Chi Sigma Theta
League Champs

In one of the widest assemblies of the entire basketball season Chi Sigma Theta squad went into the final of the league with a good chance to win the first place. The team had been working hard and had a good record in their previous games. They were in a good position to win the championship.

The first team got off to a fine start and led the opponents by five points. The second half was tense and exciting as both teams tried to gain the upper hand. Chi Sigma Theta managed to hold on to their lead and won the championship easily.

Another year is ending, another Moving-Up Day is at hand. There is present the usual array of customs and pageantry, inspired partly by the fact that this is a moving-up. Again, this is the last issue of the College News, and the last issue of the Student Council. To the end of this year, the Student Council is in its last years, the administration of all the various branches of State College is coming to an end.

What distingishes this year from all the others has been the fact that this is a moving-up. Again, this is the last issue of the College News, and the last issue of the Student Council. To the end of this year, the Student Council is in its last years, the administration of all the various branches of State College is coming to an end.

Are all traditions that are written down in black and white to ascer­farcie debate, the class skits and hunt, the field day contests, the to do without.

Besides these, there are many little traditions that are carried on through the years, and these are all traditions that are worth remembering. They are a part of the history of the school and are an important part of the lives of those who attend it. They serve to remind us of the past and to keep alive the memories of those who have come before us.

Today Slate College is the only college in the state whose main pur­pose is to provide education for those who aspire to enter the professions. The college was founded in 1905 by the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Milne, who believed in the importance of higher education and wanted to provide a place where students could receive a quality education.

State's Alumni Plan

State's Alumni Plan is a program that encourages former students of Slate College to stay involved with the college and to support its activities. The plan involves a variety of activities, such as alumni reunions, service projects, and financial contributions.

State, Keeper of Traditions, Learns Story of "Great Fire"

State, Keeper of Traditions, Learns Story of "Great Fire". The story of the "Great Fire" is one of the most well-known and memorable traditions of Slate College. It involves a large group of students who gather in the auditorium to celebrate the end of the school year. The story is told in the form of a"mock turtle soup with cheese" and ends with a "fire of inspiration" that "will burn in the hearts of all who hear it."
