The timely theme of this great novel the rise of the Yellow Peril, is very much a part of our lives today.The international debate season is here again. The team under the auspices of the National Debate Council is bringing Daniel Frank, noted theatrical manager, as an audience to the forum, and the forum is prepared to give the people the thrill of hearing him speak. Friday night the music council is presenting the noted pianist-composer Percy Grainger, in a recital at Chanlcey. All friends of music will want to hear him. The forum will be as strong as the music council. It will be held in the auditorium, and all friends of music will want to hear him. The forum will be as strong as the music council. Dr. P. D. Day of Union College
Says Character Is Essential

"Wealth must be built upon character and tradition, not upon temporary riches," said Dr. P. D. Day of Union College, in a talk delivered Tuesday before the Blair Alumni Club. "Here are the stepping stones of which wealth is built. Few men are found who are rich in all of these.
Character," he said, "is necessary and if one is to be a man of real value one has to know what it is to do it. To my generation everything and life into material work.

Six Of Ten Campus Queens Were Blonde;
Tradition Was First Observed In 1920

With the smiles from one in favor of a blonde for Campus queen this year, it is interesting to note that of the ten girls who have presided over Campus days, six have been blondes, twenty-six and saw a Trim. Although the first Campus day was observed in 1913, it was not until 1922 that a queen was elected. During the first Campus day, the campus was a mass of faces, elegant and

Patronize the AMERICAN CLEANSERS & DYERS We clean and dye all kinds of ladies’ trousers. We also do the cleaning of the shirts of the students themselves, by persons whom they have been cultivating for the past week. Since a club has fulfilled the requirement in membership, and has had the official Student Council recognition, it is taken over by the Education 115 class.

The club's petitions for recognition include: dining, art, craft, swimming, athletics, and theatre. The Miles Junior High Weekly, the official school newspaper, has already published one page.

WELCOMES MEMBER

P. E. Hanna, formerly a member of the Miles High school home room at Hillside, has been welcomed into the senior book.
