MONEY IS LACKING FOR CONSTRUCTION

Labor Appropriation Holds Up Plans for Work on Fence and New Walk

An appropriation providing that every cent of the fund be used for labor will prevent the immediate construction of a fence along the western edge of the campus, leading from the new student center to the campus entrance. A cement wall will be builded, and the labor necessary for the completion of this wall will be supplied by the Student Council. A cement wall will extend along the north edge of the campus, and will be four feet high.

Herbert S. Staley, a member of the Student Council, said that the appropriation was essential for the construction of the new walk.
