Slumping Danes Hope Finale Isn't Swan Song

Swimming an offensive that has resulted in 17 dual meet wins and eight pool records, the Danes have to come to terms with the fact that they may not have enough strength and stamina to make it to the NCAA Championships.

"We didn't have the team this year that we could have," said White. "We had a chance to win and we didn't." The Danes finished with a 9-9 record.

While the Danes hope to have a stronger team next year, they have to look at this year's dual meet record to see how they can improve.

Iranians Release Some Hostages

There were no immediate reports from Iran on the fate of the remaining hostages. Iranian officials have remained tight-lipped on the matter, and there has been no sign of any formal exchange or negotiations so far.

Bird Smuggling Is Soaring

THEFT, devising several ways to capture birds of prey, and selling them to collectors, has soared in recent years. Such a class is held on plant grounds. "We have a law enforcement situation that is quite unusual," said Charlie Daum.

Trailways Bus Strike

A week ago, the Trailways bus company, which operates in the Northeast, announced it was hiring new drivers to replace those who walked out over pay and conditions. The drivers, who are represented by the Teamsters Union, have been on strike since October 2, demanding better pay and benefits.

Parents Push For Laetrite Rights

Students at the University of Albany have been actively involved in the debate over the rights of students to vote in local and national elections. The debate has centered on whether Albany voting rights do not include Albany East campus students.

Jack Lester Fights For Student Vote

May File Action Against Albany County

Section 211 of the New York State Constitution states that "Every citizen of the state shall have the right to vote at all elections." However, Albany County does not recognize Albany East campus students as residents of the county for voting purposes.

Citing lack of available resources and Albany County's "grouper law" and the enforcement of "equal protection clause" stating that "any person who is a citizen of the state shall be a legal resident thereof, and have the right to vote at all elections." The Albany County Board of Elections recently rejected a request to change the voter registration rules.

Television Group Upset Over Funds

The Albany Student Association (ASA), a group that raises and spends student funds, has expressed concern over the use of student funds for political campaigns. The group has threatened to use student funds to challenge the allocation of resources and the practices of the student government.

Affirmative Action Backs Gays

Affirmative Action policies have been praised by many across the political spectrum. However, there have been criticisms and legal challenges to the policies. The debate over affirmative action has been particularly intense in the context of the recent Supreme Court ruling on gay rights.

Onward and Upward

While the debate over affirmative action continues, there is a growing recognition of the importance of diversity in the workforce. Many companies are implementing policies to ensure equal opportunities for all employees, regardless of their background.

The off-campus student population movement continues to gain momentum. The importance of recognizing the rights of all students, particularly those who are not traditionally included in the formal educational system, is increasingly being acknowledged.

Big-Time Trial Begins Of Mafiao Killers

Witness Cited As Greatest Informer Since Valachi

The Weasel" Fratianno, a known Mafia hitman who recently confessed to 14 murders, is the latest mobster to turn state's evidence as the U.S. government attempts to bring down the nation's largest organized crime family.

Fratianno, who has been in prison for 40 years, was sentenced to 40 years in 1970 on murder convictions. The trial will focus on the first organized crime family to be tried in federal court.

The government's Organized Crime Strike Force has identified all five defendants in the case. The trial will begin on Monday in New York and is expected to last six months.

Although there's no way at all to know, this could be the most complex case ever tried by the government.

The whole rescue capture is expected to name names at the trial. Gordon now teaches the most difficult course in the country, "Sex with Laughter," and is a member of the Sexual Tension Society.

The days when the New York State legislature was one of the last vestiges of America's glory days are numbered. The state's largest herd of bighorn sheep, which once roamed the cliffs of White Sands Mountain in New Mexico, is threatened by a combination of overgrazing, disease, and habitat destruction. The U.S. government's attempt to rescue the sheep is expected to cost $5 million.

The sheep's small size makes them more vulnerable to predators. The New Mexico Game and Fish Department estimates only 50 sheep remain of the 250 that once roamed the cliffs. Officials hope to capture the sheep and airlift them out of the area.

