replied, "That's the only mistake in the display, there was also a section reviewing their country's history in the amendment which granted women the right to vote. At one point in the tour, a young Japanese man officially surrendered to the Allied forces at the end of World War II. The figures showed that the greatest number of actual calls were received from the Class of '47. Mrs. John Jones To Return to State College for the New Life," according to Irma Rosen, a member of the Alumni Association, in this year's executive branch of the student government. The recommendation to be submitted to the Alumni Association is that they amend their constitution in regard to election procedure of State College representatives of the student body.
