit of sportmanship, founded on a spirit of life, will be brought more to its best end if fostered accordingly.

The committee members were: music, Mary Rhode, dancing, Bertha Zajon, secretary, and Helen Zimmerman; properties, Sara Barkley, house, Hazel Benjamin; advertising, Thelma Irlce; Louise Finn is general chairman, and Kenneth MacFarland is secretary-treasurer.
REVIEWS QUERIES "ARE STUDENTS YOUNG AS

The treasures of the tomb are being removed from the National Museum at Cairo. But as yet it has been emptied of hardly more than half its contents. And here the scenes, particularly with objects, and an annex to the antechamber and a state chamber which consists of more than one hundred sealed chests that have not yet been touched. Yet he may contain the great treasures of the tomb. Mr. Carter says it will take two years more to finish clearing the tomb. At the Museum in Cairo I observed among the treasure chests, the chairs, the royal cup and saucer, and other furniture and utensils. I was particularly impressed with the exquisite hundred-foot long mummy case. The carvings of this arms for the hands and legs of the chairs, the ornamenting of them with solid gold decoration, the extreme beauty of artistic designs, are unequalled. Two art treasures particularly caught my attention. It was like looking into a golden gazing ball. One piece of furniture I saw with a tassel and two sets of sarcophagi in it. I doubt if any artist of today could do them nearly so well. This article seems to be as perfectly preserved after three thousand five hundred years. I should think if it was only country music but I was only in Egypt yesterday.

The Museum, however, is a place where things than instead of a third year's work we can see of students. It is the topic of interest in almost every corner of our curriculum. As for me, it is a hobby. Is it a hobby? If it is, ask us, we shall answer one way or another and justify our answer by sufficient proof and surprising ability of thought. When we ask the other to discuss the popular problem with us, ask us the topic of discussion in our logic courses are we interested?

Sydnum Entertaines FACULTY IN NEW HOME

Take a small table in this new home last Saturday from 4 to 5. The tables were decorated with different colored flowers. I had to look away from the table. Ten men were at 127 Ontario street, where the people are located, the kitchen and dining-room behind it. The discussion of the subject of evolution, whether as a theory or as a law, is fear.

This is only one of our problems, incidentally, it is the most popular of the day. We invite you, accusers, to our home at 748 Madison street, where the parlors are in our hall and the others in the Valley of Heaven. Her. A. Whittle, Sydnum's next door neighbour. Tea was served at 4:30.

To the Editor:

"The dead sacred bulls were entombed with all the splendor of the Pharaohs. The sarcophagi now in these tombs are cut out of solid granite, brought down from the Nile by Assuriders over four hundred miles away. Their position was marked by a large facsimile of the statue of Osiris, and I had been surrounded with such material. The trees 'like tall sentinels along the Sahara sky transcendently beautiful. The trees like tall sentinels along the Nile were no more modern, light and airy home. There is room in the new toms for 30 or 40 people. Guests were received by Miss Pierce, Abie Crawford, and Miss Dunn. Miss Dunn, Miss Alice Grinnell, Mrs. J. L. Arnold, Miss Florence E. Wieland, and Miss Laura Thompson helped to pour.

TRINITY ENTERTAINMENT

The members of the College Girl's Christian Association and the Methodist Association entertained last Tuesday evening at a reception given by Dr. and Mrs. Louis Floyd. They have their home at 2904 South Avenue. The guests spent a jolly evening entertained by games, stories, and songs.

NEW YORK PRESIDENT OF H. E. VISITS STATE

Professor of Religion at Harvard University, in a talk on "Religion and Society," said: "I am willing my face for you tonight." I proceeded to do so.

Professor Suhrie of N. Y. S. speaks here

Ambrose L. Suhrie, professor of teacher training in New York university, spoke in chapel last Friday. Professor of Religion at Harvard University, in a talk on "Religion and Society," said: "I am willing my face for you tonight." I proceeded to do so.
The publication of two student-made books in one year is a creditable performance for any college; and for the State. That these two representatives of the Federation of the Book and the Pedagogue, the latter of which appeared two weeks of each other, makes the achievement even more notable.

Of the 1926 Pedagogue, one thing seems to be said—it is better than ever. Since the publication of the third "Pedi," that is, this third issue of successive Pedagogue staffs, to make each annual better than the one before, has made a steady advance in the size and quality of the book. As a college has grown, so the Pedagogue has grown, always a fitting representative of the college, always a storehouse of memories for years to come. Missie Greenacre and Carolyn Coleman, aided by an efficient staff, have added more pages, more equipment, more arrangements, in addition to artistic features, and made the Pedagogue better than the book of 1925.

CLASSICAL CLUB HAS ITS ANNUAL DINNER

As was stated in our edition of April 17, the Classical Club will hold its annual dinner this Wednesday evening, April 21, in the cafeteria, which was decorated with paper willow trees and birds. This was arranged by a committee under the direction of Anna Spenciner, 26. She was assisted by Sylvia Roberson and Edith Ten Broeck. Monica Welsh, 26, first cousin, welcomed the guests to the club, which was well attended, and said that for the first time, she have a section all their own. Each section is to be introduced by a color wood block, an advance over the single color section published in former years. The autograph section has been divided into pages headed "faculty," "sorority sisters," "classmates," and "pedagogical friends."

