Cold Shoulder...

What this school needs is a good five-cent cup of ice! As things stand now, the Student Union does not provide sufficient ice to warrant the student's buying his ten cent cup. Do you honestly feel, student, that a fair amount of ice in its proper place in your drink when you buy a coke? Since most of us make the purchase of our ice for the economy of chewing the ice, and since the coke, pepsi, or what have you is merely the sauce as it were, if it flows then does not what we students want for our drinks cost more? If so, then we are more likely to buy ice.

Furthermore, we would like the additional benefit of being able to purchase only the ice. Just as some people do not like whipped cream on their jello, some people do not like coke on the ice. Would it not be ideal then to be able to purchase the ice by itself? Just as some people do not like coke in the ice, we also do not like coke on the ice. Would it not be ideal then to be able to purchase the ice by itself?

Yes, Mister Jones, as representatives of the Student Union, we would like to suggest that a fair amount of ice is put in your drinks. Just as some people do not like coke on the ice, we also do not like coke on the ice. Would it not be ideal then to be able to purchase the ice by itself?
I Want to Teach...

Do you want to teach? It's a great way to make a difference in the lives of others. Teaching is not just a job, it's a calling. You can make a difference in the lives of your students and help them reach their full potential. It's a rewarding career choice that will allow you to use your skills and knowledge to make a positive impact on the world. But teaching is not easy. It requires dedication, hard work, and a passion for education. It's a lifetime commitment. Ready to make the leap? Then let's talk about how you can start your career in education today.

Vegetables...

Slowly, slowly we advance towards the end of the year, our minds and souls slowly starting to return to the world of work and study. But for now, let's take a moment to appreciate the beauty and wonder of the natural world. The vegetables we see around us are not just food, they are a testament to the power of nature. So let's pause to reflect on their beauty and appreciate the hard work of those who grow and care for them. And let's remember that even in the midst of a busy world, we can still find time to appreciate the beauty of nature.

Capítulo

We need to keep in mind that the future of education is bright. With the advent of new technologies and the rise of alternative educational models, there are countless opportunities for students to learn and grow. But the future of education is not just about what we teach, it's about how we teach. We need to be innovative in our approach to education and challenge the status quo. We need to be bold and take risks. But most importantly, we need to be committed to the cause of education and work together to create a better future for all.

Noel, the lead role in all State College Revue selections, is played by Marcelline Ham. Miss Ham is a member of the English department. She is a native of New York State and a graduate of Smith College. Noel will be assisted by two other members of the English department, Professor Edward M. Robinson and Professor William E. Hill. Both are well known for their work in English literature. The contest will be judged by a panel of judges from other colleges in the area. The contest will be held on the State College campus at 8:00 p.m.

Surplus Increase Goes Unnoticed in Senate; President Introduces Three Bills, Appointments

Business of the Senate agenda Wednesday was voting on the three bills sponsored by the President. None of the bills received any opposition and were passed unanimously. The three bills are:

1. A bill to increase the surtax on corporate income.
2. A bill to provide for the appointment of a State Auditor.
3. A bill to establish a State Reformatory for Women.
