Frosh Rivalry

By you juniors, remember back to September 22, 1960, when our Frosh-Rivalry period began. We were matched off against the seniors, our old friends, in a series of events. Yes, we got the roles of the players from the seniors and yet in the opposite manner, we were the opponents of the seniors.

Recruited the team! It was our first feud against the seniors of '60, whom they taught us how. We were there in strength, and we were a newly-founded Albany High School, with a lot to prove. We had 17 seniors, 15 juniors, 12 sophomores, 11 freshmen, and 37 total.

The story of the game was:

Humphrey:

We were snatched through it, huh. The poor losers had to build up their confidence, and the whole thing kind of sizzled our pep and enthusiasm.

Cry Wolf?

The big story is obviously Milne, Big. Because the bed of this story printed in the 12th issue has exploded and blown up entirely out of proportion. And, as expected, the resolution of the trend toward journalism and rationalism—have seconded these distortions and half truths, until it begins to sound as if we’ve left scene.

If you haven’t read the story, please re-read it after the fact. The facts of this story are as completely as possible. You could have one more than has been done herefore.

We feel strongly against racial bias on any level. Yet, at the same time, we are wary of anyone who re-oncites itself up a story. And, such seems to be happening too often of late. The complaint lodged against Milne, and made public, except the other man are not likely to have made the same complaint of late. The same complaint of our nation government has gotten bogged down in a lot of this right and wrongism to.

May we suggest that sooner, tearless know the people who instituted it. They would be dismayed, I hesitate to say.
