Arts and Sciences and the College of Engineering are to be united in the construction of a new science building on the campus, it was announced recently by the State College nominating committee. Then their leaders must utilize the tables and chairs which are printed unless the writers' names are left with the Editor-Reader. The present stairway required to inclose the peristyle or in the modeliuuj and both the students and faculty members. College Digest
ALL AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM FOR 1934

The Idea...

For the first time in the history of the selection of All American football teams, a complete team will be chosen by the undergraduates of the institutions those teams represent. The undergraduates of America, through COLLEGIATE DIGEST, are being given the opportunity to select their OWN All American football team. Which players do you think are best? Who are your favorites? Watch the players... watch the scores... MAKE YOUR SELECTIONS AND MAIL THEM IN!

The Conditions...

Each COLLEGIATE DIGEST reader is permitted to make a selection of his or her Collegiate Digest All American team. In case spectacular playing by some individual or team changes your first choice, you are free to submit another list. MAY BE SELECTED EACH WEEK.

The Awards...

In addition to being honored in the pages of COLLEGIATE DIGEST, the players on both the East and West All American Teams will receive complimentary subscriptions to the Digest. A similar recognition will be accorded the players on the All American Team for the coming year.

One dollar will be paid to students for snapshots of student or faculty activities suitable for publication in this section. Time, place, event and class position of participants must accompany picture. No money will be paid for pictures not used and no pictures will be returned unless accompanied by postage for that purpose.

TROPHY—When De Pauw University (Greencastle, Ind.) and Wabash College (Crawfordsville, Ind.) meet this year for the forty-fifth time in the oldest football rivalry West of the Alleghenies, this bell will be at stake. The bell, presented by the Monon railroad as a traditional trophy, is at present in the possession of De Pauw University as a result of the university's last year's victory over Wabash.

BOILERMAKER TRADITION—Whenever Purdue University (LaFayette, Ind.) chalks up a victory in a "Big Ten" football contest, this old "Victory Bell" clangs out the glad tidings to the student body.

FIRST HAND INFORMATION—Michigan Tech's (Houghton) engineers watch a scraper working on broken ore in an "open slope" copper mine.

SILENT NOW—The above bell, a campus fixture at Baker University (Baldwin City, Kan.), was used as a 10 o'clock curfew until 1911. At the time of the death of Abraham Lincoln, it tolled for twenty-four consecutive hours.

A PLEASURE that drives away fatigue and listlessness!

"I'm specializing in chemistry, which means a large amount of 'lab' work," says Richard Whitney, '35. "It's interesting—but a tough grind. After a long, hard session, a Camel tastes simply swell—and what is more important, it refreshes my energy and I feel 'fit as a fiddle' in short order. I've smoked a lot of Camels and never yet have they ruffled my nerves. Everyone is subject to strain—whether physical, mental, or emotional. So it's important to know that Camels do release your stored-up energy. The findings of a famous scientific laboratory have confirmed Camels' "energizing effect." So begin today to enjoy Camels. Enjoy their wholesome and delightful "lift." Enjoy their mildness and rich, good taste. Enjoy them often. Camels pay millions more for finer, more expensive tobaccos, and the costlier tobaccos in Camels never jangle the nerves."

HERE IS WHAT SOME OF THE STUDENTS ARE SAYING ABOUT THEIR FAVORITE BOOKS.

BOOKS

1. "Life Begins at 8:40" is, this unfinished symphony. If a broken heart gives you a hint it isn't symphony.
2. "Death in the Theater" is a tale of bloodshed and falling crowns, of wars and battles. Sometimes gives the impression it is written more "historically" than "historically." Not heavily documented.
3. "Phony"—This one made in London and advance notes to twenty thousand.
4. "The Cat's Paw"—Harold Rome says, "Keep moving." Another little known fact: Inspector McTears from "a p o t"—comedian Tom Howard did it? 50,000,000 guesses from the title. It's "I's VISIBLE COLUMN of INK."

DRAMA

1. "Pity the Greeks! They didn't have a voice for this!
2. "Prince Albert"—we believe, the coolest, mellowest smoke you ever tasted. Blended by a secret method from top-quality tobaccos. Mild? Of course! A no pressure pump or vacuum guarantees that every puff will give you plenty. The story of War," by Guiles Davenport, $3.00. Sez the prologue: "What good are the hammers if there isn't a nail to nail them?"
3. "Portrait of a Courtezan" by J. R. Wilmott, $2.00. No, you're not. Only one bright idea to play with. What a handle to clean up America applies Chinese to China.

MOVIES

1. "Death in the Theater"—this one made in Austria. Already renamed in London and advance notes to twenty thousand. "Start the IXth Year with thin Favorite!
2. "Life Begins at 8:40"—this one made in London. Already renamed in London and advance notes to twenty thousand. "Start the IXth Year with thin Favorite!

ALL AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM FOR 1934

The Idea

The purpose of this team is to select the best college players in the nation. It is based on a meritocratic system, where the selection is made by a vote of 500 college football coaches. The team is composed of the best players from the 1934 season, chosen by the coaches who have a personal knowledge of the players' abilities. The team is not selected by a popular vote or by any other means.

The Conditions

This COLLEGIATE DIGEST team is to consist of a maximum of 24 positions, including all offensive and defensive players. The selectors are asked to make their selections based on the performance of the players during the 1934 season. The team is to be selected from the players who have demonstrated their skills during the season, and not from players who have not shown their potential.

The Awards

The Kansas City Star will present a special medal to the team's most valuable player, and a certificate to the team's captain. The team will also receive a special banner to display in its trophy case.
