A CHANCE TO MEET POET

State college students will have an unuplicated opportunity to hear the American poet of the day when Vachel Lindsay appears in the auditorium of Page hall on Wednesday evening. Although the men are waiting anxiously for the announcement of the State college queen tomorrow night, they will have no cause to be repeated.

The work of editing and publishing is welcomed. It is a service which the college must provide. The college has the advantage of the liberal ideas of the students, but the work is not utilized rather than constructing this addition, no one has the incentive to encourage this activity.

Vachel Lindsay has certainly been stimulated by his scheduled lecture in Page hall next Wednesday. He has said that he will autograph volumes, which may be added incentive for the addition of this book to the library. A resume of the practical advantages of the college newspaper is partial. It is connected with the official departments, and brings them to the students through the medium of the college newspaper. It is a picture of the campus life. It is considered with favor by the students in the Student government.

SCOTS TO DEFEND
THrift In DEBATE

Beta College Contest To Be Broadcast From N. B. C.
Stations Next Friday

Debaters of Scottish universities who will meet State college next Friday night and Bates college, of Lewiston, Me., will argue the virtues of thrift in an international debate to be broadcast over a National Broadcasting Company network, at 8:30 o'clock next Tuesday night. The question is: "Resolved, that thrift is not a virtue."

The Bates college team will take the affirmative, attacking thrift, and the Scottish debaters will defend its virtues. This broadcast has been arranged by X. H. I', and the National Student Federation of America in cooperation with the debating teams.

It will be the first of more than twenty debates in which the Scottish team will appear on a tour of New England and the middle Atlantic states for the latter part of October and all of November. The invading debaters are officially known as "The Scottish Universities Debating Team Representing the Students' Representative Councils of Scotland."

Coca-Cola was made for times like these. Here's a drink that will quickly invest you with some of its life and sparkle. Give you exceeding joy in its tingling, delicious taste. And leave you with that cool after-sense of refreshment in which a righteous megalomania may wax fat and prosper.
