TEAM HAS SECOND CONTEST OF WEEK

The Purple and Gold basketball team will play their second contest of the week tomorrow night at 8:15 in the Page Hall gymnasium when it encounters the alumni. In its first game of the week, the team played against Middlebury college's intramural basketball team.

The alumni team will be composed of the following former stars of State basketball aggregations: Anthony Vincent, Louis Klein, Ben Aubrey, John Alexander, Francis Griffin, Howard Goff, and Verne Garrett, Richard Williams, and Leo Albin.

These men were chiefly responsible for putting State college basketball on the map in intercollegiate basketball circles during the years they played. The return match will be played at Emlen Fieldhouse.

The women's varsity debate team has announced that it will play its first debate game of the year against the men's team on Monday, January 26, at 8:15 in the Page Hall gymnasium.

NEWS WILL EDIT
BOOK FOR STAFF

NEWS WILL EDIT "STYLEBOOK" Consulting Information for All News Writing

Work on the compilation of a style-book for the members of the News staff is progressing rapidly, the News board announced today. The project is intended to become a standard, the News board explained. The book will be of value to any newspaper or publication that wishes to improve its style and presentation. The book will contain information on editing, proofreading, and other aspects of news writing. It will be distributed to all members of the staff when completed. The News board has requested that all members of the staff contribute to the project.

FIFTEEN STUDENTS TAKE NEW COURSE

Dr. Harold W. Hastings Conducts English 31

Fifteen students have been taking English 31, a new course offered in September. The course deals with the history of literature and is under the direction of Dr. Harold W. Hastings, head of the English department. The course is intended to give students a deeper understanding of the development of literature and its influence on society. The course is designed to be a prerequisite for upper-level courses in literature.

HEAD OF LIBRARY SCHOOL REVIEWS NEW SUPPLEMENT

Miss Martha Pritchard, head of the Library School at the University of Illinois, reviewed the new supplement to the Library Journal. The supplement, which was published in December, 1930, and was issued by Mrs. Anna E. Pierce, contains information on a variety of topics, including the history of the library, the history of the library school, and the history of the library profession. The supplement will be of interest to students and professionals in the field of librarianship.

Wilder Lectures at Art Institute

Nelson Composes Literature and Life in Address Thursday night.

"Literature is merely an idealization of life," according to William H. Whyte, "and Life in Literature is merely an idealization of literature." He went on to say that the subject of his lecture on Thursday night, Mr. Wilder is author of the Pulitzer prize winning novel, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey" and "The Woman of Andros." Mr. Wilder, he said, made one last grand speech before his death. But he is not done. He is still living. He is still writing. He is still teaching literature. He is still teaching literature...