A final drive for Ped payments was started May 2. Misses may be at any time at the office, to make any of the Ped club, or to any of the following juniors: Kent Pence, Ruth McNeel, Constance Bauman, Ruth Coo, Hilda Sarr, Mildred Powell, Anna Terhune, Mrs. Mann, Misses Lois Dade, Evelyn Green, Evelyn Biddle, Mary Neville, Miss Helen Terrell, Katharine Tannen, Georgianna Maar, Mary Harris, Helen Tompkins, Margaret Provost, Sara Barry, Martha Connolly, Anna Gayer, Harriet Overbaugh, Winifred Carey, or Thelma Briscoe.

The other awards in the contest were as follows:

State College Students Publish Two Books in Year;
"Pedagogue" and Book of Verse Are Attractive

In sharp contrast to the Pedagogue, which builds each year on precedent, comes an absolutely new publication—A Book of Student Verse, which may be called a student-made publication because every poem in it is the work of a State College student. Containing the very verse written at State College during the past seventeen years, the book is truly representative of the college; it is a book which we well publish. Few of even the larger colleges and universities have published collections of student verse; none of them have used the lyric poetry in this book. The existence of the book is entirely due to K. H. Kirkland, professor of English, who first suggested its publication, and who has personally selected all material for it. Mary Galwey, 27, and Alice Gooding, 26, are responsible for the leaves and ornamental title page which connects the poems much to the appearance of the book.

PED LAUNCHES FINAL SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE

Something new in a joke department is the "State College Cookie," in memory to the deceased "State College" and "Pedi." This joke department contains many novel features as well as the things demanded of every "Pedi" joke department, such as the rhythm of chivalry. A new 15-page athletic department has been added, and sports will, for the first time, have a section all their own.

The programmes section has been divided into pages headed "faculty," "sorority sisters," "classmates," and "pedagogical friends."

The nominees of the class of '26 are: president—Carolyn Schleich, Virginia Higginbotham, Eunice Freilick; co-president—Gertrude Schwarmer, Evelyn Green; vice-president—Alice Hills, Helen Walsh, Nellie Cole; treasurer—Mary Neville; manager girls' athletics—Ruth Lakerpillar, Dorothy Beach, Dorothy Lasher, Carolinas Darr, Mildred Burgh, Cecil Harris; men's athletic council—Howard Goff, Richard Jenison; G. A. A. council—Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher, Dorothy Lasher.

The programme sections included an article on "The Classics" by Sidney Balley read by Miss Ethel O. Wallace, and several woodcuts by Carolyn Josslon and Margaret Stoutenburgh. The final section of the programme was occupied by the committee on arrangements.

FRESHMAN WINS THIRD INTERNATIONAL PRIZE

Louis Klein, 29, has received an international honor accorded by the American School Citizenship League, which conducted a world essay contest recently. The subject of the essay was "World Peace."

The other awards in the contest were as follows:

P O S T P O N E D  P L A N S

Due to the absence from the city of the Rev. Joseph A. Dunn, the arrangements of Newman club plans for the coming summer months have not been made. Newmanites are requested to watch the bulletin board in the library hall for important announcements.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, APRIL 20, 1926 Page Three

The entire home economics department attended a demonstration of meat cutting on Tuesday morning, April 19, by Miss Cunlair Carlson of the Institute of American Meat Packers. Miss Carlson, formerly a teacher of home economics, is connected now with the meat packers. She directed the cutting of six varieties of pork chops at the head and the cutting of the pork shoulder. The beef was supplied by Hamlins' meat market. The staff of the department were present, and the assistant of the course in the use of the junior cut of meat was emphasized. The objectives of the course were in the use of the junior cut of meat, which is the most important consideration of the meat packers at the present time, according to Dr. Inman, member of the committee. In each of the cuts of meat the heavy beef is divided for the best cuts of meat, and the cut of the rear end of the beef are more expensive. The law of supply and demand is a factor in the present day animal industries that have to do with edible meat, they said. When well prepared the point of the meat even of better flavor than the cheaper cuts.

