A RayView of Sports

By Roy Connell

With almost a third of the winter sports season taking place over intersession, State found itself in a good position to make a mark on the sports scene.

The sports schedule at least one year, is made potent forces to be seen on local basketball courts.

Bill Colgan watched the grade do battle with the frosh at the Armory on Saturday, February 5, in a "contest" of every basketball Schedule, the annual alumni game.

"Most of the players played during exams," said Steve Crocco, who was a wrestling great at Cornell, recently

"Dick Crossett didn't look exactly eaten up by old age, and nor did his team. The frosh batted the coach's attempt at a lay-up taking the victory."

"Steve Crocco explained it as follows: 'Because the game took place during intersession, the team was able to honor the contracts than to try and weasel out. We had to accommodate for the anticipated loss of the team.'"

"The team was able to accommodate for the anticipated loss of the team."

"Well, it's been that kind of year. What next?"

Student Tax Paid By 86% Activities Not Affected

The statistics on the number of people who have paid their student tax this semester indicate that the financial base will not be great enough to prevent absorption by the budget this year.

"Curiously, in the past, an amendment to provide for development and publicity. Both were passed."
University Sets Program For Study in Wurzburg

It is announced that the University of Wurzburg, Germany, has extended its request for study in their famous art academy, beginning June 15th, 1966. A special panel from the University Of Wurzburg will visit the University of New York at Albany, on June 14th and 15th, to discuss the possibility of setting up an arrangement for art students to attend the University of Wurzburg.

The program is designed for students who are interested in art and who wish to study abroad. The University of Wurzburg offers a wide range of courses in art, including painting, sculpture, and photography.

Applications are being accepted now, and interested students should contact the Office of International Programs for further information.

Chairman Applications For Special Events

Applications for Special Events must be submitted by noon on the first day of each month. The Albany Student Association will consider applications for special events that are relevant to the interests of students and the University community.

The Albany Student Association is committed to providing a diverse range of events that reflect the interests and needs of the student body.
