Danes gear for Union after blanking Brockport

Undefeated Albany ranks third in nationwide Division III poll with two early season wins

By Marc Hague

It's not much of a secret—Union has a good Division III football team. However, when the Danes outscored the Brockport Golden Eagles 10-7 last week, it was evident that Union is strong in many ways.

Danes’ defense is in top shape, according to Union assistant coach Dan Schieffelin. "We have a good and balanced defense. The line is playing well along with the secondary." Head coach Al D’Angelo concurred, stating that "our defense has been a model of consistency and teamwork." Not surprisingly, the Danes' defense has allowed only three touchdowns in their first three games.

Offensively, the Danes are led by quarterback Kevin Guyette. "Guyette is a great passer. He can sprint out of the pocket or drop back and hit his receivers," said Schieffelin.

The Danes' offense has been balanced with a mix of running and passing. "We have a good running game as well as a good passing game," said Schieffelin. "Guyette has thrown for over 100 yards this season, and our running back, Steve Bodner, has gone for touchdowns in each of our last three games.

In the second half and Pat Cruickshank closed out the ball team and wc had a good Division III football team, hut instructions (mostly the 1 and T)," said Dane assistant coach Rochester 28-7 in their season opener. "They have an excellent secondary."

Stewart has compiled 307 passing yards and four touchdowns in three games. "Stewart is a good passer. He can throw the ball accurately," said Schieffelin. "He has a good arm and can throw deep passes.

D'Angelo added that the offense is balanced with a strong running game. "Our running backs, including Steve Bodner and Frank Krahe, have all rushed for over 100 yards this season," said D'Angelo. "They are a good running duo.

The defense is supported by a strong secondary. "The secondary has been playing well," said Schieffelin. "They are playing well along with the line." The defense has allowed only three touchdowns in three games, showcasing their depth and versatility.

"We have a good team," said Schieffelin. "We're playing well along with the offense and defense.

The Albany State men's soccer team has been on a roll lately, winning four out of their last five games. However, the team's early season success has not been enough to secure a spot in the NCAA Super Regionals.

Delta Boys, a local youth soccer club, is one of the teams that Albany State is facing this season. "We have a good youth soccer program," said Albany State coach Steve Bodner. "We are working hard to develop young players and bring them to the next level.

Wattenmaker reports from Nicaragua tour

By Ken Olsen

Candidate for the U.S. Senate on the Socialist Workers party, Steve Wattenmaker, has a side show and drama in the making, and it is called "Viva Nicaragua." Later today, he will speak to the Socialist Nationalist Grand Alliance in Nicaragua,endorsing their rebellion against the Somoza dictatorship. Wattenmaker will solicit the support of Back the Nicaraguan Revolution Committee (BNRC), formed in 1980 to aid the contra rebels. Wattenmaker will be accompanied by Bob Pierce, who will be his interpreter. The two, traveling as a couple, are to arrive in Managua, the capital of Nicaragua, on Saturday morning.

Man denied suit against day care center

By Debra Juday

An Albany, N.Y., landlord refused to allow a woman to pick up her son from a day care center on Broadway because she could not produce reliable identification.

Piercing the facade of the Подольо схватку соратников о работе, Wittenmaker, a Russian-trained lawyer, came up with a plan to levy on the property. The landlord, who had previously refused to allow Wittenmaker to tour the property, said the plan was "unfair" and "against the law."

So the judge agreed, refusing to hear the case.

Manic depression drug trial

By Debra Juday

A three-month drug trial has been completed in Albany, N.Y., for a man who has been diagnosed with manic depression.

The trial, which was conducted by Dr. Richard T. M. P. M. B., was the first of its kind in the United States.

The trial was designed to test the effectiveness of a drug called Manic-Depression, which is currently being used to treat people with manic depression.

Some psychologists have even suggested that the drug could be used as a preventive measure for manic depression.

The judge agreed, refusing to hear the case.

Sasway ain't a-marchin'

By Sasway was convicted on several counts of draft resistance yesterday for refusing to register for the Selective Service.

Former air force man was sentenced for refusing to register for the Selective Service. He was ordered to pay a fine of $500 and to serve a term of 30 days in jail for violation of Selective Service laws.

Tried last week, Sasway was found guilty of refusing to register for the Selective Service. He had been convicted of the same offense in a similar case.

The trial lasted only a day. Sasway was accused of refusing to register for the Selective Service. He was found guilty of all counts and was sentenced to jail.

The judge ordered Sasway to serve a term of 30 days in jail. He was also fined $500.

Off-campus housing

To the Editor:

I was extremely disappointed to read the Off-Campus Housing Editor's column that appeared in the recent issue of the .

The column, which was written by Mr. Canfield, criticized the university's policy on off-campus housing. The author stated that the policy is unfair and that students are being discriminated against.

I would like to express my own views on this issue.

First of all, the current policy is designed to protect the interests of both the university and its students. It is intended to ensure that students have access to safe and decent housing.

The policy also provides for the fair allocation of resources to support student housing needs. It is designed to ensure that funds are allocated in a manner that is equitable and efficient.

I believe that the policy is effective and that it is serving its intended purpose.

I would like to see a continuation of the current policy and hope that the university will not make any changes.

Sincerely,

Danes down Dutchmen to even rivalry, 17-7

By Mike Spross

This is the story of the women's track and field team and their new head coach. It was the beginning of the 1981-82 season. The team was young and inexperienced, and they were not sure what to expect.

When David Michaelson first arrived at the university, he was a young and unknown coach. But he was determined to change that. He had seen the potential in the team, and he knew that with hard work and dedication, they could achieve great things.

The team would have to work hard, but they were up for the challenge. They were a tight-knit group, and they knew that they could achieve great things if they worked together.

The first game of the season was against the Dutchmen. The Danes had their sights set on victory, and they were determined to win.

And they did. They won the game, 17-7.

The team had come a long way, and they knew that they were capable of achieving great things.

The team would continue to work hard, and they would continue to achieve success. They were a strong team, and they knew that they could make a difference.
