ONE DOWN, ONE TO GO
A general revival of spirit evident this week appears to be the result of release from tension and the purging of many of those uncertainties which must pursue their presence into next week.

In reality, it is the period of some return to normalcy. This week, the students will be going to class, doing, teaching, and still alive and unsterilized until the end of the semester, as it turns out, will be the period in which the pressure is off. It will power be strained to its utmost, if it is not already under strain, during the next few weeks. The period is not yet past, but it is powerfully off to the last point that one must make it as, so to speak, and all the things that will follow as a result of the outstanding success be the result of the outstanding success of the last. The period is not yet over, but it is powerfully off to the last point that one must make it as, so to speak, and any...remedy that can work on the current situation.

We can reconcile and resolve all we will, but it still down to the fact that the one sure way will be to remove the source.

Thus far, it is the period of some return to normalcy. This week, the students will be going to class, doing, teaching, and still alive and unsterilized until the end of the semester, as it turns out, will be the period in which the pressure is off. Ye Towne Crier Rings In American Public Alumnus No. 1 is Alexander Woollcott. As late as his senior year at Hamilton College (New York), his brothers in Theta Delta Chi didn't know whether or not they should read him out of the club. Brother Alex persisted in wearing a red fez about the house. No action was taken, however, and on April 17, 1909, Woollcott received the blessing of his Alma Mater and a Ph.B. degree.

Although he was a postgraduate one year at Columbia, Alex has his fondest words and thoughts for Hamilton. In appreciation he received an honorary degree in 1924. Dramatic critic for the Times, Herald, and World in New York from 1914 to 1928, Woollcott has since puttered his way to a fortune as a writer and radio star. Pudgy, preferring physical inertness, he once acted on Broadway in a play that required little effort beyond keeping from rolling off a divan. Yet, in the Great War, he became a sergeant in a hospital unit.

If Chaucer's Canterbury Pilgrims were recruited in this century, they would certainly have taken Woollcott along, and some of Chaucer's nimblest tales would have begun this way: "Woollcott speaking."

Original Gay Caballero

Ohio University's Alumnus No. 1 is another man of huge bulk: Frank Crumit, radio network singer heard Sunday afternoons from coast to coast. A Phi Delta Theta, he once returned for a visit and gamely sang two of his own songs on a serenade program in front of Lindley Hall. To those who asked who Frank Crumit was, came the information: a jovial undergraduate with baseball and football ability, he left Ohio U. in 1912 to study music in Cincinnati. Thence, by way of vaudeville, he was featured in Broadway shows like Oh Kay, Betty Be Good, and Hooray for Women. These were dedicated to girls, among them a stage star, Julia Sanderson, whom Frank married in 1927. They now co-star on the networks. To Ohio U., Frank Crumit, ex '12, has dedicated two songs. The Buckeye Battle Cry of Ohio State is also Frank's work, as is Gay Caballero, which is one of those things Frank can really deliver.

G.A.A. FLASHES

Wistful winds wailed, and blustering snow showers swept across the State campus yesterday afternoon, but a spirited crowd of the students who spent three days at Camp College in the hills of the G.A.A. fields was there to hear the assembly, which was held in the Soldo Auditorium of Keener Hall. Eight girls, well equipped with snow suits, skis, and toboggans left college a week ago last Monday and arrived in the cable in the hills of Chautauqua just the following Wednesday afternoon. Long months in front of the roaring fires helped them recapture the mood of the Nineteenth Amendment.

By mild ripe tobacco we mean just this—

FIRST—ripened in the sunshine... and picked leaf by leaf from the right part of the stalk when fully ripe.

THEN—each day’s picking cured right by the farmer... at the right time and in the right way... no "splotching" or brittleness, but every leaf of good color and flavor.

FINALLY—bought in the open market... re-dried for storage... then packed in wooden hogsheads to age and mellow for two years or more until free from harshness and bitterness.

That’s what we mean by mild, ripe tobacco. And that’s the kind of tobacco we use to give Chesterfield’s milder, better taste.

Chesterfield
Outstanding
.. for mildness
.. for better taste
