Basketball Season Opens Tomorrow
State Five To Meet Connecticut Teachers in First Game of 1934-35 Season

The State college varsity basketball squad will play the season's first game tonight in the gymnasium of Floor Hall against Connecticut State Teachers from Bridgeport. The game will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

The players who have never appeared on the local court in previous years and the strength and weakness of the team are all unknown. Coach Rutherford Baker has been putting a score of prospects through their paces for the last several weeks and has said that men who have received uniforms are William Gray, sophomore; Robert Bagwell, junior; and Albert Yahn, senior. Several of these names may be used to service during the game.

A preliminary game will begin at 7:00 o'clock.

Charlotte Loeb, Department Head,
Dies Of Illness

The entire College community was saddened by the death of Miss Charlotte Loeb, head of the department of French, last Thursday. Miss Loeb had been ill during the past winter and the illness was considered to be of a chronic nature. She had continued her post-graduate work at Columbia University and at the Institute for International Education in Paris. The illness continued until her death last Friday morning. She was 42 years old and had received the degree of Master of Arts from the University of Michigan in 1915.

The awards were given to Miss Helen Conklin, who was chosen as the outstanding junior for her work in soccer, and Miss Sadie G. Miller, who was chosen as the outstanding freshman for her work in hockey.

Board Of Finance
Will Have Check On Student Tax

Members of the student board of finance are conducting a complete check on all student tax payments made to date. According to Mr. Clarence A. Hulley, assistant professor of business and tax, this tax was levied last fall, and is due by December 15. The tax is for the use of the College, and is payable to the treasurer of the College association. Hardmeyer is secretary of the student association. Hardmeyer is secretary of the student association.

Faculty Council Denies Petition
To Postpone Christmas Vacation

The present calendar places the Christmas vacation in substantial agreement with the vacation of other colleges, thereby making it impossible for our students to share the social activities in their home communities.

The College has officially proclaimed its calendar in print and has therefore obligated itself in a public way. Parents as well as faculty members have arranged holiday activities, including travel, on the basis of the published calendar. As a self-respecting institution, the College cannot alter this public announcement, as it may cause much confusion.