HOME EC DEPARTMENT SEES MEAT CUTTING; LEARN CHEAPER CUTS

The entire home economics department attended a demonstration of meat cutting on Tuesday morning, April 19, by Miss Cunlair Carlson of the Institute of American Meat Packers. Miss Carlson, formerly a teacher of home economics, is connected now with the meat packers. She directed the cutting of six varieties of pork chops at the head and the cutting of the pork shoulder. The beef was supplied by Hamlins' meat market. The staff of the department were present, and the assistant of the course in the use of the junior cut of meat was emphasized. The objectives of the course were in the use of the junior cut of meat, which is the most important consideration of the meat packers at the present time, according to Dr. Inman, member of the committee. In each of the cuts of meat the heavy beef is divided for the best cuts of meat, and the cut of the rear end of the beef are more expensive. The law of supply and demand is a factor in the present day animal industries that have to do with edible meat, they said. When well prepared the point of the meat even of better flavor than the cheaper cuts.
ANOTHER BARRIE PLAY CHOSEN FOR READING

"Alice-Sit-By-The-Fire," the play by Sir James M. Barrie, has been selected by Miss Agnes Futterer, director of dramatics, as the drama to be added to her repertoire of full-length plays for next season. This is the third Barrie play among her readings. The others are "The Admirable Crichton" and "Quality Street."

Miss Futterer is an Albian by birth. Her father was for many years in charge of the musical work of the Albany public schools. In 1916 she was graduated from State College and later did advanced work at Columbia University. She studied after that in the American Academy of Dramatic Arts at New York. She has been a member of the summer session faculty of Middlebury college, Middlebury VT, and director of dramatics for the Lake Placid Camp.

"WEDDING" IS FEATURE OF MENORAH MEETING

A social meeting of Menorah was held Thursday, April 22. Entertainment consisted of a Mendelssohn mock wedding. This consisted of a Mendelssohn mock wedding directed by Miss Agnes Futterer, director of dramatics, as the drama to be added to her repertoire of full-length plays for next season. The play among her readings. The others are "The Admirable Crichton" and "Quality Street.

College News at a Glance

Biology club is planning to hold nominations of officers for the coming year, this week. Arrangements are being made for a biology hike to "Little's Pond" next week.

Swimming classes are held every Tuesday afternoon, at Bath 3, beginners at 8:00, advanced at 9:00. Dorothy Hoyt, '25, swimming captain last year, is giving life saving lessons.

The Fellowship club of the Madison Avenue Reformed church last Tuesday evening presented Miss Alice Wright, Albany sculptress, in an illustrated talk on "Greece." A number of students took advantage of the invitation extended to them to hear Miss Wright and to see some of her choice pastels on exhibition.

Chemistry club held a meeting April 23. Ethel Neims gave a very interesting talk on rubber. Nina Handly spoke on the chlorite treatment for colds and the various luminous points. Chemistry club will hold its next meeting April 30. Marion Day will read a paper at this meeting.

The pledges of Alpha Epsilon Phi entertained the active members at a May party on Saturday evening. Anne Tersk, ex-'28, has just been elected to Pi Mu Epsilon, a national honorary mathematical fraternity, at Syracuse University.

"MISS GRAHN WRITES PLAY"

"The current number of "The Drama" prints a fantasy, Idyll, by Mary Grahn, instructor in English. The cast includes, besides the conventional characters of fantasy, Public Opinion, who never hesitates to give his opinion of the actions of the other characters.

LAW LIBRARIAN TO SPEAK

Miss Frances Lyon, assistant law librarian in the state education department, will speak to H. E. 22 class, Monday, on laws affecting women and children. Students may hear Miss Lyon's talk at Room 101 at 2:05 o'clock.

FRENCH CLUB MARDI GRAS AND FETE HELD

French club presented its second annual Mardi gras and Mardi gras Friday evening in the auditorium and gymnasium. The fete consisted of dancing and dancing' numbers. Various articles of make-up ridiculed in the second scene of the playlet which showed a close-up of milady's dressing table. The fete continued with the mardi gras in the gymnasium, which was beautifully decorated in black and white streamers and red roses. Kathleen O'Malley and Regina Perruit were co-chairman of the affair.

MISS GRAHN WRITES PLAY

The current number of "The Drama" prints a fantasy, Idyll, by Mary Grahn, instructor in English. The cast includes, besides the conventional characters of fantasy, Public Opinion, who never hesitates to give his opinion of the actions of the other characters.

LAW LIBRARIAN TO SPEAK

Miss Frances Lyon, assistant law librarian in the state education department, will speak to H. E. 22 class, Monday, on laws affecting women and children. Students may hear Miss Lyon's talk at Room 101 at 2:05 o'clock.

J. W. WEYRICH BARBER

299 ONTARIO STREET

Special attention to college students

Oriental and Occidental Restaurant

44 STATE STREET

Dancing Every Evening

GUSTAVE LOREY

Photographer

130 State St.

Saratoga Springs

State College Cafeteria

Luncheon or dinner 11:15—1:30

State College Cafeteria

Luncheon or dinner 11:15—1:30

IDEAL RESTAURANT

George F. Hamp, Prop.

208 WASHINGTON AVENUE

ALBANY, N. Y.

PHON连接

Regular Dinner 40c

SUNDAYS 40c

11 a. m. to 3 p. m.

IDEAL RESTAURANT

George F. Hamp, Prop.

208 WASHINGTON AVENUE

ALBANY, N. Y.

PHONE CONNECTION

Regular Dinner 40c

SUNDAYS 40c

11 a. m. to 3 p. m.