Trial by Ordeal

The final examination period is prolonged agony for both good and poor students. The majority are brought a couple of months before the end of the semester by the careless fall painful remorse. Haunted eyes and trembling hands are everywhere.

By this time you probably realize that the effect of final examinations will be shorter than in previous years. Examinations will be two hours long instead of three. Although this system is administrating "stress" may be more efficient, we do not feel that it is an improvement.

A two-hour examination covering the week of a whole semester demands so much preparation as a three-hour test. However, the range of the examination itself is limited by time. Would it be an adequate measure of achievement? Because it cannot be an impersonator, a three-hour examination, chaste has a large part in determining the quality of the student. By way, chance contributes a great deal in determining final grade in a three-hour test against the luck of

Varsity & Frosh Graplers Bow In Initial Meet With Cortland

The 1961-1962 wrestling season began this past Saturday with a match against Cortland and the FroshROOMIs wrestled by scores of 33-3 and 36-0 respectively. These scores do not reflect the full story of the contest. Many matches were very close so they were only lost by a few points.

The Varsity, which lost 48-45 to Cortland, was the victim of several close falls. But Bucknell won only one of these points in our favor. Cortland manipulated the entire scoring from this point on.

The Frosh wrestled an outstanding match, scoring only 3 points of the 16 matches. This was the only thing to keep the score down. Even though with the Bucknell move, the Frosh saved the day. But it was not nearly as close as it could have been.

The matches lost by Bucknell were due to one fall, one pinfall, and two falls. The Frosh saved the day by only losing one pinfall.