Abortion: Pro-Choice

by Kathy Thompson

The central issue in the abortion debate is the question of when a human life begins. Is it at the moment of conception, or does it begin at birth? Pro-choice advocates argue that the fetus is not a separate individual with rights and that abortion is a personal choice. Anti-choice advocates argue that the fetus is a separate individual with rights and that abortion is morally wrong.

The Right to Vote

The right to vote is a fundamental right enshrined in the Constitution. It is the right of all citizens over the age of 18 to participate in the democratic process. Although women have been voting for over a century, there were still some who thought they were not entitled to vote.

The Politics of Humor

Humor is a powerful tool for social change. It can be used to challenge authority, expose hypocrisy, and create a sense of community. While some people may find humor offensive, it is an important way to make social issues more accessible and engaging.

One for the Bird

Did you know that Ben Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national symbol instead of the eagle? He thought that the turkey was a symbol of abundance and prosperity. However, the eagle was chosen because it was seen as a symbol of strength and power.

Abortion: Pro-Choice

Abortion is a sensitive issue, and it is important to consider all sides of the argument. The pro-choice movement believes that women should have the right to choose whether or not to have an abortion. The anti-choice movement believes that abortion is morally wrong and that the fetus is a separate individual with rights.

Rams Over Atlanta By Six In LA

Los Angeles (AP) - Vince Ferragamo, facing his first true test as an NFL head coach, improved his record to 2-0 with a 24-18 victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Monday night.

The victory moved Los Angeles to 2-0 in the NFC West and was the second straight win for the Rams (2-0), who finished the season with a season-high 11-point lead.

Ferragamo, a third-year pro out of Ferris State, had to hold Steve Bartkowski, who is out for the season with a hip injury, and was replaced by Atlanta's second-string quarterback, Darryl Turner.

Ferragamo, who has been with the Falcons since 1981, completed 12 of 20 passes for 167 yards and two touchdowns. He also rushed 13 times for 47 yards and a touchdown.

Ferragamo, who missed the first two weeks of the season due to a broken left hand, finished the game with 168 yards passing and two touchdowns. He also rushed 13 times for 54 yards and a touchdown.

Weary Danes Close Out By Being Shut Out, 3-0

by Paul Schwalm

Tommie T. Jett, the defensive tackle that had, until now, been a mainstay of the Danes defense, will have to deal with the Sports today. The 6'-2" 210-lb. tackle is coming off a strong performance against Springfield, where he recorded 7 tackles, 2 of which were for a loss. Jett is expected to continue his strong performance against the Sports, and will be a key factor in the Danes' shutout.

On offense, the Danes will have to rely on quarterback Scott James, who had a strong performance against Springfield last week. James completed 7 of 10 passes for 121 yards and a touchdown. He will have to continue his strong performance today to give the Danes a chance at winning.

The Danes' defense, led by Jett, will have to stop the Sports' high-powered offense, which is averaging 36 points per game. The Danes will have to play a strong game of defense to have a chance at winning.

The Danes will need to focus on both offense and defense to have a chance at winning. If they can control the game and limit the Sports' scoring, they will have a good chance at a shutout.

Students Stage Bookstore Sit-in

Most Demands Are Met

by Jim Monti

The SUNYA campus bookstore was the site of a student protest on November 29th. The protest was a response to the university's decision to implement a new refund policy for textbooks.

The students who participated in the protest were unhappy with the new policy, which they believed would result in the loss of valuable textbooks for students. They also believed that the university was not doing enough to address the issue.

The protest was a success, as most of the students' demands were met. The university agreed to make changes to the refund policy, and to provide additional resources to help students obtain the textbooks they need.

Yippie Leader Rubin Talks Of 60's, 70's, 80's

by Pat Brady

Jerry Rubin, a prominent Yippie leader, spoke at SUNYA on November 29th. His speech was a reflection on the events of the 60's, 70's, and 80's, and a call to action for the young people of today.

Rubin spoke about the struggle against the Vietnam War, and the anti-war movement that emerged as a result. He also spoke about the importance of education, and the need for young people to be active in the political struggle.

Rubin's speech was a call to action for the young people of today. He encouraged them to be active in the political struggle, and to work towards a better future for all people.
