EVIDENCE OF LEADERSHIP

State college has always been a leader in its special field. One of the evidences of this is the activity of the student campus. This week two of these acts to noting a conference which, even if they did not do anything directly to affect the student's lives, they did indirectly to attract more attention to the college and its activities. The first was the conference of the student council to be held at the Student Union on Tuesday afternoon. The conference is to be held at 3 p.m. and will be open to the public. The second was the opening of the new Student Union which will be dedicated on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The Student Union is located on the north side of the campus and will be used as a meeting place for various organizations on the campus. The Student Union will be dedicated on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

THE STATESMAN

By ROBERT L. DAVIS

According to a conservation of opinion, the G. A. R. council was a strong and influential body in the community. The council was composed of about 150 members, most of whom were active in some phase of the council's work. The members were well educated and had many years of experience in the work of the council. The council was active in many phases of community life, including the promotion of patriotism and the protection of veterans. The council was also active in the promotion of local history and was instrumental in the establishment of several historical museums in the community. Group Houses Conducted Joint Activity Recently

Nearly sixty students attended the third convention breakfast, easily conducted by Newman club at the Academy of the Holy Names, Madison Avenue and Rutter. Mr. Rutter was general chairman. Assisting Miss Rutter were Mildred Condon, Edithion Durkin, and Elizabeth McLaughlin, juniors. Miss Flaherty and Frances Pasklison and Sarah Palethorpe, freshmen.

The Reverend William Taft, provost, and treasurer of the Evangelical Alliance, dean of the Alliance college, was guest speaker at the breakfast. Father Taft discussed the value of Catholic magazines and newspapers in the world today. As an example of the increasing importance of the Catholic Press, Father Taft cited the general atmosphere of the Alliance college, where there are published daily Catholic college newspapers.
