Harriers Place 4th at LeMoyne, Team Showing Surprises Munsey

The Albany State varsity cross-country team scored surprisingly well at the annual LeMoyne Tournament held last weekend at LeMoyne College in Syracuse. The team finished fourth out of 10 teams, with Joe Keating, Paul Durbin and Bob Flick all placing in the top twenty. Keating placed 10th, Durbin 15th and Flick 18th. The Harriers finished 6th out of 13 teams in the junior college run, only seven points behind third-place Niagara Falls.

The tournament was held on Saturday, October 1, and the weather was perfect for running. The course was a four-mile loop with hills and turns, and the course was marked by orange cones. The race began at 10:00 a.m. and lasted for about 30 minutes.

The Harriers were led by Joe Keating, who finished 10th. He was followed by Paul Durbin in 15th and Bob Flick in 18th. The team scored 97 points, which was a big improvement from last year's score of 132. The victory was a surprise, as the team had not expected to do as well as they did.

Associate Dean Seeks Lack of Image As Major Problem of Transition

by Mark Cunningham

Mr. Stewart Chestnut, the new Associate Dean of Students, believes that he has detected a feeling on the SUNY campus that students feel inferior, that they belong to a segregated campus on the American collegiate scene.

This is a feeling with which he does not agree. Chestnut, who replaced Dr. T. G. L. Coffee as the Associate Dean of Students, feels there are several areas in which the University has the chance to improve.

"I feel that students are more involved in the University than in the past," said Chestnut. "This is a change that we have been working towards for a few years now, and there are several changes that we can make to improve the University." The University has the chance to improve the environment with a better attitude toward students, Chestnut noted. Chestnut has the chance to improve the environment with a better attitude toward students, Chestnut noted.

Other institutions Chestnut states that in other institutions students have a sense of pride. The students feel they are a part of the University and they want to participate in the activities. This is something that Chestnut feels the University can improve.
