Rain and Rivalry...

Didn't it rain, children, didn't it rain...but the other side thought so, too. It seems that this year's Rivalry Week was more popular than usual because of the rain. Students and others were happy to watch the march and participate in the yard games. It was a great day for the students. The event was well attended and everyone had a great time. Confused Student Observes

Pendleton, OR - Confused Student Observes

The Confused Student Observes our planet's resources with great concern. The earth is our home and we must protect it for future generations. The student observed that many people are not aware of the impact they have on the environment. The student suggested that more education and awareness campaigns are needed to encourage people to make positive changes. The student observed that the planet is in danger and we must act now to save it. The student's observations were recorded and will be shared with the community.

Senate Appropriates Money From Surplus For Directory

By JOYCE CALL

Student Senate meeting and hearing was held Thursday evening by the President, John Wallace.

Bill to Amend Constitution

Mr. Tom Hill, the提案, was the member who opened the discussion and submitted a bill to amend the constitution. He stated that the Senate had had many complaints about the number of members serving on the executive board and the allowance of the Senate. Mr. Hill also stated that the Senate would like to have the ability to amend the constitution and that the Senate would like to have the ability to amend the constitution.

The Senate then passed the following resolution:

"The Senate of the College of Fine Arts hereby approves the amendment to the constitution of the Student Senate, as proposed by the Senate of the College of Fine Arts, and recommends that the amendment be adopted by the Senate of the College of Fine Arts."
